From a very young age Peg has been involved in the Anglican Church.

She has been a member of Mothers' Union for 58 years, a foundation member and first secretary at Karrinyup and has served terms as President.

In her parish she has been secretary to the Parish Council and church secretary. She has been involved in Children's ministries and has served as a lay Pastoral Minister.

At the Diocesan level of Mothers' Union, Peg has been in charge of Publications and Literature and has been Convener of Prayer and Spirituality.

Peg joined Australian Church Women in 2003. She has represented ACW on the WA World Day of Prayer Committee for much of the time since then. She was ACW State President from 2005-2007 and has also served as Vice President and Pastoral Care Convener.

She has attended three ACW National Conferences.

On the WA World Day of Prayer Committee Peg served as Treasurer for about 6 years and served a term as President. She has attended World Day of Prayer National Conferences. She instigated World Day of Prayer Services in the Northern Coastal suburbs of Perth.

For a number of years Peg worked in offices as Wage Clerk, Cashier, Ledger Keeper and Accounts Clerk.

Her interests include dressmaking, crochet, tapestry, reading and her family.

Peg is a gracious Christian lady who has been a committed and valuable member of Australian Church Women.
