

POLICE DEPARTMENT,
INSPECTOR GENERAL'S OFFICE,

SYDNEY, 2nd September, 1914.

Reverend Sir,

In reply to your letter of the 27th ultimo, complaining that there is a revival of public solicitation for immoral purposes on the Newtown Road, particularly between Bligh and Cleveland Streets, I beg to inform you that this matter is receiving the special attention of the Police.

Dwt

I have the honor to be,

Reverend Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Ernest Day

Inspector General of Police.

The Reverend Stephen Taylor,

Hon. Secretary,
Sunday Observance and Social Reform Committee,

The Rectory. Erskineville.
