Dear Friends

Greeting to members of your Unit from the National Executive.

I would like to bring to your notice two matter from the February Minutes. We have received the name and address of the new SECRETARY for the International Committee Fellowship of the Least Coin.

Ester Byu
C/- Women's Department
14 Pramuan Road
Bangkok 10500
Thailand

At the request of the South Australian Unit, that the National Executive reconsider its decision to with hold copy of the submission re Rights of the Child, National Executive has decided to sent a copy of the submission to each State/Territory Unit. The National Executive ask that the submission is not photocopied or discussed outside of their meeting.

In the minutes you will notice that Ailsa Skippen is back in hospital. Ailsa is to undergo further surgery on Thursday, as they try to clear the infection in her lungs. The National Executive ask that you remember Ailsa in your prayers.

Peace and grace

Margaret

Dear Friends

Greeting form Australian Church Women National Executive.

There are a number of matters the National Executive wish to bring to your attention - some from the minutes - some received by the National Executive since our last meeting.

✓ Fellowship of the Least Coin: Application for Fellowship of the Least Coin Grants should be with the FLC National Convenor before the next National Executive meeting, 12th June, so that they can be processed and sent to the International Committee by the end of June.

✓ Winifred Kiek Scholar: Our 1998 Winifred Kiek Scholar, Milise Taipaliti met with members of the Victorian Unit, at their April meeting. At the meeting Milise gave a testimony about herself and the study she is undertaking this year. A copy of the testimony is enclosed. National Executive suggest that the testimony could be read during the Fellowship Day Service, this would provide more information about the Winifred Kiek Scholar and the study she is undertaking this year.

✓ Asian Church Women's Conference Enclosed is information from Lynette Green, ACWC National Representative re ACWC Assembly 14-20th November 1998. Please pass this information on to your Unit. comes enee

✓ Network Exchange of Women's Services: Australian Church Women National Executive was represented at the Launch of N.E.W.S. in Sydney earlier this year and have since become a member. As the N.E.W.S Newsletter is produced each fortnight it is not possible to relate information to State/Territory Units. National Executive suggest, if you are interested in receiving this information that your State/Territory Unit become a member. Enclosed is a copy of the form for membership.

✓ The Association of Superannuation of Australia Limited. Heather Reid represented National Executive at The Association of Superannuation of Australia Limited Seminar held in Sydney last month. Enclosed is Heather's Report from the Seminar.

With regards

Margaret Florence
Secretary
National Executive.

Dear Friends

Greeting from members of Australian Church Women National Executive.

Although we have a bright sunny day in Queensland today, there is a strong south westerly wind blowing that is keeping the temperature down, the first sign of winter.

1998 ACWC SERVICE

Enclosed with the minutes is a copy of the 1998 ACWC Service to be used for ACWC Day which is held in November. If you cannot hold a service National Executive suggest that you might use part of the Service at your State/Territory Unit meeting.

ACW NEWS

ACW News Convenor, Miriam Pratt has asked me to remind all State/Territory Units to send news from your Units for inclusion in the ACW News. I am sure that there are many interest events happening in your State/Territory Unit that would be of interest to the other Units.

With regards

Margaret

Dear Friends

Greetings to you and your committee from the members of the National Executive. This time last year Queensland was preparing for the National Conference and the National Executive being based in Queensland. I am sure the next twelve months will go just as quickly as we prepare for the 1999 National Conference and to pass the National Executive to South Australia.

ACWC ASSEMBLY

Enclosed with the minutes are two Newsletters prepared by Lynette Green ACWC Delegate, for the delegates and observers who will be attending the 11th ACWC Assembly, ChiangMai Thailand, from the 14-19th November. We congratulate the NSW Unit who has five members attending as observers, one member a 36 yrs old indigenous woman. The letter re producing a video for the Assembly has been sent by Lynette so I will not include it with this posting.

The National Executive would like to thank Lynette for all the work that she has done preparing for the Assembly. Lynette has done a wonderful job, at times under difficult personal circumstances.

ACW NEWS

The last ACW News will be produced Oct/Nov. please keep sending information from your Unit/Territory for the ACW News.

Dear Friends

New Year Greetings to you and members of your State/Territory Unit. May it be a very happy and fruitful year as we work together for Australian Church Women.

National Executive will not be having a business meeting in January, instead will have a full day working on preparation for the National Conference to be held at Grace College, Brisbane, from Monday 27th September - Friday 1st October 1999. Please make this known within you Unit. There will be no National Minutes for January.

ASIAN CHURCH WOMEN'S CONFERENCE

Included in this mailing is the Report to National Executive, 11th Assembly Asian Church Women's Conference, Chiang Mai, Thailand, prepared by Lynette Green, outgoing delegate to Asian Church Women's Conference. Barbara Lacy, our new delegate has been elected to the Executive Committee of ACWC and Lynette Green has been re-elected to the General Committee. We congratulate both Barbara and Lynette.

FELLOWSHIP OF THE LEAST COIN

We have received from Esther Byu, Executive Secretary, ICFLC, information about the death of Mrs Shanti Solomon, founder of the Fellowship of the Least Coin. We have copied the article "In Remembrance of Her" for your Units information.

The Secretary of South Australian Unit has notified National Executive of the death of Mrs Joy Smith a Past National President of Australian Church Women 1974 -1975.
