

Theological Degrees

To the Registrar of the Victoria University, Manchester

Moore Coll. Sydney. Jan 24th 1901

Dear Sir-

I learn from the English Papers that the Victoria University has decided to grant degrees in Divinity.

May I ask for information on the subject?

- (1) Could a Theological College in Australia be affiliated as (Bishop's College Ripon) seems to be?
- (2) Or could individuals out here sit for the Examinations - the papers being sent out.
- (3) Would it be possible for the Churches here to establish a sort of Theological faculty, to work in conjunction with the Victoria University, - providing Lectures &c.
- (4) Must any of your Arts course be taken as a condition of entering upon your Divinity course? If so, would the same standing in the Sydney or Melbourne Arts course be accepted by your University as equivalent?
- (5) Failing the above can you suggest any way in which Australian Students could read for your Divinity degrees. Our Universities, over here, being entirely Secular we must look elsewhere for such degrees.

Thanking you in anticipation -

I remain a
