New South Wales Women's Inter-Church Council

REPORT OF ANNUAL RALLY.

The New South Wales Inter Church Council held their Annual Rally in Wesley Chapel, Castlereagh Street, Sydney on Friday June 30th, 1961, Representatives from the various churches gathered for praise, worship and fellowship. The service commenced with a Hymn of Praise led by Mrs. A.P. Farr, who later presented the Official Bible to the incoming President Mrs. A.G. Manefield, who suitably responded and proceeded to pilot the service through. Prayer was offered by Mrs. J. Hunter of the Baptist Church, and the Scripture Reading by Mrs. Simpson of the Anglican Church. Two solos rendered by Mrs. ~~Manefield~~ brought much blessing. The Annual report was read by the Secretary, Mrs. Major Baker, and praise was offered to God for all His blessings of the past year, and ~~regret~~ appreciation for the work of the past Secretary, Mrs. ~~Hutchison~~ Hutchison who had to relinquish the honoured task owing to ill-health.

The Address by Mrs. M.G. Wyllie, M.A. Dip. Ed. entitled "New Day in the Pacific" was thrilling indeed. Having recently attended a Conference of Churches, Missions in the Pacific, held in Samoa which had been organised by the International Missionary Council at the invitation of the Churches of Samoa at Malua Theological College, West Samoa. Altogether there were 74 delegates, observers, consultants representing 55 Churches and Missions in different stages of development. Consideration was given to differences in the political background of the people represented, Samoa, Tonga, Fiji, West New Guinea etc. and also the differences in the ways of life of those living in the Cook Islands, Solomon Islands, Thursday Island ~~and so on~~. The following subjects were discussed- the Ministry, the Unfinished Evangelistic Task, the Rapid Social Changes, Young People, and the Christian Family. In the tropical atmosphere the delegates studied St. Paul's letter to the Galatians under the leadership of the Rev. Hans-Ruedi Weber, executive secretary of the Laity Dept.

World Council of Churches at Geneva. On the Sunday the delegates went out in pairs to visit and to preach at 37 village churches.

The Coconut Curtain in the Pacific was opened for us all on that day, and God blessed all who attended. Mrs. Manefield, President, thanked the speaker for her enlightening address, and after the final hymn, pronounced the benediction.

Our heart felt thanks went out to the Methodist ladies for their gracious hospitality extended to visitors and members of the executive who were invited to take lunch, and who provided tea for all. To God be the Glory.
