My dear Nathaniel and Grace.

We received the Photographs yesterday and were delighted with them, we think Maisie and Stephen have both altered since they were over here, but of course five years makes a difference in children. Maisie will soon be grown up. I suppose she is now about twelve years old and Stephen seven.

It seems a long time since we had a letter from you, we were beginning to think you had forgotten us, until we received the Australian Churchman about a week ago, but I expect you are

Busy and have not much time for writing letters.

We are very comfortable in our little house, we did not feel at home here for a while at first. It is very pleasant here and we have a great many callers we seem to be in the middle of our friends, John, and Ann came to spend the afternoon with us on Sunday and brought the baby, she is a nice little girl, and very forward for her age.

We have been staying a few days with Aunt Kate, she and Alice are living in Weston Lane, close to West Holm where she used to live I don't know if we told you that Albert has a son,

Andrew too has another son he has now three boys.

Mary and her family are pretty well now, we go and stay a day or two with them some times. Aunt Mary still has rooms at St Martins, but she goes about a good deal she has been staying at Frankton the last three weeks she often comes to stay with us. You will be interested to hear that she has lately had an offer of marriage.
The Gentleman has been in the habit of going to St Martins Church and calling to see her some times one day he asked her if she would be willing to share his home, and he Mrs Warrington, but she declined his offer.

Miss Maddocks is pretty well now, I think mother told you that her niece Kelly was married to E & Hudson, he lives with them altogether now, they have a little girl eight months old which the old lady seems very fond of. I see in to-day's Advertiser that Mrs Cashel late of Avestry is dead, it does not tell her age, but she must have been very old. We have had the news that Joseph Grayne from America is dead, he was only forty two.

Mother joins me in love to you all hoping you are all well. your Affec. Sister
Jennie
