My dear Mr. Taylor,

The Trustees of Moore College have made the best arrange in their power (temporarily) for carry on the work of the College in the Term beginning on Saturday. As you have kindly consented to undertake a General Supervision of the ^{can} Students and to give what time you spare the work of the College, I send you the following ^{memorandum of} Authority to act the ~~the~~ matter arranged between which you can read to the Stud when they are assembled. I at send with this the Scheme of The times fixed by the Lecturers for their lectures may of course be altered, if they wish it, and if it is found more convenient.

Praying that God may give His Blessing to all the work done

I remain Yours very faithfully which will be given by the Clergyman named. I regret that there are some things for which I have been unable to provide.

Memorandum.

The Rev.^d Stephen Taylor will act with authority from the Trustees as a quasi-Principal for the Term, exercising a general supervision over the Students. He will receive them on their ^{return} ~~arrival~~ to College, & will reform them of the arrangements made for lectures during the Term, and require them to attend upon the lectures at the stated times. They are to take their instructions from me & to submit generally to his guidance as members of the College.
