

Teachers' meeting fixed for Monday

"Gort House"

9 Nov. 1913.

Dear Mr. Holliday

Your vigorous impeachment of the drink traffic ("THE trade") in this morning's service has led me to refresh my memory of a song I wrote at the time of the last No License crusade. As I know you to be such a strong supporter of the movement, I thought it would interest you to have a copy. I may say that it has never been published, because I'm waiting for some friend to set it to a suitable air! Here's a chance for someone to become famous!

Yours in deep sympathy with Reform
W. J. Butcher
