The Morning of the Resurrection—Axel Ender

"And the angel answered and said unto the women, Fear not ye: for I know that ye seek Jesus, which was crucified. He is not here: for He is risen, as He said. Come, see the place where the Lord lay. And go quickly and tell His disciples that He is risen from the dead. . . ."

—The Gospel according to Saint Matthew.

THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
29th March, 1952.

Dear People of All Saints',

This "Chronicle" will be available on Palm Sunday, the first day of Holy Week. Holy Week commenced with a procession and ended with one: but how different were the two processions—the cheering, enthusiastic multitude which poured into the city on Palm Sunday is in marked contrast with the rabble goaded to hatred which came from the same city on Good Friday morning.

Once again, we express the hope that Holy Week may be kept free from social engagements, so that we may spend some portion of each day in meditation and worship. Day by day throughout this Holy Week let us find some time to be with our Lord in the triumph of His love through the agony which the selfishness of men brings upon Him. Particulars of the Holy Week and Easter services were printed in the March "Chronicle," to which we refer you; but details of Good Friday and Easter Day services are re-printed in this issue. There will be no meetings of our clubs and societies during Holy Week; members are invited to attend the daily services, particularly on the day of their regular meeting.

We trust you will continue to protest, both by word and deed, against anything and everything which mars the solemnity of Good Friday. It is difficult to understand how we can claim to a Christian nation while we permit, without a protest, this most sacred and solemn day in the whole Christian year to be used merely for material gain and for pleasure. Your Church makes ample provision for you to spend, quietly and thoughtfully, the day on which our Lord was crucified on Calvary's Hill for us and for all men. We specially ask that parents will encourage their children to attend their own service, and that they will make it possible for them to be present. In addition to the morning service, which commences at half-past ten, we commend to you the 'Three Hours' Devotion from 12 noon to 3 p.m.

Should you be planning to be absent from the parish on Easter Day, will you help by sending or bringing your Lenten and Easter offerings before leaving? We are hoping to increase our Lenten gifts for the Australian Board of Missions and the Church Missionary Society this year, so that we may help both Societies not only to carry on their existing work, but to expand it, even in these days of increasing costs.

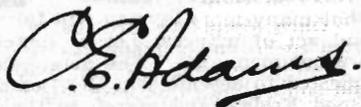

May we, on Easter Day, recall and re-affirm the "Power of the Resurrection" in our own lives and in the Church. Whatever we may think of Christ Himself, we are all rather apt to despair of the Church. It is declining, played-out, obsolete! If we are feeling uncharitable we change its name to "Organised Religion" (a horrible phrase!) and throw mud at that. If we still love the Church, we moan about the empty pews and the indifferent masses outside. Of course, we ought to deplore the Churches' faults and weaknesses. May we ever be preserved from complacency! But let us pause and remember that our pessimism may slide over into downright unbelief. It may disable us from doing the vigorous and cheerful work that needs doing now. Let us believe in "the Power of His Resurrection" in the world. I know that is difficult. We are only too well aware of the tragedy of our modern world. A generation that grew up under the stress of the first world war, has practically never known a world really at peace. We can see the unrest and the horrors of the world to-day: and at the back of our minds there is the threat of even worse things—biological warfare, atom bombs and so on. Again, let us pause in our thinking, and remember this is God's world. Nothing that has happened in our modern world is worse than what happened at Calvary, and the Cross was not the end of everything. Good Friday was followed by Easter, the Cross by the Resurrection with its gospel of new life and forgiveness. Even in this great, struggling, sinful world the last word is never of death, but of life, for the holy purpose of God Almighty, the giver and sustainer of life, runs through everything. May we experience the abiding presence of the Risen Christ, and really know "the Power of His Resurrection" in the world, in the Church, and in our own hearts and lives.

Gifts of white flower for the Easter Festival will be very acceptable and should be left at the Church or Rectory not later than the morning of Easter Eve—April 12th.

Wishing you all a Holy, Happy Easter.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Appreciation.—The following letters of thanks have been received from (a) The Matron of The Home of Peace, and (b) The Federal Secretary of the Church Army:

(a) "It was a great pleasure to receive the gifts from the Harvest Festival Services, held recently at All Saints' Church, and I would be glad if you will pass on to your parishioners our sincere thanks for their kindness. We feel that your people are sharing with us in Christian fellowship, in this very vital and necessary work, which is being done in the Name of our Lord and Master, and, therefore, in the name of our Church. Also in these days of rising prices, it is a tremendous help to have such donations of groceries, eggs, fruit and vegetables, for they greatly help to reduce the expenses. As you know, our motto is that we do not waste anything, so I can assure you that we really do use all commodities. To make the best use of your gifts and those from other parishes, I have organised several working bees to prepare fruit and vegetables for bottling and jam making, and as a result, the shelves are well filled with Fowler jars, containing tomatoes, pears, pineapples, beetroot, rhubarb, grape and melon and lemon jam, and sauces and chutneys. At the present time, we have over 75 patients, as well as about 40 staff to cater for each day, so the housekeeping problem is considerably eased when we receive such practical help. Receipt for £1 is enclosed herewith, representing extra donation. We are most grateful to the friends who also helped in this way."

(b) "Thank you very much indeed for the cheque for £8/18/8 from your parish, this amount representing the retiring collection on the occasion of my recent visit. I can assure you I appreciated the opportunity so kindly given to me by your good Rector; it is always a joy to tell our Church people what Church Army is really doing in their name."

Rectory Repair Fund.—The nett proceeds from the excellent Concert, organised by Mr. and Mrs. Jack Thomas, and Ron, augmented the Rectory Repair Fund by £28/14/4. The Rector and Wardens greatly appreciate the willing help of the organisers, and would join with them in thanking ALL who contributed in any way to the great success of the Concert. Although we are still a long way off our objective, the co-operation of our people is very encouraging, and it is felt that as the Fund becomes better known there will be many additional contributors. The Wardens acknowledge, with thanks, the following gifts received up to and including 30/3/1952:—Mr. and Mrs. T. H. Bosward, £5; Mr. Walters, £1; Anonymous, 10/-; Mr. and Mrs. H. Plowman, and Miss Juleff, £1/10/-; Petersham Boy Scouts Parents' Committee, £2/2/-; Mrs. R. Mitchell, £4; Mrs. Nisbet, £1; Mr. H. Barnett, £1; Mr. and Mrs. K. N. Oldfield, £2/2/-; Mrs. Miskle, £1; Mr. and Mrs. H. Ayrton, £2/2/-; Mrs. Binns, 10/-; Mrs. Cordeaux, 5/-; The Y.C.I., £2/2/-; Mr. S. H. Gannon, £1/1/-; per Miss Bayley, £1/10/-; Mr. and Mrs. Quelch, £2/2/-; Miss Rainsford, £1/1/-; proceeds of Concert (per Mr. and Mrs. J. Thomas), £28/14/4; M.C.E., £1; Miss D. P. Brown, £1/1/-; Mrs. Lindsay, £1/10/-; Mrs. Thompson (Douglas Street), £1. Previously acknowledged: £76/1/6. Total £139/3/10.

Procession of Witness.—His Grace the Archbishop, writes: "It is hoped that many more laymen will take part in the procession, as it is an important act of witness. Let us remember to walk in silence, befitting the day we commemorate." The arrangements are as in former years. We are requested to assemble in the Domain behind Sydney Hospital at 4.15 p.m. on Good Friday, and march to the Cathedral for a short, concluding service. Parishes are grouped according to Rural Deaneries. All Saints' is in Petersham Deanery.

Women's Guild.—The annual meeting of the Guild was held on Thursday, 13th March, and was well attended. The following office-bearers were elected: President, Mrs. Adams; Vice-presidents, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Craigie, Mrs. F. C. Smith, Miss Brown; Secretary and Treasurer, Miss Lucas. In place of groups of members a Social Committee was formed, consisting of Mrs. Adams, Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Craigie, Mrs. F. C. Smith, Miss Brown, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Sharp. This Committee will organise functions and call on other members for assistance. In lieu of 6d. per month the membership fee has been fixed at 5/- subscription for 12 months, March, 1952, to February, 1953. We do hope more women of the Parish will join the Guild. On Thursday, 27th March, a short business meeting was held, followed by a Bible Study by the Rector, who gave brief character studies of "Men Who Crucified Christ." Future meetings are: 10th April, Maundy Thursday, Service in Chapel; 23rd April, Wednesday, Vestry Meeting; 8th May, Thursday, Talk by Rev. Ian Shevill: "Impressions of Oberammergau"; 15th May, Thursday, Sale of Work (in aid of the Guild's Quota Fund). Don't forget these dates, especially 15th May.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Sunday School.—We commend to all parishioners a film evening, sponsored by the Australian Gas Light Company, to be held (D.V.), Wednesday, 16th April, at 8 p.m., in the Parish Hall. An entertaining programme has been promised with items to appeal to all ages. Admission charge is 1/6 for adults, 9d. for children. All proceeds will go to the Sunday School funds, and we shall be grateful for the support of our friends. Tickets may be obtained from Sunday School staff or scholars. We are happy to welcome back, after absence due to illness, two of our teachers, Miss Olofsen and Mr. Carruthers.—M. REX, Hon. Secretary.

Y.C.I.—The 41st annual meeting of the Y.C.I. was well attended. The Hon. Secretary's report disclosed that, thanks to the loyalty and enthusiasm of members, we had a good year despite many difficulties. The various meetings were reported upon, special reference being made to the success of the Commonwealth Jubilee Dinner, at which past and present members gathered. The election of office-bearers resulted as follows: President, Rev. C. E. Adams, Th.L. (Rector); Vice-presidents, Messrs. J. Alt, R. F. Atkinson, T. H. Bosward, J. M. Boyle, H. G. Brodie, H. F. Jones, W. H. Hall, A. J. Harris, D. B. Hunter, M.L.A., M. A. Hunter, H. F. Jones, F. J. Kinnings, S. L. Rankin and W. Sopwith, Jnr.; Press and Literature Superintendent, Mr. O. G. Horton, B.A.; Visiting Representatives, Messrs. B. T. Sayers and A. Jones; Librarian, Mr. Jack Thomas; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. E. W. Brooks,

A.C.I.S.; Hon. Secretary, Mr. L. C. Calver; Hon. Assistant Secretary and Assistant Treasurer, Mr. W. Sopwith, Jnr., A.I.C.A. The Y.C.I. is the Men's Club of the Parish, and copies of the new syllabus will be gladly forwarded to men who are interested in linking up with the organisation.—L.C.C.

Parish Social.—For the dual purpose of providing for the social life of parishioners and augmenting the Rectory Repair Fund a Parish Social is being sponsored by the Young Marrieds' Club and the Y.C.I. The function will be held in the Parish Hall on Friday, 30th May. There will be entertainment for all, as the programme includes games, musical items and dancing, as well as euche or bridge. Further details will be given in next month's issue of the "Chronicle," but in the meantime, the Wardens suggest that members of our organisations and parishioners generally, make a note of the date, Friday, 30th May.—L.C.C.

Young Marrieds' Club.—In last month's issue of the "Chronicle" we announced that we had some vacancies in our Tennis Club, which was held every Tuesday, and the court was in Cambridge Street, opposite Braeside Hospital. We would now like to advise any ladies interested that we have had to vacate this court and will commence playing at a new court on April 22. We will let you know in next month's "Chronicle" which court this will be.—NORMA HORTON, Hon. Secretary.

L.H.M.U.—Annual meeting of the Ladies' Home Mission Union was held on Tuesday, March 11. An apology was received from the Rector, who was conducting the funeral service of a personal friend. All officers were re-elected. Rev. Ray Weir, Court Chaplain, gave a most interesting address on his work among the young people appearing before the courts. We had a delightful afternoon. We have had a very successful year. Many thanks to members and friends for their co-operation.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

C.E.F.—At the Fellowship's annual meeting on March 25, Mary Marsh and Alan Jones were re-elected Secretary and Treasurer respectively; D. Locke, T. Wynne, G. Kearns and V. Seaglove were elected to the Social Committee, and E. Olofsson re-elected Games Leader. Encouraging reports were presented by both Secretary and Treasurer. Five pounds was voted to the Parish Hall Fund, and £2/2/- to the Pallister Girls' Home. "That the influence of modern films is bad" is the subject chosen for debate on April 22, whilst April 29 is set down for a Games Evening. Fellowship members are reminded that the first Sunday in each month is our Corporate Communion.—C.E.A.

Annual Vestry Meeting.—It is hoped we may have a representative attendance of parishioners at this important meeting on Wednesday, April 23, at 8 p.m.

Parish Hall Fund.—Boxes for this fund will be issued on Easter Day (April 13) and will be recalled on Sunday, August 17th, which is our Consecration Festival. Our objective this year for our Parish Hall debt is £200.

Diocesan Festival.—The Diocesan Festival is to be held in the Sydney Town Hall on Friday, May 2. 5 p.m., Annual Service, St. Andrew's Cathedral; 6 p.m., Diocesan Festival Tea; 7.15 p.m., Annual Festival Gathering. All Saints' will again have its own table, and we hope our people will gather round it. Tickets are 2/6 and may be obtained at the Rectory. Further particulars will be given through the Church Notices.

Personal.—Our deepest sympathy is extended to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: Mrs. Impey and family, of New Canterbury Road; Mr. C. H. Christmas and family, of Ashfield (personal friends of the Rector and Mrs. Adams); Mrs. E. Gould and her children, of Bright Street, and Mr. and Mrs. E. Gould, of Forster. May the Easter message come with renewed meaning to all those in sorrow,
