THE CHRONICLE SPEAKS.

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints!

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

Dear People of All Saints',—

All Saints' Rectory,
26th February, 1937.

Although we had scarcely "got into our stride," parochially speaking, after the holidays, the Harvest Festival passed off successfully, and we are grateful to EVERYONE who helped to make it so. A fine Harvest Offering, including the gifts of the girls and boys of the Sunday School, was kindly taken to the Home of Peace, by our Churchwarden, Mr. W. P. Bannan, and the Matron has duly acknowledged it, with many thanks to you all.

By the time this letter reaches you we shall be more than half way through the Season of Lent, and our thoughts will once again be turning to Holy Week and the commemoration of the Great Sacrifice.

You will have already heard about the Mission to be conducted by Captain J. S. Cowland, of the Church Army. It is to be called a "Holy Week Crusade," and by it we shall endeavour to present the Christian Religion to the people of this parish and district, as the solution of the problems of modern social life as they see it and experience it. A crusade endeavours to give this message to all, but particularly to those whom the Church does not ordinarily reach. We ask your enthusiastic co-operation in doing your part towards making the crusade a blessing to many in this parish.

First, you can pray daily for the Mission and the Missioner, then you can begin to be an active worker by letting everyone know about it, and give them an invitation to come to the services. A piece of practical work for the crusade has already been done by George Hammond, one of our choir-boys, who has donated a very good sign (all his own work) for the Church Notice Board.

A special programme of the services for each day of the Mission has been issued and your District Visitor will hand you a copy when she brings your "Chronicle." Copies may also be obtained at the Church.

I ask that you will do your utmost to keep Holy Week (which commences on Palm Sunday, March 21) free from social engagements, so that you may be free to meet together for prayer and meditation upon the events of that week. The Cross is the centre of our religion; it shows what love can do and be; it wins where no force, no display of power, could ever do.

There will, of course, be no meetings of the clubs during Holy Week. Members of the various societies are asked to attend the services, especially upon the evening of their regular club night. I am sure the young people of the parish will understand that the proper keeping of Holy Week concerns them just as much as the more senior parishioners.

I plead once again for a right observance of Good Friday. It should not be necessary (but we find that it is) to remind people year by year that the ONLY REASON why Good Friday is a holiday is because our Lord was crucified for us on that day. Good Friday brings us face to face with that great fact of history—the Cross of Jesus Christ—which reveals to us as nothing else could ever reveal it, the depth and intensity of the love of God. "God so loved the world that He GAVE . . ." He gave Himself. He came amongst us to share our life with us, to bear with us the woe and weariness that make our hearts ache, so that with His comradeship we might be comforted and with His stripes we may be healed. Moreover, that is not merely a fact of history, it is a fact of experience. The Cross reveals not what God was, but what God eternally is. He still shares. He still suffers. He still stands with us in every sorrow that can come to us because He still cares.

Your Church makes ample provision for you to spend Good Friday quietly and thoughtfully in a corporate act of penitence and thankfulness. Will you make use of the opportunities provided, and thus prepare yourselves to enter into communion with your risen Lord on Easter morning?

There will be three celebrations on Easter Day, seven o'clock, a quarter past eight, and at the eleven o'clock service. Full details of the services arranged for Holy Week and Easter Day may be seen on page six of this issue.

Will you please return your Lenten Boxes or Envelopes on Easter Day, together with your Easter offerings? If you contemplate being absent from the Parish for Easter, you can assist us by sending your box by some friend.

Gifts of white flowers for the Easter Festival will be most welcome on Saturday morning, March 27th.

With every good wish for a holy, happy Eastertide.

Very sincerely yours,

E. Adams.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Acknowledgments.—Our Treasurer, Mr. E. C. King, has received the following acknowledgments:—

(a) From the Church Missionary Society; (b) From the Church Army in Australia.

(a) We acknowledge receipt of your letter of 4th instant, enclosing cheque for £5/6/10 (Five pounds 6/10) from All Saints' Petersham, as the result of the Christmas Stocking Appeal.

Will you please ask the Rector to take an opportunity of conveying to all concerned our very sincere appreciation of their generous help at this time, and assure them that we greatly value their practical share in this tremendous task of world evangelisation.—(Signed) H. S. Kidner.

(b) Herewith please find enclosed receipt for £10, being for collection, which you so very kindly allowed the Church Army when I had the privilege of preaching at All Saints' Church, Petersham, recently. Will you please convey to your good Rector, Churchwardens and members of the congregation, our sincere gratitude and appreciation for their very practical interest and support. I assure you I enjoyed every minute of my stay and shall look forward to another visit in the not too far distant future.—(Signed) J. S. Cowland.

The Choir.—The annual meeting of the Choir was held on February 11, when the following officers were unanimously elected:—Hon. Secretary and Treasurer, Miss D. Ritchie; Almsdish Bearer, Mr. W. Stephenson; Robes Committee, Misses D. Ritchie and E. Howard, Messrs. W. Hammond and W. Cooke; Social Committee, Miss B. Palmer and Mr. C. Williams, with power to add to their number.

Women's Guild.—The Guild resumed on Thursday, 4th February, with its Annual Gift Evening for the Home of Peace. There was a large attendance, a splendid collection of gifts resulting therefrom. Matron Sowter, the recently-appointed Matron of the Home, was the guest of honour and gave an interesting talk on her work with the B.C.A. Supper was provided by the members.

At the Quarterly Rally on Thursday, 25th inst., the Rector, who was the speaker, took for his subject "A Misunderstood Mother." The address was most interesting and was enjoyed by all present. At the close of the Church service an adjournment was made to the Parish Hall, where afternoon tea was dispensed by the members of the Misses Adams and Brown's groups.

The Motor Drive arranged by the Guild for Saturday afternoon, 27th inst., was a very happy social function. The weather was all that could be desired, and the drive to the Masonic Schools at Baulkham Hills and subsequent inspection of these buildings was most enjoyable. A very happy party partook of afternoon tea, after which the homeward trek started. The Guild desires to thank the Rector, also Messrs. Bannan, Hunter and Wood, and Mesdames Pattison and Clarke, for providing cars for transport for the afternoon.

Will members please note that the ANNUAL MEETING of the Guild will be held on Thursday, 11th March, at 8 p.m., in the Guild Room. Will everyone make a special effort to be present at this important meeting.—M. Gray, Hon. Secretary.

Girls' Club.—The annual meeting of the Club was held on Monday, 15th February. Miss Adams presided. The officers for the previous year were re-elected. Nancy King was elected Roll Secretary. Miss Chippindall, our president, is very much missed by us all, but we are pleased to report that she is slowly improving. Our Correspondence Secretary, Enid Howard, left by the "Moldavia," for Tasmania, where she will spend a well-deserved holiday. We hope she will have a splendid time. Our meetings for March are: Monday, 1st, Arts and Crafts Evening; 15th, Bible Study.—E. Miller, E. Howard, Hon. Secretaries.

Y.P.U.—The Junior Girls' Club has been reformed this year and will now function as the All Saints', Petersham, Branch of the Y.P.U., and will devote all its energies to the furtherance of the cause of Missions. The first meeting was held on Monday, 22nd instant, when Irene Charlton and Lily Jones were elected secretary and treasurer respectively, of the movement.

Easter Vestry Meeting.—Timely notice is hereby given of the Vestry Meeting to be held on Wednesday, April 14th, at 8 p.m.

Condolence.—We desire to express our deepest sympathy with the following parishioners and their relatives in their recent bereavements:—Mrs. Pullen and family, of Cambridge Street; Mrs. McLaren and son, of Faulconbridge, and the Misses Janssen, of Bishop Street; Mr. and Mrs. F. Irwin and Mr. and Mrs. D. Jones; Mr. W. S. Barnes, of Addison Road, and Mr. and Mrs. Miller, of Brighton East, Melbourne.

Sunday School.—The Annual Picnic was successfully held at Watson's Bay, on the 6th ult. We were favoured with fine weather, and the scholars were kept fully occupied with various games, swimming, sports, etc., and of course the all important "eats," so that a very happy day was enjoyed.

We wish to express our thanks to Mr. Ward for again donating the fruit, and Mr. E. H. Maundrell for the supply of milk. We also wish to thank a number of good friends who sent along cash donations, which enabled us to successfully finance the Picnic.

Children's Service was brought forward last month to enable the scholars to join in the Harvest Thanksgiving Service. The scholars brought gifts at this service, and as a result a fine amount of eggs, potatoes, etc., was received for the Home of Peace; the Kindergarten also had its service in the Guild Room, and had a very good display of gifts.

We receive with much regret the resignation of Miss Winnie Kinnings from the Staff. Miss Kinnings joined the School as a scholar, and has been a keen, efficient Teacher for a long period, and we will indeed miss one who is so popular with scholars and teachers. We wish to express our sincere appreciation to Miss Kinnings for the splendid manner in which she has assisted the School, and regret that removal to Eastwood has made the resignation necessary.—R. F. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.

Good Friday.—His Grace the Archbishop writes as follows concerning the proposals for a Procession of Witness on Good Friday:—

I have come to the conclusion that it will be a very great help for the better observance of Good Friday if we can have a diocesan Procession of Witness on that day. I, therefore, propose that on Good Friday afternoon next all parishes in the metropolitan area should be asked to send as large a representation as possible, to assemble in the Domain at 4 o'clock, with the Clergy and Choirs in their robes, and with the banners of any organisations. We will then march in order, at 4.30, to the Cathedral, where a brief service will be held. Amplifiers will be installed in the Chapter House and grounds. It is anticipated that the service will conclude between 5.15 and 5.30. This will not interfere with those Churches which have Three Hour services or the evening services which they usually plan. I trust, therefore, that in view of this early notice you may be able to co-operate in this procession of witness.

Y.C.I.—The 26th Annual Meeting of the Institute was held on Friday, 19th inst. The election of officers and committees resulted as follows:—

President, Rev. C. E. Adams; Vice-President, Messrs. J. Alt, J. M. Boyle, T. H. Bosward, F. Kinnings, E. C. King, R. L. Calver, W. P. Bannan, H. Jones, E. Kinnings, S. L. Rankin, J. Gray, R. Atkinson and H. G. Brodie; Press and Literature Superintendent, Mr. D. B. Hunter; Visiting Representatives, Messrs. W. A. Stead and J. T. Hollands; Librarian, Mr. C. Coskerie; Hon. Treasurer, Mr. M. A. Buckley; Hon. Secretary, Mr. L. C. Calver; Hon. Assist.-Secretary, Mr. W. H. Hall; Social Committee, Messrs. D. B. Hunter, A. C. Hunter, W. Simpson, R. N. Hunter, W. Sopwith, and C. Coskerie; Library, Messrs. J. T. Hollands, W. Simpson, and W. A. Stead; Club Room, Messrs. F. L. Browne, J. T. Hollands, L. Phillips, F. J. Atwood, N. Onus; Parish Hall Fund, Messrs. M. A. Buckley, A. C. and R. N. Hunter, W. Simpson; Dramatic Club, Messrs. W. A. Stead, D. R. Stead, C. Coskerie, and W. D. Simpson; Hon. Auditors, Messrs. F. L. Browne and W. Sopwith.
