- 1 FLC Jan had nothing to report.
- 2 WKS Constance reported on various items of written correspondence and correspondence relating to WK pamphlets. She had also written to all states with general information. A letter had been sent to Nighat Gulzer acknowledging Christmas and Easter greeting and a letter and a copy of the book "Winifred" sent to Imelda Aquino.
- 3 Special Days Fran was not in attendance, so no report available.
- 4 Social Justice Judith-Ann read an extract from today's (11/4/08) "The Canberra Times" on Canberra clubs 'doing it tough'. She had already responded to the Aging and Social Inclusion survey
- 5 Newsletter Eileen had a draft of the Newsletter, which was almost ready for printing. This edition will include a profile of Fran Moss, as well as other articles. Profiles of other members of the National Executive will be included from time to time, as space allows.. Closing date for items for the next edition will be mid-June 2008.
- 6 ACWC Donna not in attendance, so no report available.
- 7 Website Although Brenda not in attendance it has been confirmed that Donna had prepared WKS for Web page in 2006 and she is the only person who can carry out alterations. Lists of updates have been emailed to Donna and pdf file is being updated. It was most unfortunate that Margaret Watson's name still appears on the website, as Margaret passed away some 18 months ago. It was urgent that this be attended to a.s.a.p.
- 8 AWC Survey on Aging and Social Inclusion had been widely circulated and closing date for responses is 21 April 2008.

9. General Business

- 1) Jacqueline had attended the WomenSpeak conference, together with the Vice-President of CWLA. Approximately sixty in attendance and many items were discussed, including the issue of paid maternity leave, housing, indigenous affairs, women's health, to name but a few.
- 2) Jean had attended Harmony Day on 30 March at Regatta Point, which was very well attended and included a very nice morning tea. The time of the event was still considered very inconvenient and it was suggested that perhaps an afternoon event on a Sunday might be a better time.
- 3) Incorporation continues as a work in progress.
- 4) Newsletter and mailing lists needs to be updated.

10. Next Meeting will be held at 10am on 9 May 2008, at the same venue.

Meeting closed at 11.45 am

Members then discussed some ACT / Housekeeping matters and enjoyed lunch together.

Signed: Jean Thomson
