Oxford

13 May 1807.

My Dear Bishop of Melburne,

I have much pleasure in introducing to you an excellent young Evangelical Clergyman Re Rev Nathaniel Jones, whom I have known & esteemed during his course through Oxford. If you can give him any ministerial work, not too hard for his health, I think you will never regret having done so.

I enclose any showing letter in his power from

Commander Williams, AN
the Supremacy Society &
the Protestant Reformation Society, an excellent Christian whom you may remember meeting at Claydon.

Wishes you to Antislavery because of some symptoms of weakness in the Chest.

He has chosen Melbourne because he met & heard you at Claydon.

He has attended my Saturday evening meeting of independent, regular.

Hope that he may your climate may, under God's blessing, enable him to do some work.
May God richly bless you

I am & am with you
He has seen.

My beloved son,

Alfred New Christopher
