THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory, 27th August, 1945.

Dear People of All Saints,—

Our Consecration Festival this year had a very special significance, synchronising, as it did, with His Majesty The King's call to Thanksgiving and prayer. We are glad to record that we had very good congregations and excellent services throughout the day. Once again the Choir's good work contributed largely to the success of the services. We had the pleasure of welcoming back to his old parish Church, an "old boy" of All Saints' in the person of Senior Chaplain Godfrey Kircher, who was the occasional preacher at Evensong, and we thank him for his appropriate and helpful address. It was good to see so many of the relatives of the men and women in the Services who had responded to our invitation to be present at this Service. I am grateful, also, for the assistance of the Revd. George Bennett at the early Celebration.

You will be interested to know that the Special Appeal (in lieu of a fete) has realised to date £173/16/7. This is just ten pounds less than we acknowledged at the corresponding period last year; which can be partly accounted for by the deaths of two or three parishioners and friends who invariably helped us. Still, as there are about 30 boxes still to come in, and may be some have not yet used the Special Envelope issued with last "Chronicle," we should reach the Wardens' objective of £200 before the appeal closes. We should be grateful for the return of outstanding boxes and envelopes as soon as possible. The Churchwardens join me in sincerely thanking ALL parishioners and friends, who, by their generous response, will enable us to meet the liabilities of our Parish Hall debt for the ninth successive year without recourse to a fete.

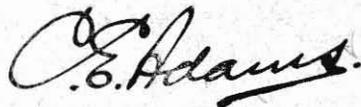

Seldom do we have a parish Festival Tea without rain at some period of the day, and 1945 was no exception; though the light showers in the afternoon fortunately cleared away before evening, and all agreed that the Festival Tea was as good as ever. The fact that not once during these six years of war have we had to forego our annual tea, is a tribute to the enthusiasm, hard work, and ingenuity of the women of the parish, aided by those who so kindly help them by their gifts. Miss E. Sutherland gave a very enjoyable organ-recital after the tea, and after Evensong, a most attractive concert programme was presented in the Parish Hall, when Mrs. Lyttle, Mrs. Thomson and Mr. Wm. Diamond gave much pleasure by their songs, Mr. V. J. Kelly added many touches of delightful humour by his, and the ever-acceptable "Weirdo" mystified and enthralled both old and young. Mrs. W. Diamond, Mrs. V. J. Kelly and Miss Sutherland were the accompanists and contributed to the success of a delightful programme. After Mr. E. C. King had reported the progress of the special appeal and expressed the Wardens' thanks and the Rector had added a few words of appreciation of the efforts of ALL who made the Tea possible, another very happy Festival was brought to a close by the singing of the National Anthem and the pronouncing of the Blessing, with special remembrance of those who are still far absent from us.

And now we face the task of winning the Peace. "The mere conquest of our enemies is not enough. To-day we are faced with the pre-eminent fact that if civilisation is to survive, we must cultivate the science of human relationships, the ability of all peoples of all kinds to live together and work together in the same world at peace. To-day as we go forward to the greatest contribution that any generation of human beings can make in the world—the contribution of lasting peace—I ask you to keep your faith." These words deserve all the emphasis we can give them. They are taken from an address which President Roosevelt wrote but never lived to utter. Six years of war have more or less blunted our sensibilities and so accustomed us to the notion of man's inhumanity to man that when we read of things being done which a few years ago would have appalled us, we now tend to regard them as all pretty much in the day's work and pass on to read of something else. Thousands of people, especially young people, in conquered countries have been trained to, and applauded for, acts of lawlessness and violence; that we in Australia have not become accustomed to these practices, is due solely to the fact that we have not been invaded and occupied. The truth is, that we all of us stand in need of re-education and regeneration. And where better can we look for inspiration and guidance than towards Calvary? Immense as are the problems which lie ahead in almost every field of human endeavour, if they are faced in the spirit and light of our ancient faith—it must be the Christian faith—then for all our war-weariness we may take courage and go on our way rejoicing, not so much in our earthly victories, but rather in the greatest victory of all—the conquest of ourselves.

War tires people more than they know, and fatigue is a very selfish state for most of us, (when we are tired we want to avoid effort, and it is always easier to do and to think the selfish thing) and because the problems of peace don't present themselves to the imagination nearly so sharply as those of war, for the process takes longer to work itself out, we are not so conscious of the service we have to render, or the damage we are doing if we withhold that service. If our Thanksgiving is in any sense real, we shall dedicate ourselves to the preparation of our minds, through study and thought; of our hearts through compassion and mercy; of our souls through Prayer and Sacrament, for the building of a new world in which justice shall be assured to all, and in which peace shall be enduring.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Parish Festival Tea.—As there is some ticket-money outstanding, the completed statement must be held over until next issue. It is quite impossible to enumerate the many donations received for the Festival Tea, but we do hope that those who contributed so readily will accept this expression of our sincere appreciation. To ALL who, by their generous gifts, by their willing co-operation, by their planning and organisation, and by their practical service, maintained the very high standard of our annual tea, we say "Thank you" in very big letters!!

Visiting Preachers.—The Bishop of Armidale will preach at All Saints' on Sunday morning (11 o'clock) September 9th, and the Bishop of Bathurst on Sunday Evening, September 16th, which Sunday will be our next Quarterly offertory. In October we shall have a visit from Archdeacon Walker (principal of the Brotherhood of the Good Shepherd), who will preach here on October 21, at the 11 o'clock service.

District Visitors.—We welcome to our Association Mrs. Fourro, who has taken over Mrs. Dyason's District; Miss Noerr who has a part of Mrs. Grant's District, Mrs. Taylor who is helping Mrs. McLean; and Mrs. Jones who has kindly offered to take portion of Mrs. Reilly's District. We commend these new visitors to our parishioners, and ask that you will give them every assistance in their work. The parish paper is always ready on the first Sunday in each month, and our District Visitors endeavour to distribute it during the week which begins with the first Sunday.

New Guinea Appeal.—The following amounts were handed in towards our Third Appeal during the month.—Mrs. R. W. Holt, £1; Miss Lee, £1; "Thank Offering," £1; Anon., 10/-; Mrs. E. Cranswick, £1/1/-; and the Young People's Afternoon from 3 p.m. to 5 p.m., yielded £13/6/6 and with donations (for which many thanks) from Mrs. Stedman (10/-) and Mrs. Ditchburn (10/6), brought the total for the afternoon to £14/7/-. The total to date stands at £35/9/-. Our young people put on an excellent programme contributed by the Physical Culture Class (instructed by Miss L. Brown), the Misses Maureen Jones, Jacqueline Ditchburn, Norma Lawrence and Marcia Smith with music, and the Misses L. Brown and G. Wheeler gave a very fine display of Floor Drill. Mrs. Meredith kindly acted as accompaniste. Many thanks, too, to those who very kindly donated sweets, cakes, etc., in fact to everyone who helped on the afternoon. Our objective, £100 by Advent Sunday, should need no "boosting." If we are truly thankful to those who helped save our land from invasion and thus ensured in a large measure—Peace—our objective should easily be realised, but—Are we Thankful? Time will show.—E. V. Adams, Organiser.

Women's Guild.—The members of the guild have been busy during the month preparing for the Festival Tea, which was again an outstanding success. Many thanks to all the hostesses who helped make such a Tea possible. It was a great evening. Meetings for September are:—Sept. 13—Business; Sept. 27—Arts and Crafts Evening.—V. Lucas, Hon. Sec.

L.H.M.U.—Members and friends of the Ladies' Home Mission Union, are reminded of the Bi-Annual meeting on Thursday, September 27th, in the Guild Room at 3 p.m. A Deaconess will be the special speaker.

We hope we may have a full attendance.—D. P. Brown, Hon. Sec.

The Sunday School.—We are very pleased to have Miss Brown back again after a few months vacation owing to ill health. Many thanks to Misses Roach and Henderson for their assistance. It was with regret that Miss Speight's resignation was received, but owing to pressure of outside work she found it impossible to carry on in the Kindergarten Department.

The Vacuum Oil Picture evening was a financial success despite the rain, the total proceeds were in the vicinity of £12.—D. E. Muldoon, Hon. Sec.

Sunday School Cricket and Softball Club.—As the Western Suburbs Churches Cricket Union have decided not to conduct a "D" grade competition, we will have to arrange friendly games ourselves. The Churches that played us Softball, the other teams that applied for the "D" grade, other churches not contacted, as well as the Parramatta Rangers will possibly be able to give us games.

The Club's Softball Competition was won by the Pirates, captained Mr. J. M. Boyle. Until the last day, the points were equal, so the winner on that day automatically became premiers. Scores in this final were Pirates 20, Giants 16.

Jim Brotherton won the Club Comp. batting average, and Ray Whittle won the average against other Churches.—A. Jones, Hon. Sec.

C.M.S. Medical Appeal.—So far £8 has been handed in for the C.M.S. Medical Appeal. Any outstanding moneys for this appeal should be sent in immediately.

C.E.F.—On Sunday Evening, July 22, an Initiation Service was held when the Rector admitted to the Fellowship twelve young people who had satisfactorily completed their probation. In July, the Spiritual Group presented interesting matter for discussion on "Christianity and Communism" and the Intellectual Group prepared a good Book Review, selecting "David Copperfield" as its book choice. The Fellowship Tea on the Consecration Festival Sunday might easily have been better attended (why wasn't it?); we are grateful to those who prepared it, and to Snr. Chaplain Kircher, who was our Guest Speaker.

Fellowship members are asked to remember the Half-day Conference to be held at St. Stephen's, Hurlstone Park, on Saturday, September 22nd.—O. Binns, Secretary.

B.F.B.S.—Owing to its proximity to our Festival, we were unable to make an appeal for the Bible Society on the Sunday suggested. We propose therefore, making September 30th the day on which we shall endeavour to help the Society's great work.

The Choir.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to Miss B. Pierce in her recent sad bereavement in the loss of her father.

Many thanks to Mr. R. Atkinson for his kindness in providing timber and labour for erecting shelves in the boys' robes cupboard.—D. Ritchie, Hon. Sec.

C.E.B.S.—Every effort is now being made to re-establish the C.E.B.S. (Senior Branch) on the same footing as it held before the war. The Club, which caters for Boys over 14 years of age, has had an average attendance of 10 over the past six weeks. Messrs. R. Atkinson and R. McLean are in charge and the Club meets every Wednesday night in the Parish Hall at 8 p.m.

The Club's Cricket team has entered in the Western Suburbs Churches' Cricket Association "B" Grade Competition, after an absence of two years. The first match is set down for Sept. 8th at Riverside Park. Should any member of the Parish be interested in playing, they are asked to contact the Secretary.—R. McLean, Leader.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: Mrs. Ward of Old Canterbury Road, in the loss of her father; Mrs. Ranking of the Avenue, (and her daughter) in the passing of her husband; Mrs. Pierce and her family of Five Dock in the loss of her husband and their father; the Misses Alexander of Newington Road in the death (as a result of an aircraft accident at Parkes on August 21), of their nephew, F/L. Leonard Keith Harris; and Mrs. Willmott and family of Roseville, in the death of her husband and their father, T. A. Willmott. Mr. Willmott, (who passed away on August 8th), will be remembered for his kindly interest in this parish with which he was associated many years ago. He was living in the parish of Roseville. The Rector represented All Saints' at the Service held in St. Andrew's, Roseville, on August 9th. We pray that the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit may comfort and strengthen all who are sad.
