THE CHRONICLE SPEAKS.

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints!

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory.

26th August, 1940.

Dear People of All Saints',

We are again able to record, with deep gratitude, that our Consecration Festival was very successful from every point of view. Notwithstanding a day of showers and unsettled weather, the Sunday services were very well attended and were most inspiring and helpful. A big factor in making them so, was the consistently good work of our choir members who, from the early choral celebration to the singing of the Te Deum at the close of the day as a final Act of Thanksgiving, maintained the high standard which we have come to expect of them. We are very grateful to the Rev. C. E. Hulley and the Rev. W. J. Siddens for their appropriate and thought-provoking addresses at the Communion Breakfast and at Evensong respectively; and we do not forget those good people who ministered to us in more material things by providing and serving an excellent breakfast, and we would like to say, in parenthesis, that the potatoes were most comforting on such a morning!

You will all, I am sure, be interested to know that the special appeal (in lieu of a fete) has so far been answered to the extent of £129/1/8 (£98/1/7 coming by way of the boxes, and £31/0/1 in envelopes). There are still 23 boxes outstanding, and possibly there are some parishioners who have not yet been able to return the special envelope issued in the August "Chronicle"; so the Churchwardens live in hopes of seeing the total mount still higher. In view of the many other appeals being made upon us all at this time, we cannot expect to attain to last year's total, but we must point out to any whom it may concern that it is essential that we should have a right perspective in the matter of giving to the work of the Church in war time. It is very necessary to put first things first, and to realise that Red Cross appeals, Comforts funds, Canteens for our Forces, urgent and necessary though they be, would never have existed but for the teaching of Christianity and the Church; the very liberties we enjoy, the things which make life worth living, and for which men are giving their lives—these have grown out of the Christian religion. So, when you come to think of it, to say you cannot do anything for your Church because you are helping the Red Cross is not very intelligent, is it? This is not a "grouch," but a simple, necessary reminder. The Wardens join with me in wholeheartedly thanking all, who by their co-operation, have enabled us to meet the liabilities of our Parish Hall debt for a fourth year, without recourse to the bazaar method.

The Festival Tea was once again a time of happy fellowship and re-union. We were pleased to have with us the Rev. G. P. M. and Mrs. Ware, the Rev. E. T. and Mrs. Montgomery, Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Willmott and Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Ward. Apologies were received from the Rev. D. and Mrs. Creighton, Rev. F. H. and Mrs. Meyer, and the Rev. H. J. and Mrs. Lofts.

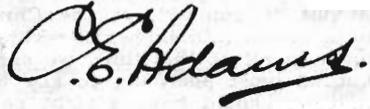

At the short music recital preceding Evensong, Mr. Mason and Mr. Pickard were associated with Mr. Kerrigan, and afterwards in the Parish Hall, Miss Gwen Boyd, Mr. Mason and Mr. McKechnie ("Weirdo") contributed to a short but most enjoyable programme, Mr. Pickard kindly acting as accompanist. We were privileged in having Mr. B. S. B. Stevens (former Premier of N.S.W.) as the principal speaker, and we are most grateful to him for his timely message. Mr. Willmott, whose association with this parish goes back 58 years, also brought us greetings, and after Mr. E. C. King had voiced the appreciation of the Wardens for the parishioners' response to the special appeal, our Festival Commemoration was brought to a happy conclusion.

As we come near to the close of the first year of war, our hearts go out to this tortured world, and we long for its deliverance. Particularly are we thinking just now of the people of the Motherland, and we think of them with great pride as we realise that they are in possession of some things that even bombs cannot shatter. The strain upon them must be terrific, and we need to pray more and more that they may have the courage to maintain their magnificent spirit. Opportunity is being afforded us again for a National Day of Humiliation and Prayer, on Sunday, September 8. I trust all our people will respond to His Majesty the King's request that his people throughout the Empire will come together for corporate prayer, and I also hope it may be a new beginning for those who have neglected corporate worship in the past. If we keep away from assembling ourselves with those of like faith, we rob ourselves of some things that are vital to our religion. Without the Church we cannot be the full Christians we ought to be, any more than we can be true individuals by becoming hermits.

In a recent Church "Standard," a pastoral letter from the Bishop of Wellington was published. In it the Bishop asks, "Is there not something infinitely stirring in the fact that we belong to a generation to which God has given the high honour of upholding all that He holds dear against the fury of the oppressor, that same honour which S. Paul recognised as having been given to the Church of his day when he wrote of the Philip-pians, 'To you it hath been granted in the behalf of Christ, not only to believe on Him, but also to suffer in his behalf.'"

Are we ready to accept that "high honour"?

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Congregational Hymn Practice—The next Congregational Hymn Practice will be held on Sunday, the 15th, at 6.45 p.m., when the following hymns will be practised: 416, "God moves in a mysterious way" (London New); 465, "Lord, it belongs not to my care" (Aberdeen); and 554, "The God of Abraham praise" (Leoni). (Please note that the practice will be on the third Sunday in September, instead of the second.)

All Saints' Sunday School—The prevailing epidemics of measles, 'flu, etc., have taken toll of both scholars and staff, and our attendances have suffered; happily, the victims have made speedy recoveries.

Once more the Monthly Social was successful, and the next Social takes place on Saturday, 28th September, at 8 p.m.

We are fast approaching the time for the Children's Festival; preparations are about to commence for this important event, which will be held on Sunday, 20th October, when three services will be held; and the Festival Tea takes place on Wednesday, the 23rd, followed by an entertainment to which all parishioners are invited. Further particulars will be given in the next issue of the "Chronicle." In the meantime, we hope our friends will keep the two dates free.

—R. F. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.

Parish Festival Tea—It would need a much larger parish paper than this one to record in detail the many donations in kind for our Parish Festival Tea. We can but ask the donors to accept this general word of thanks for and appreciation of their kindness. To ALL who, by generous gifts, and by their enthusiasm to maintain the standard of our annual Parish Tea, contributed to the success of the 1940 effort, we say "Thank you," in very big letters!

The following moneys were received for the tables: Miss Humphries 5/-, Miss Watkins 10/-, Mrs. Jones 10/-, The Rector £1, Mrs. J. M. Williams 10/-, Miss I. Watson 10/-, Miss Peard 5/-, Mrs. R. E. Sharp 5/-, Miss Brown and Miss Peddlesden 10/-, Miss Belfield 5/-, Miss Mitchell 2/6, Mrs. Quelch 2/6, Mrs. Brennan 2/6; Mrs. Bannan £1, Miss Eve £1, Mrs. G. A. Watson 10/-, Miss Jean Hordern 10/-, Mrs. Lindsay 5/-, Miss Lucas 10/-, Girls' Club 10/-, Mrs. Willis 5/-, Y.P.U. 5/-, Sunday School £1, Mrs. Greswell 2/-, Y.C.I. £1. Total donations £11/14/6. Sale of tickets £10/3/6 (including £1/4/6 received at door), sale of flowers 5/-. As Messrs. Hawkins and Abberton kindly loaned the crockery without charge and the serviettes were donated, there were no expenses and we have pleasure in handing the Treasurer £22/3/- from the Parish Festival Tea.

Crockery.—Messrs. Hawkins and Abberton, from whom we have been hiring crockery for the past seven Festival Teas, are relinquishing the catering and hiring section of their business. Learning that the crockery kindly loaned to us this year was for sale, the Wardens have decided to purchase it, thus saving hire on future occasions, as well as obviating the possible difficulty of obtaining crockery elsewhere. The purchase consists of 14 dozen oval dinner plates and 14 dozen bread-and-butter plates. If anyone would care to make a donation (large or small) towards the cost of this crockery, please hand same to the Rector or Churchwardens.

L.H.M.U.—Members of All Saints', Petersham, branch of the L.H.M.U. are advised that the next meeting will be held on Thursday afternoon, 19th September, at 3 o'clock. It is hoped that all members will be present for this "Direct Giving" afternoon for L.H.M.U. and that they will interest others in this important Home Mission work of the Church.

—D. Brown, Secretary.

Women's Guild.—The Gift Evening in aid of the Guild's Stall at the C.M.S. Fete, on 27th July, was very successful, a large number of articles being handed in. The programme provided by Miss Beard and her pupils, also the piano solos by Mrs. Jones, were much enjoyed. Supper given by Mrs. Lindsay and Miss Brown was appreciated.

The B.C.A. Social Evening to take place on Monday, 2nd September, we hope will be well attended, and so help this splendid organisation. The Rev. T. E. Jones will show moving pictures on the work outback.

The meetings for the month are:—12th September, Quarterly Rally; 26th September, Business meeting. Members please note these dates.

—C. Reilly, Hon. Secretary.

Thanks.—The Rector wishes to record his thanks to the Revs. K. N. Shelley, Ian Shevill and J. R. Le Huray, who kindly assisted by taking services at All Saints' during his recent illness. Also to Mr. Ridley, upon whom fell additional work and responsibility.

Confirmation Classes.—Preparation classes have commenced, but if there are others desirous of being prepared for Confirmation, they may join now provided they are willing to "make up" by additional attendances the time already lost. The Rite of Confirmation will be administered in this parish on Sunday morning, 27th October, at 11 o'clock.

Condolence.—We wish to express our sincerest sympathy with the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: Dr. S. J. Alexander (of Cronulla) and the Misses Alexander, of Newington Road; Mrs. Baker and her children, of Searl Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Baker and family, of Denison Road, Lewisham; Mrs. Kidd and family, of England Avenue; Mrs. C. Cole, of Aubrey Street; Mr. and Mrs. Blunt, of Merton Street, Mrs. H. Blunt, of Bondi; and Matron Sowter, of the Home of Peace.

May all who are sad know the comfort and consolation of God's love sustaining them in their bereavements.

Chinese Red Cross.—His Grace The Archbishop writes: "The Bishop of Hong Kong has written on behalf of the Foreign Auxillary of the Chinese Red Cross, to say that their resources are now nearly exhausted since the Scandinavian countries, who were very generous helpers of medical relief in China, have become involved in the War.

"Will you let your people know through your parish paper, that gifts of medical supplies, in kind or in cash, may be brought to me in the Chapter House on Friday, 30th August, for the Chinese Red Cross. This will be a gesture of sympathy from New South Wales."

(The above announcement was made in Church: some will not have heard it. The Rector will gladly forward any gifts to The Archbishop.)

1940 SPECIAL APPEAL (in lieu of Fete).

The Churchwardens acknowledge with thanks the receipt of the following boxes and envelopes. Where the box carried no name, it is obvious the holder desired to remain anonymous; in such case the number only is quoted:—
