THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
30th October, 1950.

Dear People of All Saints',

We were thankful to know that Bishop Pilcher has been restored to health after his recent illness, and was able to be with us for our Confirmation Service. Once again we had an impressive Confirmation, in which the Choir's rendering of Foster's appropriate anthem, "O for a Closer Walk with God" (sung at the Bishop's request), helped to create an atmosphere of worship and devotion in an already beautiful service, which, we feel sure, the Confirmees will ever remember with deep thanksgiving.

The testing time for these young people commences now; but the real test will be apparent, not so much now, when they are keen and enthusiastic, but, say, this time next year. When we look through our Confirmation Register to see how many of the 1950 candidates are still regular Communicants, and have remained loyal to their Confirmation Vow, we can begin to assess the value they place upon their Confirmation. We commend them to you, hoping that you will remember them in your prayers, and that, where it is possible, you will get to know them and help them in every possible way to keep the promises they have made.

The Christian way of life to which we are called is no easy thing—it is a constant struggle which challenges the best that is in us. In an indifferent and even hostile world the youth of the church to-day will come into conflict with the spirit forces of evil, as they go forth to bear their witness. But God does not expect us to fight in our own strength. True discipleship begins by trusting Christ for life and strength: in the Holy Communion Service He not only provides an eternal reminder of His love, but also promises a means of grace, a chain of friendship by which our characters can be linked up with, and strengthened and refreshed by Him.

The visit of The Archbishop of Canterbury—the first visit of an Archbishop of Canterbury to Sydney—is an unique event in the history of our Australian Church. Our Archbishop writes: "I hope members of the Church will turn out in large numbers to greet the Archbishop of Canterbury on his arrival from Canberra. . . ." On Friday, 17th November, the Archbishop and Mrs. Fisher, accompanied by the Chaplain, will leave Haigh Street at 4 p.m. escorted by the youth of the Church. They will proceed along Park Street to the Town Hall, and thence to the George Street entrance to the Cathedral.

The Archbishop will give an address in the Town Hall on Monday evening, November 20th, at 7.45. Tickets for reserved seats, at five shillings each, can be obtained at Nicholson's or Paling's. A Women's Rally to welcome Mrs. Fisher will be held on Wednesday afternoon, November 21st, in the Town Hall, at 2 p.m. Tickets for seats (2/- each) may be obtained at the Mothers' Union Headquarters in the Lower Chapter House.

There will be a day of continuous prayer for the Missionary Work of the Church on St. Andrew's Day, Thursday, November 30th, commencing with a celebration of Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m., and concluding with evening prayer at 5.30 p.m. If you would like to join in this Day of Prayer, please put your name down for the period you will be available, so that the continuity of prayer may be maintained throughout the day.

We again commend to your interest and support the great Centenary Rally of the Australian Board of Missions to be held in the Sydney Town Hall on Tuesday, November 14th, at 7.45 p.m. His Grace the Archbishop of New Zealand, and several Missionary Bishops will be present. We must do our utmost to fill the Town Hall that evening.

Yours very sincerely,

C. E. Adams.

HOLY COMMUNION AND THE RECENTLY CONFIRMED

One of the things we particularly stressed in our Preparation Classes was the importance of REGULAR attendance at Holy Communion. If ever you find yourself tempted to become slack and irregular, take your Prayer Book and read again the Second Exhortation in the Communion Service, which is based on our Lord's parable of The Great Supper in St. Luke's Gospel, chapter fourteen, verses sixteen to twenty-five. This Exhortation contains much valuable teaching, and in addition, is a very lovely piece of English prose.

The fact that the first Sunday in each month has been suggested as "Your Day," does not mean that you may come only on that Sunday. You are welcome to come as frequently as you wish; and you should be present on the Great Festivals of the Church year (Christmas, Easter, Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity), also on Saints' Days, if possible. The assignment of a certain Sunday each month is to remind you that you should never allow your attendance at Holy Communion to become less frequent than once a month.

The text the Bishop gave you (Ephesians VI. 10) contains appropriately the opening words of the Epistle for the Twenty-first Sunday after Trinity —(which is the Sunday you were Confirmed). "Be strong in the Lord and in the power of His might." Read this Epistle frequently: it is the picture St. Paul gives us of the Christian's conflict and the Christian's armour. For this conflict we need to pray daily, "Strengthen me, O Lord, with the power of Thy Holy Spirit, that I may continue Thine forever, and daily increase in Thy heavenly grace more and more. . . ." There is no discharge in this war against evil. As Dr. Page's beautiful hymn, which you sang at your Confirmation (to the fine tune composed by the Bishop, who confirmed you) says:

"He, His mighty arm extending,
Still hath power from sin to save,
Though thy warfare hath no ending
But the grave."

We welcome into full membership of the Church the following candidates who were confirmed by the Right Rev. C. Venn Pilcher on Sunday morning, October 29th:—N. F. Steer, C. H. Wood, H. Price, R. W. Verity, J. E. Sharp, G. D. Kearns, D. G. Evans, R. A. McCabe, L. G. Dudley, N. A. Little, A. Dudley, A. Collins, M. L. Ireland, M. E. Armstrong, J. E. Jones, J. E. Isemonger, C. M. Quelch, B. G. Schuback, Y. M. Stevenson, P. H. Causer, M. R. Townsend, M. J. Lambert, Y. M. Arnfield, J. C. Richardson, H. M. Smith, J. M. Hale, D. E. Millarey, B. J. Brown, M. L. Rowe.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

"Food for Britain Fund".—Several letters of thanks have been received for the food parcels sent from this parish. Lack of space precludes the publication of them all, but the following is portion of a letter received from the Rev. A. L. Whitehorn, Vicar of Holy Trinity Church, Springfield, Chelmsford, which is indicative of the deep appreciation with which our parcels were received:

"On Saturday morning, September 2nd, I received from you all six Australian Express Food Parcels, sent from a depot in England, Nesmilk Ltd., Tutbury, Staffordshire. The gift came as a great surprise, and will be a wonderful Godsend and blessing to a number of sick and aged (very old) folks in this parish. Already I have given away to-day several tins of braised steak, dripping and sweets. In the parcels were four tins of meat, one tin of dripping, and one packet of sweets, and they all came excellently done up and in order. How can I thank each and all of you for these six fine parcels! I shall distribute them very carefully, for this is a parish having many single old folk—either living by themselves—or two old people living together. Their rations, therefore, like meat, sugar, tea, cheese and bacon, eggs and fats are very small and meagre, and sometimes not at all sufficient for one or two to live on. The larger the family the easier it is to make the rations go round; but it is the 'ones' and 'twos' that are badly hit, especially when they are very old. So in the name of my many parishioners like this, who will greatly benefit by these gifts of yours, I do say 'many, many thanks,' and may God bless your kindness and you yourselves. . . ." (The above was held over from last issue through lack of space.—Editor.)

Sunday School.—By the time the "Chronicle" reaches you, we will have had our Confirmation Service and a number of our senior scholars will now be full members of the Church. Will you pray that they may grow in grace daily and that our Lord Jesus Christ will be to them a vital reality. Other matters for prayer are the Children's Festival on November 12th, at 11 a.m., at which we hope to see a large number of parents present, and the Picnic, to be held at Watson's Bay on Saturday, November 18th. We shall receive gratefully any donations toward the picnic fund.—M. REX (Secretary).

E. V. Adams' Memorial.—Guild members remind us that we have but one month in which to send in our gifts for the additional £100, which, this year, is for the Centenary Fund of the Australian Board of Missions, and which is ear-marked for The House of The Epiphany in memory of their late President. Our offerings will be received and presented by the Chairman, the Ven. Archdeacon C. S. Robertson, on Sunday evening, December 3rd. We acknowledge with thanks the following gifts: Misses Janssen, £1; Mrs. E. McLean, 10/-; Miss Watts, 3/-; Indian afternoons and evenings (additional), 7/-; donations from former students of The House of The Epiphany, £5/3/8; Mrs. Miskle, 10/6; Mrs. K. M. Locke, £2/2/-; Mrs. C. Jones (Roseville), £1; Mrs. Slee, £1; Miss D. P. Brown, £2; Miss Sibthorpe, 10/-. Previously acknowledged, £39/4/6. Total to date: £53/10/8. Donations from the old students of The House of The Epiphany have varied from £1 to 11d. When the Warden wrote to all old students she told them that she knew that Missionaries' pennies were few, and so if they wished to join in to send a stamp. One did, and her Senior Missionary asked to be allowed to do so, too. Here is an extract from one letter: "Thank you for your letter telling about the proposed memorial to Miss Adams, who was certainly a staunch friend of the House, and I am sure all the students remember her with real affection for the many kind and thoughtful things she did to make their year at Stanmore a happy one."

The Women's Guild.—We were pleased to welcome Sister Helen Roberts at our Rally on September 28th, but regret there were not more members present to hear an interesting account of her work in New Guinea. A social hour followed the short business meeting on October 12th, when the Warden and students of The House of The Epiphany were our guests. Opportunity was taken to make a small gift to Eugenie Robinson and Joyce Squibb, who will shortly complete their training and leave for service in the Mission field early next year. Although we might have had more people at our Market Day on 28th October, it was a great success financially. We thank all our members and friends for their gifts and help, especially the members of the Young Marrieds' Club for stocking and staffing a useful Cake Stall. We are grateful to Miss Wall and her pupils, and to Miss Muriel Harris for a short, but attractive musical programme. This may reach some of you before November 7th—if so, it will be a reminder of the Pantomime. "Tom, Tom, the Piper's Son," in Petersham Town Hall, when the proceeds will be divided between the Women's Guild and the Stanmore Presbyterian Church. Thursday, November 23rd, is our next Business Meeting.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Special Appeal.—The appeal makes belated, but valiant efforts to reach the Two Hundred mark, and, thanks to the following, now stands at £198/9/3: The Young Marrieds' Club, £3/3/-; Mrs. Graham, 10/-; Mr. Bert Williams, 10/-; Mrs. J. Dewbery, 10/6. Perhaps the very small amount which would bring the Churchwardens to that financial haven where they would be, lies in those four outstanding boxes! Who knows!! Nevertheless, we thank you all for a very good response.

The Choir.—You are ALL invited to a special Variety Show in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, November 15th, at 8 p.m. The Eastwood Orchestra, the Metropolis Players and the Tudor Singers have a good programme arranged for your entertainment. So come along, EVERYONE, and help us by your support!—J. CARROLL, Secretary.

"Braeside".—The Women's Auxiliary of Braeside Hospital invites you to a Fete to be held on Saturday, December 2nd, to be opened by Matron Shaw, O.B.E., at 2 p.m.

Personal.—We offer our sincere sympathy to Mrs. E. McLean in the loss of her niece, after a long illness, and to Mrs. Watts (and her relatives) of Audley Street, in the recent death of her brother, Mr. Martin.

C.E.F.—The financial result of our Fellowship Concert is not yet available. We thank all who helped us to make it successful. We are most grateful to Mr. J. Wilson Hogg, Headmaster of Trinity Grammar School, who gave us a most interesting and helpful address at our Fellowship Tea on October 15th. We were disappointed with the response from Youth Groups of the neighbouring Churches. We extend a hearty invitation to those recently confirmed to join our Fellowship. We hope many of them will become keen and enthusiastic Fellowshipippers.—MARY MARSH, Secretary.

HEARD IN THE BUS

"Oh, it's good to sit down, Mrs. Smith, standing in that bus queue such a long time pays me out something cruel. But I must tell you about the vicar. We don't speak no more."

"Goodness me, Mrs. Brown, you don't say . . ."

"Yes, I do. He's that touchy, and I was only telling him for his own good. It's like this, I says, the trouble with the Church is that many of the parsons is too old, I says. Every parson should be under forty."

"Quite right, Mrs. B., and what did he say to . . .?"

"Well, you know how obstinate he is. He just looked at me in that funny way he does, and said 'And what do we do with the parsons over forty, Mrs. B.?' But I refused to be drawn from the subject like that."

"Of course, Mrs. B., as my husband always says . . ."

"I'm not talking about the old ones, I says, I'm just saying that they should all be young and then there wouldn't be no old ones to worry about, and he didn't know what to answer to that. 'What would be the advantage of having them all under forty?' he asks, all simple like. Well, I says, that's obvious, I says. Then we could have whist drives and dances and summer camps and outings on Bank holidays, and such like, I says, and look what a difference that would make to the parish. 'Oh,' he says, quite uppish and nasty, 'you don't want a parson,' he says, 'what you want is a paid youth organiser, and then you could wear out the soles of your shoes and your immortal souls at the same time,' he says. Oh, I says, you don't mean to be reasonable when a lady speaks, so good morning, vicar, I says, and walks away."

"Good for you, Mrs. B., that's just what . . ."

"Well, this is where I get off. I'm going to change my doctor."

"What, that curly-headed young man what's been attending you?"

"Yes, Mrs. S., and that's why. Curly-headed he may be, but when it comes to a doctor I've no use for a young man what wins tennis tournaments. I like a middle-aged man what's got some years of experience behind him and knows what he's talking about. You can't expect old heads on young shoulders."
