PRESIDENT'S REPORT :

CAPOW PLANNING MEETING, 31/7/94, at YMCA House, Sydney - This meeting proved to be an interesting learning experience, and a very full agenda awaited the 22 women present, representing 18 women's organisations. I felt some concern that only 18 of some 40 groups were represented, and that there was no one from National Council of Women. Although not all agenda items were covered, a good deal was accomplished over the day.

Time was spent reviewing the past 12 months, office expansion from 15 - 40 hours paid staff, together with a number of voluntary helpers, but a lack of facilities, i.e. photocopier, data bank etc. Concern at emphasis on Beijing seen to be taking preference over some important national issues .. lack of communication between the "heads" and "grass roots" of organisations. Unanimous agreement that Submissions FAX service was valuable. Clarification of issues such as Role and Process was achieved, and several decisions made in regard to future activities of CAPOW.

MISSION STATEMENT

CAPOW is a network of national women's organisations. Its purpose is to give Australian women access to information, skills, and provide support which will enable them to work together to achieve an equitable sustainable and peaceful society. The network aims to empower women by giving them the means to share knowledge and resources in working to build a society which is equally informed by women.

ROLE

1. Linking women's organisations on issues of common interest by strong communication network.
2. Enable non-government organisations to lobby in decision making process, and to collaborate with other groups in this area.
3. Share knowledge and resources through data bank, FAX etc.

PROCESS

1. Steering committee to work on issues with direction from Teleconference discussion and suggestions.
2. Office group to handle administration and structure.
3. Regional Forums across Australia on specific issues. These to be initiated by CAPOW (possibly 3 a year) with interest groups to organise, with help from CAPOW to prepare papers. The first three topics to be covered in this way are -
  - ** Women in decision making.
  - ** Women's economic independence.
  - ** Development of safeguards for national accountability controls and Federal trade off with State governments.

OTHER DECISIONS

It was agreed that CAPOW write to Government Ministers, Company Directors/Boards, commenting on ratio of women on commissions, boards, committees in line with government policy of equal representation, also press release.

A submission will be made for a sponsor company to provide data bank. Application will be made for a grant to set up training programme for women in the area of facilitators and lobbyists.

RECOMMENDATION -

After considerable thought and discussion, I would recommend that AUSTRALIAN CHURCH WOMEN become an Informed Organisation, and subscribe to the "Bulletin" and Informations Service for a 12 month period. Also that we continue to pass on relevant information to the State Units, suggesting that if they want more direct information, they too could become Associate members and receive "Bulletin" and other services as required, moved E. Reidy, 2nded J. Cooper, carried.

I would like to acknowledge my thanks and appreciation to Lucelle King and Joan Tong, President and Secretary of the NSW Unit, for their willing assistance with local travel and hospitality whilst I was in Sydney for the CAPOW meeting.

I also had an extra bonus in being able to share with them in attending the Ecumenical Service of Celebration of the Inauguration of the National Council of churches in Australia, held in St. Patrick's Cathedral, Parramatta on the Sunday evening. This had been arranged by the N S W Ecumenical Council, and a number of ACW members were in attendance.

I would also like to bring to notice a meeting being held on 3/9/94 from 2-5 p.m. at 340 Gore Street, Fitzroy, in the Australian Conservation Foundation room - "Imagine the Future". The series of reconciliation will be discussed, with excerpts from the series "Beyond the Sun" included. Contact is Diane Alley, UNNA Status of Women Committee, phone 827 2362. During August, discussion meetings on Beijing agendas are being held in Melbourne, Sydney, Adelaide, Brisbane, Perth and Canberra, also some regional centres.
