Baptisms.—June 2nd, Amy Jean Allwright; 9th, Keith Meredith Lindeman, Edward Herbert Thompson Halloran; 23rd, Eric Norman James Bramley, John Alfred Dawson.

Marriage.—June 3rd, Joseph Painter and Emily Fay; Alfred Augustus Henson and Malvina Ethel La Roche; 4th, James Francis McCardell and Arabella Beatrice Clara Jiffkins; 11th, Benjamin Clarke and Elizabeth Emma O'Brien; 19th, George Kenyon Holden and Annette Phoebe Park; 22nd, George Henry Swan and Clara Ellison Grant; 26th, James Ridley and Ann Blair.

Burial.—June 25th, William Harfleet Marshall.

Parochial School Concert.—There was a full attendance at the School on the 14th June in the Town Hall. The evening was warmly appreciated, everything on the programme being attractive and well performed, thanks to the careful and skilful preparation of Miss Green and the assistant teachers. So many have been the requests for a repetition, and so great the success of this performance, that it has been arranged to repeat the whole programme on Thursday evening, the 18th inst., in the Petersham Town Hall, in aid of the local Benevolent Society. Tickets, 1s., Double Tickets, 1s. 6d., children, half-price.

The School re-opens on Monday, July 8th, when new scholars will be enrolled.

Lantern Lecture.—A Lecture on "Life and Work in New Guinea," with lantern illustrations was given by the Rev. Copland King, M.A., on the 17th June, in the Petersham Town Hall. The audience represented the parish of All Saints' and most of the surrounding parishes. The Lecture was most interesting, and a hearty vote of thanks was accorded to the Lecturer.

Oratorio:—"Queen of Sheba."—The first part of the Oratorio, entitled: "Queen of Sheba," was sung after Choral Evensong on Wednesday evening, 12th June, by the Choir of All Saints' assisted by friends. The words are selected from Holy Scripture, the musical setting by Harvey Löhr. The augmented choir under the leadership of Mr. W. T. Wood performed very creditably what was a most difficult task. The Solos and Choruses were all well rendered. This is the first time that this Oratorio has been sung in Australia. The preacher at Evensong was the Rev. A. Yarnold, R.D. The collection amounted to £6 2s. 2d. There were about 500 people present and the number of coins were 275, so that nearly half the number present contributed nothing either for the accommodation which they sought or for the light they enjoyed, still less to the funds for the Choir and organ for which their contributions were asked.

Parochial Pleasant Evening.—All willing to help in this entertainment are invited to a preliminary meeting in the School Hall, on July 9th, at 7.45 p.m.

Crystal Glee Society.—A Concert will shortly be held in the Mission Hall, in aid of the funds of the Mission Church.

Confirmation Classes.—Classes will commence on Sunday, July 28th, in All Saints' Church. Males at 2 o'clock, Females at 4.15 p.m. Special arrangements will be made for the preparation of adults and those unable to attend at the usual times. The Clergy will be glad to receive at once the names of those who desire to attend the classes, etc.
