

AUSTRALIAN CHURCH WOMEN

NSW STATE UNIT INC.

MINUTES OF COUNCIL MEETING held on 10th floor 222 Pitt Street, Monday 20 August 2007, at 10.30 a.m.

WELCOME: Mrs Carmel Keys welcomed everyone to the meeting.

Carmel led devotions based on Psalm 16. We believe in God who has provided all the good things we have, but do we do anything about our beliefs? The God of the Bible created the world and loves each one of us. Jesus is the example of God supreme, and we want to know God better. God found in silence has been a long tradition from hermits and monks, and in silence we can know ourselves better, and find a balance between us and God in whose image we are made.

PRESENT: 31 as recorded.

APOLOGIES: 20 as recorded.

OTHER ORGANISATIONS:

PAN PACIFIC & SOUTH EAST ASIAN WOMENS ASSOCIATION: Edith Ridge reported on the Winter Luncheon where the speaker was Monica Duckworth JP of the NSW Women Justices' Association. Among its goals are the improvement of the legal status of women and children, changes in the practice of the law in the interest of the general community, and the promotion and support of acceptable standards in family life. At the July meeting Mrs Pamela Baxter spoke of her experiences as she assisted in a project called Decade of Lessons Learned which from 1997 provided programs for Peace Education in developing countries. Starting in Kenya, then all East Africa, West Africa and finally Asia programs are developed for particular schools giving 36 hours over two weeks, including special teacher seminars. The tenets of Dignity – Respect – Inclusion are upheld, in the belief that “As human beings we are more similar than we are different”.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN: The Annual General Meeting will be held in September. Stephanie Lenger had been a recent speaker on the topic of Youth and Alcohol Abuse. NCW had received a grant which enabled them to purchase a computer.

WORLD DAY OF PRAYER: Helen Hill reminded members that Hostesses Day is set down for November, and the actual date will be confirmed at our November meeting.

GIRLS BRIGADE: Celebrations this year mark the 80th year of Girls Brigade. Activities continue in many local areas. A new field worker is being sought.

BIBLE SOCIETY: Julie Bryant reported that the Bible Society is collating information on attendance of churches and groups at screenings of Amazing Grace in an effort to determine the best avenues for advertising similar types of movies.

In July, Julie visited Cambodia for Bible Society NSW. She showed the meeting a solar powered, digital audio player which holds 500 hours of information and is being launched there as a trial for other countries. The device, called the ZVox holds the full Bible in Khmer, discipleship & evangelism helps, as well as subjects such as HIV/AIDS awareness, health and sanitation lessons etc. The Bible Society NSW is also partnering with local churches to provide literacy training to disadvantaged (generally women and children), with particular focus in rural areas. The classes are held every day for one hour each day over three months. At the completion of the course the adult students receive a New Testament and the children, a Bible Story book, which they are then able to read! The ZVox Project costs $100 per digital device and $1,000 for the full program per village. The Literacy, Train the Trainer program costs about $1,000 to train and pay the trainer for their services plus all the equipment. Bible Society NSW has a DVD available if you would like further information, or Julie would be happy to visit you or your group (Mob 0410 492 020).

AUSTRALIAN CHURCH WOMEN NSW STATE UNIT INC-COUNCIL MEETING 20/8/2007-4

ANY OTHER BUSINESS: 2008 70th Anniversary NSW WICC/ACW NSW – suggestions for celebrating the event included invitations to past presidents/members, representatives from other ecumenical groups, selecting a colour, asking Branches to display their banners, a choir, archival material, conference reports, having a cake. Timing of the celebration could link with the Service of Installation and Dedication, in the time of fellowship which follows, but no decision was taken as to when it should be. Members were asked to give further consideration as to how best honour the occasion.

Helen Richardson had back copies of ACWC Newsletter which were available for people who wished to see them. Subscriptions for 2008 are due at November meeting.
