JUNE, 1953

God Save our Gracious Queen

2nd June, 1953

Elizabeth the Second, by the Grace of God of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Northern Ireland, of Australia and her other realms and territories Queen, head of the Commonwealth, Defender of the Faith.

The Queen, O God, her heart to Thee upraiseth;

With her the nation bows before Thy face;

With high thanksgiving thee thy glad Church praiseth,

Our strength Thy Spirit, our trust and hope Thy grace.

—Robert Bridges.

"... Our young Queen does not only symbolise our political union. She enshrines our ideals. She represents in her person the abiding virtues — of hearth, home and of service — which are the foundations of society. She brings, in Burke's phrase, 'the dispositions that are lovely in private life' into the service and conduct of the Commonwealth. When, at her crowning, she receives the kingly sword, she is bidden by the Archbishop of Canterbury in God's name to 'do justice, stop the growth of iniquity, protect the Holy Church of God, help and defend widows and orphans, restore the things that are gone to decay, maintain the things that are restored, punish and reform what is amiss and confirm what is in good order.' By the example she sets from the throne, by the sincerity of her self-dedication to her unique and lonely task of serving her subjects and the Commonwealth all the days of her life, the Queen is the guarantee before God that those who direct the destinies of the nations whose union she symbolises will endeavour to do these things. As on this historic day she rides, radiant and crowned, in her golden coach through the ranks of her cheering peoples, she expresses the dedication of a vast part of the human family to the task of making earth a juster, kindlier and more gentle place."

—Arthur Bryant.

God Save The Queen

*Now that we crown her as our Queen
May love keep all her pathways green,
May sunlight bless her days;
May the fair Spring of her beginning
Ripen to all things worth the winning,
The very surest of our praise
That mortal men attempt.
May this old land revive and be
Again a star set in the sea,
A Kingdom fit for such as she
With glories yet undreamt.*

—John Masefield, Poet Laureate.

THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
30th May, 1953.

Dear People of All Saints',

Foremost in our minds at this time is the Coronation. Though it is a great State ceremony, full of pageantry and colour, it is, first and foremost, a great religious act of deep spiritual significance. As in the case of the consecration of a bishop, the consecration of a king or queen takes place within the framework of the Holy Communion and partakes of its sacramental character. The Queen is crowned in a Christian Church, not in a hall of State; she is crowned by ministers of Jesus Christ, not by ministers of the Empire. Our Queen comes not to her coronation to fulfil a pageant, but to get a clearer vision of her task, and to offer herself to be led and guided by the King of kings and Lord of lords.

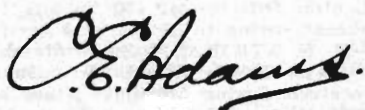

How fortunate are we to have as our sovereign, one in whose heart and mind the ideal of service is so firmly planted. It is well to recall at this time some of the words of her Christmas broadcast, 1952: "My father and my grandfather before him worked all their lives to unite our peoples ever more closely and to maintain the ideals which were so near to their hearts. I shall strive my utmost to carry on their work. At my coronation I shall dedicate myself anew to your service. . . . You will be keeping it as a holiday, but I want to ask you all, whatever your religion may be, to pray for me on that day—to pray that God may give me wisdom and strength to carry out the solemn promises I shall be making and that I may faithfully serve him and you all the days of my life."

We may give to our Queen lip service, a mere formal acknowledgment of the outward signs of her high office; yet that is but mock loyalty if we do not share her consecration to God, and the Christian ideals of goodness, justice, love and service. It is idle to say "God Save the Queen" if God means little or nothing to us. It is idle to talk about the glory of the Empire if our personal lives do not add to the righteousness and brotherhood and justice and moral character upon which alone empires are built and maintained. To every man and woman in the realm this coronation is a personal call; a personal summons to a new and better way of life, a recall to religion as the motive and means of nobler living, a challenge to a life of dutiful service to others. The Queen's crowning must be her people's consecration. When the Queen seeks the help of God and of religion for her great task, shall not her people follow her example and make her task lighter by their consecrated moral and spiritual loyalty?

Through the years of what we pray may be a long, happy and peaceful reign, amid all the changes and challenges and trials that are sure to come; before God the Eternal Father we pray: "God Save the Queen."

Remembering the Queen's Christmas broadcast we might have expected a crowded church on Coronation Sunday. The congregations were, I suppose, good according to "modern" standards, but they could have been much better! The attendance on Whitsunday—that great Festival of the Church—also left much to be desired. If this should concern YOU: please don't read these words without doing something about it.

Yours very sincerely,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Women's Guild.—The Women's Guild reports that over £16 was added to the Jubilee Fund as a result of our last social evening. Members are now very busy, as in conjunction with the Fellowship, they are holding the next Card Party and Dance on Wednesday, June 10, and similar evenings on the second Wednesday of July and August. We hope for a good attendance on June 10. There is good variety—dancing, cards and “beetles”, and, of course, supper. Tickets at 2/6, may be had from Guild and Fellowship members, and at the Rectory. Our special thanks are due to several good workers, Mrs. Day, Mrs. Ditchburn, Miss Howard, Mr. Sayers and Mr. Thomas, who have been responsible for much of the success of our socials. For the next three months our programme is as follows:—Monday, June 8, Sewing Day, at Home of Peace; Wednesday, June 10, Dance and Cards, Jubilee Appeal; Saturday, June 20, American Afternoon—Bring a Gift and Buy a Gift, Guild Quota; Wednesday, July 8, Dance and Cards, Jubilee Appeal; Thursday, July 23, Business Meeting; Wednesday, August 13, Cards and Dance, Jubilee Appeal; Wednesday, August 19, Parish Tea. We give a preliminary notice of a Sale of Work in September.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

The Challenge of South East Asia.—As you know, the Women's Guild Special Missionary Appeal this year is for the C.M.S. for the Diocese of Borneo. In his Ascensiontide Pastoral Letter, our Archbishop writes: “We have become aware, in the post-war years, as never before, of the vast mass of yet unevangelised people in the islands and territories to the north of Australia, and of the competition from the forces of Communism for the controlling influence in their way of life. We have seen how China has closed its doors to all missionary effort; how Japan has regained its independent sovereignty; how the Philippines have shaken off American control, and how Indonesia has thrown aside Dutch rule. We know that there is war, open or concealed, in Korea, in Indo-China, in Malaya, in Burma. The Western Powers have been and are being gradually excluded from the countries where they were once so dominant. We almost fear that the day is at hand when the cry of many will go up, as of old—“The harvest is past, the summer is ended, and yet we are not saved.” Will you pray that it may please God to awaken all members of the Church in Australia to a new and urgent sense of responsibility for these people who are among the other sheep whom He would gather in? Will you give yourself to some new effort to make it possible for the Churches to establish new bridge-heads for the Gospel in these countries and islands of South-East Asia, geographically such close neighbours of ours?”

The Guild Secretary acknowledges with thanks gifts received since last issue: Mrs. Adams, £1; Rector, £5. Previously acknowledged: £4/1/-. Total: £10/1/-. Our objective is £100 by Advent Sunday.—C.E.A.

The Sunday School.—Coronation Sunday was observed by the School on Trinity Sunday, when the Rector conducted a simple and impressive service, during which we joined in an act of Dedication, in which we declared our belief in God, our allegiance to our Queen, and our need to preserve our great heritage: and we dedicated ourselves to serve our Queen and country, and to faithfully do whatever duty we are called to do. A small memento of the occasion was presented to each scholar. At the Annual Business Meeting of the Teachers, our Honorary Treasurer, Mr. E. Quelch, presented a very satisfactory financial statement, which enabled us to make a record allocation to Missions, the following donations were agreed to: B.C.A., £20; C.M.S., £20 (of this amount £10 is for the work in Borneo); H.M.S., £5; Board of Education, £5, and the Jubilee Fund, £5; also the amount of the Lenten Offering of £30 to A.B.M. We regret that Miss Turner has been absent, owing to illness, and her fellow teachers wish her a speedy recovery.—R. F. ATKINSON, Superintendent.

The Jubilee Fund.—The Churchwardens thank you for the donations received during May: The late Mrs. Greer, £3/3/-; Mrs. Chamberlain, £1; Mrs. Brown (Brighton St.), £1; Mr. and Mrs. McLean and family (Wardell Rd.), £3; Box 57, Mrs. Colburn, £5; Miss Sutherland, £1/1/-; per Mr. J. K. Carroll, £27/0/11, proceeds of “Raise the Roof”; Miss Jacqueline Ditchburn, from her Saturday morning ballet classes, £21/14/-; Women's Guild, £16/4/6; per Victor Seagrove, proceeds Social and Dance, £6; Mr. N. Wheatley, 10/-: previously acknowledged, £285/8/9. Total to date. £373/15/7. We appreciate the interest and support of the younger people indicated in the foregoing acknowledgments.

Next Box-Opening, Sunday, June 28.—(Note: An amount of £2/11/5, received on May 3 and May 10 is included in the above total, but, unfortunately, we have no record of the donors' names. Will you please inform the Rector if your gift is not acknowledged).

Home of Peace.—The Treasurer has received the following letter from the Secretary of The Home of Peace: "Herewith receipt for £14/8/5, representing Good Friday offertories for the Home of Peace at All Saints' Church of England, Petersham. This is a splendid response to our appeal and characteristic of All Saints'. Will you please convey to the Rector and parishioners our sincere thanks for the help given. To have the support of our own Church people in maintaining this important work is a great encouragement."

District Visitors.—It is with much regret that we lose the services of Mrs. Jones, who takes with her to her new home in Croydon our thanks and good wishes. She has been one of our most capable and conscientious Visitors for many years, and a willing helper in other ways. We shall miss Kath and Marjorie from the Choir, Fellowship and Sunday School. We have commended this family to the Rector of Croydon; undoubtedly our loss is his gain. We need urgently another Visitor to take over the now vacant district.

Personal.—Our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: The family of Margaret Glore, of Andreas Street; Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McDonald, of John Street; Mrs. Bell and the family of Alfred Bell, of Stanmore Road; Mrs. Varcoe and her family, and Mrs. Cowan, of Palace Street; Mr. J. W. Marsden, and Mr. John Marsden, of North Street; Mrs. Robertson in the loss of her sister in Queensland; Mr. and Mrs. Harrison, in the death of Mr. Harrison's mother; and to the family of Harry Figg, of Church Street, who passed away at the age of 98. The Governor of New South Wales, in a message of sympathy, referred to the passing of this "grand old veteran."

Thanks.—To the young people who organised an enjoyable Variety Show and "Raised the Roof" by over £27; to Jacqueline Ditchburn, who has augmented the Jubilee Fund through her ballet class by £21/14/-, and to Victor Seaglove, who has handed the Wardens £6 from his Social Evening and Dance on May 30.

Classes for Ballet are being conducted by Miss J. Ditchburn in the Parish Hall on Saturday mornings from 11.30 to 12.30 p.m. Fee 2/6 per hour. Proceeds are given to the Jubilee Fund.

The Fellowship.—Since our last report we have had a "Mock Parliament" when the question before the House was, "Should the sea-bed be cemented so that crabs would find it easier to walk?" Some very solid reasoning was advanced on this humorous subject. Our next meeting was entirely different; being a Missionary Evening, conducted by Rev. W. S. Childs, New South Wales Secretary for A.B.M. Mr. Childs gave us an interesting talk and showed two good films on the work of A.B.M. The following meeting was a Crazy Sports Evening, successfully conducted by Ken. The attendance at our Manuscript Journal Evening was not up to standard numerically; but with Alan as editor and Terry as assistant, we had a good evening; articles on the coronation predominating. Thanks to members co-operating with the Guild on May 13, the evening was quite a success. The next combined evening of the same nature is on June 10. On Sunday, June 14 Fellowship Tea followed by an Initiation Service, at 7.15 p.m. ALL Fellowshipippers to be present please! No need to remind you of the Fellowship Dance on June 27!—JOY SANDERSON, Secretary.

P.C.C.—Our Juvenile Ball will be held on Friday, June 19. Preparations for the presentation of our Sub-Debs are well in progress and a very happy and entertaining evening is assured. Admission is 2/-. Proceeds in aid of the Jubilee Fund. Tickets obtainable from members of our Physical Culture Class.—F. DITCHBURN, Secretary.

Appreciation.—Year by year the flowers for Mothers' Day are provided and arranged by the Wedlock family in memory of Elizabeth Wedlock. The artistic arrangement of many hundreds of white chrysanthemums is for the members of this family an act of devotion and loving memory, and we again record our appreciation. We also thank Mrs. Hoseason and Miss Speight for additional flowers for Whitsunday and Trinity in memory of Dick Hoseason. The crown you so much admired on Coronation Sunday was the work of Mrs. Morris. We thank her and Mrs. Bosward, who was responsible for the altar flowers, for beautifying our Church for the pre-Coronation Services.

Young Marrieds' Club.—We would be pleased to welcome new members to our club. Meetings are held on the second Tuesday each month in the Y.C.I. club room in the Church Hall, at 8 p.m. Next meeting, June 9. More tennis players are also needed. We play at 287 Stanmore Road, Petersham, every Tuesday, commencing at 10 a.m.—J. BARRETT, Hon. Secretary.

Women's Auxiliary.—On Thursday, July 30, from 2 to 5 p.m., and on Friday, July 31, from 2 to 10 p.m., in the Auditorium of C.E.N.E.F. Centre (201 Castlereagh Street), there will be a display of work and also of gifts to be sent to the Mission Field by the parish branches of the Women's Auxiliary of the Australian Board of Missions. Interesting speakers may be heard on both days.—L. KING KEMP, Secretary, W.A.

Church of England Homes.—The Annual Meeting of the Church of England Homes will be held on Wednesday, June 24, 1953, at 2.30 p.m., at C.E.N.E.F., 201 Castlereagh Street, Sydney. Bishop Hilliard will preside. Address by Miss E. Ralston. All sympathisers with the welfare of homeless children are cordially invited to attend. (If able to attend kindly advise Church of England Homes Office, 70 King Street, Sydney, by June 18, in order to facilitate catering arrangements).
