THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,

1st April, 1935.

Dear People of All Saints'

Harvest, always a popular Festival, was no less so this year, and we record with gratitude a great day of real thanksgiving on Quinquagesima Sunday. Our Church was beautifully decorated, the Services inspiring, and appropriate music was well rendered by the Choir. Many thanks to EVERYONE who assisted by their gifts and service to make the Festival such a happy one, including the girls and boys of the Sunday School, who presented their gifts at Children's Service. All the gifts were sent to the Home of Peace; a letter of appreciation from the Matron appears elsewhere in this issue. It was a real pleasure to me to have my old friend, Bishop Dixon, as the special preacher at Evensong, as it was also to have another old friend in Bishop Cranswick, on March 17th. We thank them both for their timely and helpful addresses.

Time slips away so quickly that it is hard to realise we are already half way through the Season of Lent, and in a fortnight's time our thoughts will be directed to Holy Week and the commemoration of the Great Sacrifice. I trust you will do your utmost to keep Holy Week (which commences on Palm Sunday, April 14) free from social engagements, so that you may be able to come together for prayer and meditation upon the fact that the Cross is the centre of our religion; it shows what love can do and be, it wins where no force, no display of power could ever do. God was in Christ winning the world to Himself by love alone.

There will, of course, be no meetings of the clubs during Holy Week. Members of the various societies are invited to attend service, especially upon the evening of their regular club night. We hope the young people of the parish will realise that the keeping of Holy Week concerns them just as much as the more senior parishioners.

Then there is the question of Good Friday. How will YOU observe it? Again and again we find it necessary to remind people that Good Friday is a holiday because our Lord died on that day, and for no other reason whatsoever. We call it Good Friday because it was Good for us. What happened on that day shows us what God is like, and the way He works; it brings those who accept that wondrous love and try to live by love, back to God, and literally makes men afresh in the image of God, in the sense that love is both their objective and their manner of life, and they find a power, not their own, but God's, which frees them from selfishness and sin, and enables them to serve their fellow-men. Your Church invites you to spend this Holy Day quietly and thoughtfully in an united act of penitence and thanksgiving.

But the Cross to Christians is not simply an instrument of torture. If the Crucifixion were the last word about Jesus there would be no Gospel. We must keep steadily in our minds the fact that the Resurrection is the completion of Calvary. That which seemed at the time to the disciples to be the end of all their hope was suddenly found to be really God's method of showing men what His love was like and that even death itself has no power over love.

As you all know, the Prayer Book directs that every member of the Church of England shall communicate on Easter Day as a special confession of faith in the Risen and Living Lord. But it is also required that we do not come unprepared. Holy Communion is not a performance to be gone through. It is a communion between your Saviour and yourself, an expression of companionship and friendship. The best preparation for Easter is a sincere observance of Lent, Holy Week and Good Friday, so that we may really enter into Communion with our Risen Lord on Easter Morn, and know something of the Power of the Resurrection, which must not be limited to the hope of a future world only, but which has and ought to have a very vital effect upon our lives here and now. The disciples were changed men not because of what might happen to them in a future life, but because they really believed that God had raised Jesus their Saviour and Friend to be still their living Helper and Companion.

There will be three Celebrations of Holy Communion on Easter Day—seven o'clock, a quarter past eight, and at the eleven o'clock service. I ask that all parishioners will study closely the times and particulars of the various services set out on page 4 of this issue.

Will you please return your Lenten Boxes or Envelopes on Easter Day, together with your Easter Offerings. If you propose being absent from home at Easter, will you please arrange to send your box along by some friend?

We shall be grateful for gifts of white flowers for the Easter Festival.

With every good wish for a holy, happy Easter to you all,

Yours very sincerely,

C. E. ADAMS.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Harvest Festival Gifts.—Matron E. A. Foster, of the Home of Peace, has forwarded the following letter of thanks to the Rector:—"Will you accept, and convey to the members of your congregation, the grateful thanks of the patients, the members of the committee, and staff, for their Harvest Festival gifts of fruit, vegetables, bread, eggs, groceries, and jam—a wonderful gift—for it means not only joy to the patients, but a big save to the treasurer, in the house-keeping bills. We also wish to sincerely thank the members of the Women's Guild, for their part in the Festival, and for the cakes they so kindly sent for the patients' tea on Saturday or Sunday afternoon; this gift is greatly appreciated. To Mr. Bannan and Mr. Sopwith, for so kindly bringing the gifts to the Home, another labour of love. Our united good wishes to you all for a very happy Easter."

The Choir.—The annual meeting was held on Thursday, March 14th. Mr. Moon occupied the chair. The following officers were elected: Hon. secretary and treasurer, Mr. W. F. Morgan; cassock and surplice committee, Miss Howard, Miss Ritchie, Mr. Hammond, and Mr. Marshall; alms-dish bearer, Mr. W. Stephenson; to represent the Choir on "Mile of Pennies" scheme, Miss M. Brown and Mr. Marshall; social committee, Miss C. Hawse, Miss T. Belfield, Mr. W. Sopwith, and Mr. L. Browne. The former secretary, Mr. H. T. Browne, is leaving on a business trip to Japan and America; we all wish him a successful trip, and a safe return. The Choir has raised £17 14s. 4d. during the year 1934-35 towards its quota for the Parish Hall Fund: Sacred recital £3 15s. 5d., Donation (Mrs. Cox) £1 1s., Concert £9 4s. 6d., Choir members' contributions £3 16s. 5d. We wish to thank all parishioners who contributed to and supported the Choir's efforts. In addition the sum of £5 5s. 3d. was raised by the sale of "Buy a Motor" tickets, towards replacing the organ motor which was stolen.—W. F. Morgan, hon. secretary.

Women's Guild.—The Guild held its annual meeting on Thursday, 14th March. There was a very good attendance of members. The secretary read a report of the year's activities, and the treasurer's statement showed that between £80 and £90 had been disbursed during the year for parish and outside interests. Mrs. Hordern's resignation as president, owing to health reasons and removal from the district, was received with great regret on all sides, although we are very pleased to have her as one of our vice-presidents, and to know that she will still have the interest of the Guild (of which she has been the backbone for so many years) at heart. The members were also very sorry to accept Miss Chippendall's resignation as vice-president of the Guild, and her timely advice and helpfulness will be much missed. Miss Chippendall is the much-loved president of the Girls' Club, and is doing a splendid work amongst the senior girls of the parish, and as we are hoping this year for all the societies in the parish to co-ordinate their activities to a much greater extent, we feel that we have not lost Miss Chippendall completely from the Guild. Miss Adams has accepted the joint offices of president and organising secretary, and Miss Brown has consented to fill the vacancy of vice-president. Miss Eve (vice-president), Mrs. Gray (hon. secretary), and Miss Watson (treasurer) were all re-elected unopposed.

The Guild arranged a motor-drive to the C. of E. Homes at Carlingford on Saturday afternoon, 23rd March, which proved very enjoyable. We had a splendid time at both Homes, and were all impressed by the wonderful work that is being done there for the boys and girls of our land. All members were unanimous in also wanting to show their practical sympathy during the ensuing year. We would like to thank all those who lent their cars, and also Mrs. Hordern and Mrs. Lusher for their helpful donations.

Thursday, 28th March, was the Guild's first Rally for the year. Service was held in the Church, when the Rector spoke on "Women, and the Religious Situation." After service an adjournment was made to the Parish Hall, where afternoon tea was partaken of. During this social half-hour the members voted £5 towards the Curate Fund and £4 towards the scholarship they are providing (together with Epping Women's Guild) for a student at King Edward School, Chupra, India (Rev'd. G. F. Cranswick).

The Guild meetings for April are a Bible Study, conducted by the Rector on the 11th, and a Cake and Apron Sale, which will be held on Saturday afternoon, 27th April, as our usual date, Thursday, happens to fall on Anzac Day this year, when there will be no meeting of the Guild. Please, everyone who can, keep that afternoon free and come along and lend a hand. You'll surely want a cake for the week-end, and you know how aprons wear out! There will also be afternoon tea and music.

Junior Girls' Club.—The Club is now well into things for the year. The meetings for April are 8th, games and concert practice; 22nd, no meeting, owing to the public holiday. The Senior C.E.B.S. has challenged the members to a debate on "National Patriotism is a Menace to World Peace," on Wednesday, 10th April. The challenge has been accepted, the Girls' Club taking the opposition side. We are looking forward to an interesting debate. —B. White, hon. secretary.

The Three Hours' Service.—In addition to the services already listed for Good Friday, the Rector commends to you the Three Hours' Service from noon to 3 p.m. If you cannot remain the whole time, you will have opportunities for retiring during the singing of the hymns, which will be placed between the several addresses on the "Seven Words from the Cross." The one-hour devotional service of the past two years has been well attended, and has encouraged the Rector to extend the time to the proper usage for Good Friday.

St. Philip's Luncheon Time Service.—Do you know that a simple mid-week service for business men and women is held regularly each Wednesday at St. Philip's Church, York Street (Church Hill), Sydney? Commencing at 1.20 p.m., with a bright hymn, followed by a brief devotion, this well-attended service concludes at 1.45 p.m., after a stirring message from God's Holy Word. All are welcome. The addresses are given by Bishop Kirkby, the Coadjutor Bishop of Sydney (Rector), who earnestly invites all Church of England people to come.

The Humble Penny.—Don't despise the humble penny—he is going to be very useful this year in steadily adding to our "Mile of Pennies" scheme, which is shortly to be launched, and of which more anon! A mile of pennies equals £220, and everyone can help—that's the beauty of the scheme, it brings us all into co-operation.

Easter Vestry Meeting.—The annual Vestry meeting will be held on Monday, April 29th, at 8 p.m. We hope that parishioners will endeavour to be present at this important meeting. It is proposed to conclude the meeting with a social half-hour, in which you are invited to join.

Condolence.—We desire to express our deepest sympathy with the Misses Janssen and the family of the late E. P. Janssen, of Bishop Street, who passed away on March 15th, just a little over two months after the mother of this devoted family was called Home. A like sympathy we extend to Mrs. Elkin and family of Station Street, in the passing Home of William Elkin, on March 31st.

Quarterly Offertory.—The March Quarterly Offertory amounted to £30 3s. 10d. The churchwardens acknowledge, with thanks, the following specially marked envelopes, and thank also the many others who responded: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holt, £2 2s.; Miss Rockwell, 10s.; Mrs. W. Stephenson, 10s.; Mrs. Hayes, 5s.; Miss Hayes, 5s.; Mrs. A. Hordern, £2; Rector, £2; Miss Ockwell, 5s.; Mr. A. J. Hawke, 10s.; Miss Eve, £1.

Envelope System.—The beginning of a new quarter on April 7th, is a good time for adopting this most excellent system of Offertory. Applications for envelopes may be made to Mr. Cusiter, Mr. Williams, to the Churchwardens, or Rector. We aim at having at least two hundred parishioners as envelope subscribers. Are YOU one of them?

Senior Girls' Club.—Two meetings of the Club were held during March. The meeting on the 4th inst. discussed the formation of a Glee Club, which Mrs. Phillips kindly promised to conduct; the girls were quite enthusiastic about it, and have had two practices since the meeting. The meeting on the 18th inst. was to take the form of a Bible Study, but we regret that owing to the Rector's illness, we were unable to hold it; we hope that Mr. Adams will spare another evening later, as these talks are so helpful to us. Our energetic secretary, Enid Howard, is at Katoomba, and we wish her a happy holiday. We regret that Miss Adams is still indisposed and wish her a speedy recovery.—Ethel P. Chippindall, president.

C.E.B.S. Senior Branch.—The secretary and members desire to thank those who made our Club Dance on February 13th such a success. This dance was the most successful function the club has had, and we hope our patrons will still attend our open evenings in such gratifying numbers. We also desire to thank those who aided the secretary and treasurer in running the moonlight excursion on March 30. Our thanks are particularly due to Miss E. Bicknell and Mr. R. Bicknell, who brought so many excursionists, and Mrs. Clark, who catered on the launch. This excursion did not come up to expectations, despite the help we received, and we express our regrets to any who were disappointed.

The Club desires the presence of all interested in our activities, at the debate with the Junior Girls' Club, on April 10, and the mock trial on April 24. The subject chosen for the debate is "National Patriotism is a Menace to World Peace," which we will affirm.—James Downie, Hon. Secy.

District Visitors.—Hearty congratulations to our good visitors (and thanks to those who by their regular gifts made it possible) upon attaining a record for the financial year ended 31st March, by collecting over £220. It just shows what can be done by the co-operation of the keen visitor and the regular giver. But far beyond the financial side—useful as it undoubtedly is—is the assistance this devoted band of workers renders by keeping in touch with the people, reporting cases of illness or trouble, welcoming new parishioners, and helping in many other ways to link people up with their Parish Church. The work of the District Visitor is not spectacular; it is seldom blazoned forth before men, but it just goes on from month to month quietly and unobtrusively and its real value cannot be computed in terms of £ s. d.

We regret to report that Mrs. Baxter finds it necessary to resign from the Association owing to ill-health. We place on record our appreciation of her valuable work, and hope she may soon be restored to health and strength. We welcome back a former visitor in Mrs. C. Morris, who resumes her district this month, and thank Mrs. Handel for taking a double district during Mrs. Morris's illness, and doing it with marked success.

Y.C.I. Chronicle Report.—The Y.C.I. dance and card evening, held in the parish hall on Saturday, March 2, quite justified the work which the committee put into the organising. About one hundred and forty guests were entertained in the dance hall, and fifty in the card room. The proceeds from the function went to swell the Y.C.I. Parish Hall quota. The first regular meeting in March was devoted to mock elections, when Mr. D. B. Hunter, A. C. Hunter, R. Ashwood, J. T. Hollands put their several policies before the electors. The addresses were given in the atmosphere of a true political campaign, and many and poignant were the comments and questions addressed to the speakers. The poll resulted in the election of Mr. Ashwood.

The guest speaker at the meeting of March 22 was the well known international cricketer, Mr. Alan Kippax, who outlined his impressions and experiences of his English tours with the Australian eleven, and also told some of the amusing incidents in the Canadian and American tour in 1931. Mr. Kippax is a good speaker, and his audience of nearly a hundred were held for over an hour by his graphic manner and his expressive friendliness.

All Saints' Sunday School, Petersham.—A very bright service was held on March 3rd, when the children had their Harvest Festival, and the scholars' offerings—consisting of eggs and potatoes—resulted in a large quantity of each being added to the Church's gift to the Home of Peace. During the service the prizes won by scholars collecting the largest amounts for the Picnic Fund, were presented; the girls prizes were given by Mrs. W. Belfield (2) and Mr. A. Carruthers, and Miss E. M. Belfield donated the prizes for the boys. The winners were: Girls, Melba Ryan and Peggy Messer, equal, 1st, and Minnie Banks, 2nd; boys, Leo Kenna 1st, and John Marsden 2nd.—R. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.
