Fellowship Day 2010
Australian Church Women Inc

The offerings received today go to the Winifred Kiek Scholarship Fund.

This scholarship, awarded annually, is to honour Winifred Kiek who was one of those instrumental in bringing Australian Church Women together in worship and witness.

The scholarship is offered to Christian women of member countries of the Asian Church Women's Conference [ACWC]
multicultural Australia and Pacific Island nations, and is used for supplementary training and further studies in the applicant's chosen ministry.

In 2010 the scholars are:

Ruth Marsipal [married with two children] from Papua New Guinea, and Tonu Rigamoto Fakraufon from Fiji.

They will be studying Preaching, Evangelism, Peace Building, Christian Counselling and Women's Empowerment at the Alan Walker College of Evangelism in New South Wales.

This course will consist of 'Distance Education' using the internet and emails for six months, after which the scholars will 'live in' at the college, graduating in December 2010.

Your support is greatly appreciated as you give today
for this scholarship fund which gives further opportunities for ministry.

BRIEF REPORT on WINFRED KIEK SCHOLARS

THE OFFERING will now be received for the Winifred Kiek Scholarship Fund

PRAYER for the WINIFRED KIEK SCHOLARSHIP TRUST and SCHOLARS

Father we give thanks for the love and financial support given by women throughout our land as we gather in many locations to celebrate Fellowship Day. We pray for those responsible for administering these funds who, under your guidance, select the recipients each year to undertake further training.

We would especially remember individual scholars from the past, and those who at present are involved in using their gifts and talents in meeting the needs of others. Some former scholars find themselves in areas where they struggle with the depth of their faith, as life brings them to situations that are unsought and unwelcome. May they be conscious of the ongoing support of Australian Church Women, which does not cease after their studies are completed.

For our 2010 scholars, Ruth and Tonu, we ask your special blessing. Direct their thoughts as they pursue their callings and endeavour to refine and expand their skills. In the times when they feel frustrated, remind them that they are where you have placed them and that it is your work, not theirs.

As they come to Australia to complete the studies, be their comfort in the days when many cultural differences impact on them. Guide them in the future days as their ministry bears fruit for your kingdom, while they seek to bring your Light into the darkness. Amen.

ITEM: As arranged locally **

SCRIPTURE READING: 2 Corinthians 4 verses 1-6.

PRAYERS of INTERCESSION +

Bless those who are sad, those on whose dearest the chill wind of death has blown,
and comfort those whom no one else can comfort.

Bless those who have had some great disappointment;

those who have found a friend untrue

those who have found a lover faithless;

those who have failed in something for which they toiled;

those to whom life has refused something on which they set their hearts

Response: Lord, let your light shine in the darkness

Bless those who are worried;

those who are worried about their health;

those who have an insoluble problem which needs resolution;

those who have a difficult decision which must be taken;

those who know that they must meet their testing time;

those who are tempted and who fear that they may fall.

Response: Lord, let your light shine in the darkness.

Bless those who are ill; be especially near to those who will never be well again;

and ease the pain of those whose pain is beyond the skill of human help.

Response: Lord, let your light shine in the darkness

O God our Father, we remember all this world's unfortunate ones;

refugees without a home and without a state;

those who are persecuted for their faith;

those who are suffering for their loyalty to some principle which is dearer to them than comfort and than life.

Response: Lord, we pause to bring these petitions to you.

Let your light shine in the darkness.
