Mrs. Ralph reported on Mrs. Martin's behalf that the illustrated talk by Deaconess Andrews on her overseas trips will be held in the Shop Front Church, Pitt Street, at 10.30 a.m. on Monday, 30th July. Several members offered to help with the catering, etc. and $6.40 was contributed by members towards the cost of sandwiches, teamilk and sugar.
2. Opera House Festivities Committee. Mrs. Pfeiffer reported on developments. It was agreed, in association with the City Women's Inter-Church Fellowship and the World Day of Prayer Committee, that visitors to Sydney be invited to World Community Day to be held in St. James', King Street on Friday, 19th October probably at 12 noon. It was agreed that a sub-committee, consisting of Mrs. Pfeiffer (convener) and Mesdames Ritchie, Curtin, Carpenter, Stanhope and Bragg meet with the representatives of the City Churches on Monday, 25th June to make the necessary arrangements. (Brig. R. Smith will be Mrs. Carpenter's alternate on this occasion, and Mrs. Montgomerie will attend for Mrs. Bragg).

REPORTS:

1. Finance. The statement of receipts and payments prepared by Miss Lee and showing credit balances of $688.71 General A/c, $275.84 F.L.C., $32.36 Fellowship Day and $34.80 W.C. Day, was read and received. The following account was passed for payment: A.C.W. $86.40 for Pens and $45 for Notelets.

3. Annual Service. A large proportion of the Council attended the very inspiring service and very successful social occasion following. It was agreed that a greeting be sent to Mrs. Cowled who had arranged the hospitality but was in hospital for the Service.

GENERAL BUSINESS

1. Publicity of Church Women's Activities in Newspapers, etc. Mrs. Bragg raised this topic, expressing concern that it was so difficult to get any publicity about church women's groups and church news generally. After much discussion, it was agreed that we should write to the National Council of Women expressing our concern and seeking their support and suggestions, so that a more positive picture of the church can be presented to the general community. It was also suggested that individual members should write to the Sydney Morning Herald, seeking to have the Churches and Churchmen article published on Saturdays again, instead of Fridays. The State Council of the A.C.C. and the Council of Churches in N.S.W. and the member churches might be asked to support a campaign to have more church news in the daily press.
2. Mrs. Marsden-Smedley raised some questions about the Council's association with the Good Neighbour Council and what we had done to assist migrants, and we hope to discuss the matter at the next meeting.

FELLOWSHIP OF THE LEAST COIN
