THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
28th October, 1946.

Dear People of All Saints',

With deep regret we learned our Archbishop had to enter hospital a week ago for a major operation. We are thankful to say he has come safely through the ordeal, and the latest report is that his condition is satisfactory. We shall continue to pray for his speedy and complete restoration to health and strength.

In consequence of the Archbishop's illness our Confirmation Service had to be transferred to October 28th—the Feast of St. Simon and St. Jude—when thirty-seven candidates were presented to Bishop Hilliard for Confirmation. The simplicity and beauty of the Confirmation Service are always impressive, and this year were no less so; when the Bishop based his address to the candidates on 2 Timothy 3:14: "Continue thou in the things which thou hast learned . . ."

Now commences the testing time for these young people and I commend them to you, trusting you will remember them in your daily prayers, and help them in every possible way to be true to the vows they have made. They have been taught that we are not only individuals, but members of a Church, a Body, a Society. Notwithstanding its faults and failures, we should be proud of the ever-growing Church in all the world, with its heroes and leaders, thinkers and practical men and women. They need our co-operation, which we can give by taking our part in the worship and life of our Parish Church, by thinking things out, and preparing for personal service, in Church and State, and, above all, by the spirit of SERVICE in our daily life—in these ways we help our Church to grow. For all this, we need to keep fresh and vital our own contact with the Holy Spirit and with Christ our Leader, underlining those words that the Bishop uses when he lays his hands on each one in Confirmation, that we "may daily increase in Thy Holy Spirit more and more . . ."

December 1st—the first Sunday in Advent—marks the commencement of another Church year, and, for us, concludes our fourth missionary appeal. On that Sunday we hope to be able to say that we have another hundred pounds to offer the Australian Board of Missions—this time for the support of a missionary who is preparing to go to Japan. One or two people have told me quite frankly that they wouldn't give me a penny for the Japanese! That is an understandable reaction after the experiences of the past six years, but I'm sure it is a wrong one. Japanese and Australians are geographically very close to each other; the world is getting smaller and smaller, and we have to live together. There are cruel Australians as well as cruel Japanese and, when we endeavour to wipe our hands of a person or a nation because of his or its villainy, we are merely being vindictive and revengeful, and not caring one bit that that person should cease from being a villain; which doesn't square with what we, as Christians, profess to believe. In Quentin Reynold's book, "Officially Dead," he tells the story of Captain C. D. Smith, who says, "No one living knows more about the barbarous cruelties practised by the Japs than I do . . . but I still say—and this may sound like treason—I find it impossible to hate the Japanese as a people. I know some good ones." The worst thing that we can do, from Christ's point of view, is to pursue the policy of washing our hands of anybody; and He did say, "Go ye into all the world and preach the Gospel." If you have not already done so, will you make your response on December 1st?

As a member of the Executive of the Christian Social Order Movement, I ask your support for the effort which is being made for the Movement's funds on Tuesday, November 19th, in our Parish Hall. I have one hundred tickets to dispose of and, if you will help me, I won't have to send any back!

It was a real pleasure to welcome our old friend, the Revd. A. L. Whitehorn (a former Vice-Principal of Moore College), who was the Celebrant here on Sunday morning, October 13th. Mr. Whitehorn was in London during the worst years of the war, when his church and vicarage were destroyed by bombing and many of his parishioners were killed. He is at present in New Zealand, but I hope he will preach at All Saints' on his return.

Very sincerely yours,

THE RECENTLY CONFIRMED AND HOLY COMMUNION

During the instruction period, the importance of, and the necessity for REGULAR attendance at Holy Communion, was particularly stressed. A certain specified Sunday has been allotted each candidate in the hope that, in observing this particular Sunday, all the Confirmees will become regular communicants.

Of course, this does not mean that you may come ONLY on the Sunday assigned you. You are welcome to come as frequently as you wish; and you should always be present at the Great Festivals of the Church. YOU SHOULD NEVER ALLOW YOUR ATTENDANCE AT HOLY COMMUNION TO BECOME LESS FREQUENT THAN ONCE A MONTH. Don't become a "drifter"; we never drift upstream, but always down!

The following candidates were confirmed by Bishop Hilliard on Monday evening, October 28th—the Feast of St. Simon and St. Jude:—

M. S. Whiting, R. J. Kenny, R. E. Littley, R. Nowland, K. F. Beckett, M. B. Duckworth, J. W. Dwyer, B. G. Heaton, E. B. Olofsson, M. V. Pereira, R. C. Watson, L. R. Potter, J. N. Litten, H. C. Houldsworth, L. K. Dengate, J. S. Bishop, J. D. Reddie, K. M. Jeffery, J. W. Eggleton, W. P. Maher, R. C. Palmer, A. E. Bartels, G. L. James, P. A. Walsh, D. M. Beardow, P. Callan, J. I. Causer, P. J. Gowrley, R. I. Gregory, M. E. McLean, P. E. Smith, J. C. Tebb, N. P. Hope, J. J. Hunt, G. Megson, A. H. Cooper, R. A. Bartels.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

C.S.O.M.—The Christian Social Order Movement merits the support of all Church people. Like all other organisations it cannot carry on unless you are prepared to support it in a practical manner. You will have an opportunity of doing this on Tuesday, November 19, when at 8 p.m. the St. John's Ashfield Players will present in our Parish Hall a full evening of Drama, Ballet and Song. Three one-act plays, two ballets, a melodrama and selected songs will be presented by a company of fifteen players. Admission is 2/-. Tickets may be obtained from your District Visitor, from members of our group of C.S.O.M. or may be had at the Rectory. Ashfield supplies the entertainment, Petersham provides the hall, and it is "up to us" ALL to secure the audience! Go to it!

Special Appeal.—The Churchwardens acknowledge with thanks the following amounts received during October: Miss F. C. Snowdon, £1; Box 36, 10/6; Box 43, Mrs. Scott, 10/-. Total to date, £187/8/5.

St. Andrew's Tide.—A day of continuous prayer for the missionary work of the Church will be observed at All Saints' on the eve of St. Andrew's Day, commencing with the Early Celebration at 7.30 a.m. on Friday, November 29, and concluding with Evening Prayer on that day. If you would like to join in these intercessions, will you please put your name down for the period you will be available, so that we may preserve the continuity of prayer throughout the day.

Women's Guild.—Our "Market Afternoon" on October 5 was not so well attended as usual, but a happy social time was spent by all present. The takings amounted to £20, which the Guild and C.E.N.E.F. shared. During the afternoon Miss Mary Willington made us happy with her delightful playing, for which we thank her very much. On Saturday, October 26, a Social Afternoon was spent at the Rectory. We were very pleased to welcome parishioners other than members, and Mrs. Cameron gave great pleasure with her music. The meetings for November are: November 14, American Tea (bring a gift and buy a gift), at 8 p.m. in the Library. This evening is in aid of the Jam Stall (sponsored by the Guild every year at the A.B.M. Fete, this year to be held in the Sydney Town Hall on Friday, November 22). We hope to have a good attendance and promise you lots of fun. Then from November 10 to November 16 will be Jam Week in this parish, when each family is asked to leave ONE jar of jam at the Rectory to help stock the stall. Wouldn't it be just too wonderful IF every family would do this! Lots of you will, we know, but we would like EVERYONE to help. (Please do not leave any citrus jams, as we will be well supplied in that line.) Thursday, November 28, is our Quarterly Rally, at 3 p.m., in the Chapel, followed by a social time in the Parish Hall.—V. LUCAS, Hon. Secretary.

B.C.A. Boxes.—Quarter ending September, 1946: Mrs. Holt, 10/-; Miss Speight, 11/-; Miss Brown's Class, 10/5; Mr. Jones' Class, 5/4; Mr. Carruthers' Class, 6/8; V.L., 14/-; Mrs. Brennan, 7/6; Miss Adams, 10/7; Mr. H. F. Jones, 2/11; Mr. and Miss Peard, 11/-. Total, £4/9/5. Thank you, everyone.—E. V. ADAMS, Box Secretary.

Personal.—We assure the following parishioners and friends of our deepest sympathy in their recent bereavements. The Misses Allen, of Albert Street, in the loss of their sister. The late Harriet Allen had been a sufferer for some time; in days gone by she was a great worker at St. Barnabas', George Street West, and she was always ready and eager to help her parish church right up to the time physical disability made it impossible. Mrs. Sworn and the members of the Wedlock family in the sudden passing of her sister and their aunt, Marie Mills; Mrs. Weaver (and Ronald), of Brighton Street, in the death of her husband after a long illness; Miss Esma Harris, of Horton Street, who received the sad news that her fiance, Charles Faught, has been killed in a car accident in America; Mrs. Stephenson and family, of Croydon, in the passing of W. F. Stephenson, who was at the time of his resignation a few years ago the senior member of our Choir, and who did so much for Church boys in the Soccer Football Association; the members of the Charters family, of Morgan Street, in the loss of their mother; Mrs. N. B. Ellis, of St. Peters, and Mrs. B. Ellis, of Newcastle, in the death of husband and son, Jack Ellis, a valued member of our Y.C.I., whom we shall miss greatly from our fellowship; Mrs. Edwards and family, of Searl Street, in the death of her husband and their father; Mr. McAdam, of Crystal Street, in the loss of his son; Mr. and Mrs. Cooper, of Brighton Street, and Mr. and Mrs. Leroy, of Richmond, Melbourne, in the sad loss of Mrs. Leroy's baby daughter as a result of an accident. May God give to all who mourn the loss of loved ones that power which can come only from Him, bringing them not only consolation for the present, but strength and courage for the future.

Fourth Missionary Appeal.—Amount previously acknowledged, £45/19/-. Donations for October: Miss D. P. Brown, £1; Mr. A. B. Kerrigan, £1; Mrs. Lindsay, 10/-; Mrs. Gannon, 10/6; Misses Janssen, £1/10/-; Mr. and Mrs. E. C. King; and Miss N. King, £1. Total, £51/9/6. This amount, together with the £20 promised by Mrs. Whiting and her girls (this amount looks like being over-subscribed), will bring the total to £71/9/6, which leaves a little over £28 to be raised by Advent Sunday. As each year we have always gone over the £100 mark, I don't see All Saints' folk letting this appeal down, do you? So send in your donation during November and what a grand tale we will have to tell on Sunday, December 1, at the social time after Evensong. We were all very disappointed at the response to the Hatters' Party on November 19. Mrs. Forrest's little daughter won the prize in the girls' section, with a very cute hat trimmed with empty pea pods and carrots. Why pay £4/4/- for your hats! There were not enough entries amongst the boys to warrant a prize. Thank you, girls, for a happy afternoon and delicious afternoon tea.—E. V. ADAMS, Organiser.

The Y.M.—The day of our Ball is not far distant, there being only five weeks to December 4. The Debs. are practising hard for their presentation to Lady Stevens. This is our first effort to assist the Parish Hall Fund and, though it is a big undertaking, we know that, with the help of our Church people, it will be successful. Tickets are 5/6 and may be had from any member or from the Rectory. Arrange a party and come along, and we will show "it can be done" at All Saints'.—EDIE COSKERIE, President; LORNA JONES, Hon. Secretary.

C.E.F.—We wish to thank Miss Young, Warden of the House of the Epiphany, for making it possible for some of our members to meet members of the Brotherhood of the Good Shepherd, at an enjoyable evening at Stanmore recently. Also our thanks go to the Revd. J. R. Le Huray, Rector of St. James', Croydon, who was the speaker at our Fellowship Tea; to Miss Adams who so generously donated the meat, and to all who helped the forty-five present to spend a happy time in fellowship. All recently confirmed are cordially invited to join the Fellowship, which meets on the second and fourth Tuesdays, at 7.45 p.m.—O. H. BINNS, Secretary.

The Choir.—After Evensong on October 6, members of the Choir gave Mr. Kerrigan a farewell supper at the Rectory. As a mark of appreciation members presented him with two books on music and the Choir boys showed their thanks with the gift of a cigarette lighter. It was with regret that we learned of the death of Mr. Stephenson who, prior to his resignation some years ago, had been a member of the Choir for 33 years. We extend our sincere sympathy to his wife and family.—D. RITCHIE, Hon. Secretary.

The Sunday School.—The Children's Festival is to be held on Sunday morning, November 10, at 11 a.m. A good attendance of scholars, parents and friends is desired. Our Annual Picnic is to be held on Saturday, November 23, at Watson's Bay. Transport and "eats" will be provided for the scholars and the parents are invited to join us at Watson's Bay for that day. Each scholar is asked to bring along 1 oz. of butter and a cup. The C.E.B.S. and Senior Boys' Club have kindly offered to donate to us the proceeds of a concert which is to be held on Friday, November 15, at 8 p.m., in the Parish Hall. Please let us help them make this a huge success. The tickets are 1/6 and can be obtained from scholars, teachers or C.E.B.S. members.—D. E. MULDOON, Hon. Secretary.

C.E.B.S. and Senior Boys' Club.—The main news of importance, and what all members are looking forward to, is the Concert. This attraction will come off on November 15, in the Parish Hall. Total profit is to go towards the Sunday School Fund. Over 30 members will be taking part, and we have engaged three "guest" artists. Don't forget, November 15. Tickets 1/6, obtainable from any member of the Club, or at the Rectory. At cricket, the lower grade teams are meeting with a fair share of success, but the A graders have yet to strike form. By the time this appears in the "Chronicle," the Challenge Match between the C1 and C2 will be over, and the winner is to play the A grade later in the season. From this match a team will be selected to play a team from Newcastle, either here or at Newcastle. As soon as the Concert is over, the Annual Boxing and Wrestling Tournament will commence, entries close with the Hon. Secretary, on November 20. The date of our Christmas Party has been brought forward to December 2, so as not to clash with the Y.M. Ball on December 4. Club members are also reminded to let the Secretary know if they wish to take part in the Big Christmas Camp, from December 26 to January 4. Cricket Club Church Service, November 17, 7.15 p.m. Corporate Communion, Sunday, December 1, 8 a.m.—RON McLEAN, Leader.

Cricket Club.—Four rounds of the competition have now been played, and all our players have shown definite improvement since the first match. The totals for the side have been increasing and in our last match the total of the runs scored was 89. Best performances so far have been put up by bowlers, Brian Lane and Jim Brotherton. Many thanks to Mr. A. Carruthers for his generous donation, and Mr. D. Anthony for a gift of equipment. The next match will be against Earlwood Baptist on November 9.—A. JONES, Secretary.
