THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
26th August, 1953.

Dear People of All Saints',

August 16 marked a memorable milestone in the history of our Parish Church, for on that day we commemorated the Jubilee of its Consecration. Unfortunately the evening congregation was reduced by the rainy and cold conditions which developed after morning service; but we have much for which we may be thankful, as we look back upon our Jubilee Festival Services.

We are very grateful to Her Majesty The Queen's Representative—His Excellency the Governor—for honouring our Church and Parish with his presence on this memorable occasion, and we appreciate his courtesy in sparing the time in his exceptionally busy public life to share in our worship.

Having been welcomed by the Rector, Mrs. Adams, and the Churchwardens, His Excellency (attended by Captain Arnott) inspected the Guard of Honour mounted by the Fort Street High School Cadet Unit (under Captain D. O'Sullivan), and greeted the Balmain Police Boys' Band (in charge of Drum-Major Williams). We thank both units for their co-operation. On entering the Church, the Governor visited the Stone of Remembrance, which, together with the Book of Remembrance, he unveiled on November 20th, 1949.

We record our thanks to Mr. Eagar and the choir members, whose good work throughout the day added greatly to the inspiration of the Services. The occasional preacher at Evensong was the Very Reverend E. A. Pitt, Dean of Sydney, who paid us his first visit, and whom we thank for his message. We are indebted to Miss E. Olofsson and Mrs. Adams for the artistic arrangement of the flowers and to those who helped by bringing additional floral gifts for the Festival.

The Wardens join me in thanking ALL parishioners and friends who responded to the special appeal which stands at £121. This is a good deal less than last year; no doubt because of the Special Jubilee Fund. We should like to make it clear that the special offerings on our Jubilee Sunday are for the Parish Hall Debt, the ordinary annual appeal (in lieu of a fete) to pay our interest bill, and, if possible, to reduce that debt; whilst the Jubilee Fund is a special effort to mark the Jubilee Year, and to help with Church renovation, particularly the major need for re-roofing. The Churchwardens would be glad to receive any outstanding envelopes issued last month.

Many appreciative comments have been made concerning the Jubilee Tea; some say it was "the best we have ever had," which, in a long succession of similar successful functions, is high praise indeed! The Hall certainly presented an attractive picture, with its thirteen tables laden with good things, and decorated with many shades of Iceland poppies (the gift of Mr. and Mrs. Bullman), which Mrs. Morris again kindly arranged in her usual artistic way. We were happy to have as our guest, the Rector of St. James' Croydon, and Rural Dean of Petersham—the Rev. J. R. Le Huray—who brought greetings from this Deanery, and whose only kindly criticism was that we do not charge sufficient for the excellent meal provided. An enjoyable musical recital, in which Mr. Eagar was assisted by Mrs. Frank Gunner, preceded Evensong, after which an attractive concert programme was presented by Miss Rosalind Chater, Mrs. B. Sayers, Mrs. F. Gunner, Miss Margaret Moore, Mr. William Gates, Mr. Walter Jagger, with Mr. Eagar as accompanist, and last, but not least, the mystifying "Weirdo," who was in excellent form!

The Evening concluded when Mr. L. C. Calver expressed the Wardens' thanks and the Rector added his appreciation to ALL who, by their willing co-operation and generous gifts, helped to make the Jubilee Festival the success it undoubtedly was.

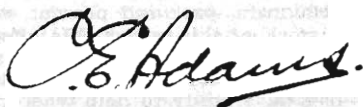

The permanent value of our Jubilee will be found not only in thanksgiving for the blessings of the past—great as they have been—but in realising that membership of Christ's Church is not an isolated affair, not an individual thing alone. It is to be lived out, to grow, to blossom and to bear fruit in the Church's fellowship; for first and foremost, the Church is a fellowship, in which every individual member has a contribution to make. Let us go forward to the tasks ahead, remembering the three vital, outstanding facts about our Church membership:

- (1) It is based on strong, personal convictions.
- (2) It is expressed in fellowship.
- (3) It is made manifest in Service.

We draw your attention to the Sunday School report in which mention is made of the Youth Service being arranged for September 27th and we hope the parents will be sufficiently interested to come with their children.

Yours very sincerely,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Confirmation, 1953.—In addition to the usual preparation classes for boys and girls on Tuesday and Thursday evenings, respectively, an adult class has been formed, which meets on Wednesday evenings at the Rectory at 7.45 p.m. Any adult desiring to be prepared for Confirmation should inform the Rector and make arrangements to join the class at once.

Diocese of Borneo.—We have now but three months in which to raise the £100 for C.M.S. work in the Diocese of Borneo. These Special Missionary Appeals are sponsored by the Women's Guild in memory of its late president, who commenced them five years before her death. We hope we may have the co-operation of our parishioners and friends, as in previous years. We acknowledge, with thanks, 10/- from Miss Payne and £1 from Mrs. Slee, which brings the total to £13/12/-. Please send your gift, marked "Borneo," to the Women's Guild Secretary or hand it to the Rector or Wardens. The Sunday School is organising a Missionary Evening for Wednesday, October 14th, for this Fund, when a missionary play will be presented by the little folk from the Kindergarten, and the C.M.S. will show a "Jungle Doctor" film. Please note the date.

Women's Guild.—During August the final Dance and Card Evening for the Jubilee Fund was held but was poorly attended, especially by dancers, and the sum of only £5/11/- was added by this effort to the Fund. Members then turned their attention to the Parish Tea, and, in conjunction with other parishioners, acted as hostesses at the thirteen tables. The Tea was a great success and was much enjoyed by those attending.

For September the Guild Meetings are: Thursday, 10th September, Important Business Meeting; Monday, 14th September, Home of Peace Sewing Day; Thursday, 24th September, Sale of Work. We repeat the notice about the Sale, as we want to stock a Work Stall, Cake and Groceries Stall, Refreshments, and Surprise Packets, these last to be valued at 1/- and 2/-. The Guild appeals to every reader for help in this undertaking, the proceeds of which will go to our Quota for the Parish Hall Fund, and the balance to the Jubilee Fund. Gifts for the stalls may be left at the Rectory or handed to any Guild member. As we are arranging an interesting programme, which will include a display by the Physical Culture Club, a charge of a silver coin will be made for admission to the Sale. We ask every parishioner to help by gifts, and by attendance on 24th September, at 7.45 p.m.

The Guild would welcome new members, as there is work for many more than we can muster.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Jubilee Tea.—Not only was the Jubilee Tea a time of happy fellowship but it was also a financial success whereby we were able to hand the Churchwardens £33/13/6.

The following donations were received: Mrs. Wolrige, £1; Miss E. Bayley, £1; Anonymous, 10/-; Mr. S. A. Meatyard, £1; Miss Juleff, £1; Miss Eve, £1; Miss Speight, 10/-; Miss Sutherland, 5/-; unexpended balance of donations, per Mrs. McLean, £1/8/6; unexpended balance, per Mrs. Humphries, 10/-; Total, £8/3/6. Sale of Tickets, £23/8/-; Door, £5/7/6; Sale of Flowers, 15/-; per Hostesses for Cakes, £2/2/-; Sale of Cake, 1/3. Grand Total, £39/17/3. less Expenditure for Cakes, £5/9/3 and hire of crockery, 14/6; Credit Balance, £33/13/6. It is quite impossible to detail the many donations received in kind, but we sincerely thank EVERYONE, who by gifts and through enthusiastic co-operation, helped to make the Jubilee Tea such an outstanding success.

Personal.—During the past month we have been bereaved of parishioners, past and present, who have been closely linked with the life and work of this parish. We offer our sincerest sympathy to Miss Norman, to her sisters and all their relatives, in the passing of Agnes Ackland Norman, a most conscientious District Visitor for many years and one who was always ready to help wherever she could in the Church she loved, and where her father and mother had served and worshipped before her. Thought for others was the key-note of her life; how well she knew the joy of service! The Rev. R. A. O'Brien, Rector of Canterbury, was associated with the Rector at the service.

It was with deep regret we learned of the very sudden death of Alfred John Harris of Sans Souci, a former Churchwarden and Chorister of All Saints' and one whose fellowship we enjoyed and whose readiness to help in the work of this parish is gratefully remembered. To Mrs. Harris, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Gunner, to Norman and to their relatives, we send our deepest sympathy. Unfortunately, through illness, the Rector was unable to attend the service at St. Andrew's Sans Souci; but Mrs. Adams represented him.

Edward Wheeler of Hunter Street also passed away suddenly. We shall miss him from our morning congregation and we include his family in this expression of sympathy.

Sarah Brady of Hazelbrook, a former District Visitor, keen Guild and L.H.M.U. member here, and a devoted worker in the local Benevolent Society in the years of depression, recently passed away at Katoomba. The Rector was assisted at the service by the Rev. A. L. Ironside of Rose Bay, formerly rector of Lawson-Hazelbrook. We extend our sympathy to Mr. and Mrs. Reg Brady and to their uncle and aunt.

Another former parishioner, and one held in high regard, passed away at Ashfield—Squire Alfred Pike. Our sympathetic thoughts to Mrs. Pike and her family (and all the relatives) which includes Mr. and Mrs. Thew of Fisher Street.

May the "God of all consolation" comfort and sustain our friends in their sorrow.

Flower and Basket-making.—Mrs. Gillies has kindly offered to teach flower-making and/or basket-making on Wednesday or Saturday afternoons, to aid our Jubilee Fund. Will those interested please get in touch with Mrs. Adams at the Rectory as soon as possible?

District Visitors.—We welcome Mrs. A. H. Thomas, who has kindly undertaken the late Miss Norman's district. The next meeting will be on Wednesday, September 23rd, at 3 o'clock. Visitors are requested to hand in their collections not later than the twenty-third.

Jubilee Fund.—During August the following gifts were received for this fund which are acknowledged with the Churchwardens' thanks:—

Box 88, £1/4/10; Box 141, Mrs. Thompson, £1/11/-; Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Gilbert (Auckland), £3/3/-; Mr. A. E. Carruthers, £1; Graham Kearns, £1/1/-; Mrs. Garrad, £1; Miss Eve, £2; Anonymous, 2/-; Mrs. F. A. Weir, £1/1/-; Miss Bonnie Weir, £1/1/-; Rev. A. E. Gardner, 10/-; Mrs. Lindsay (Narrabeen), £1; Tudor Choir Concert, per Mr. J. K. Carroll, £13/1/6; the Misses Janssen, £6/6/-; Mr. R. Brady, £3/3/-; Women's Guild—Fellowship Evening, £5/11/-; previously acknowledged, £650/12/7. Total to 30th August, £693/7/11.

PLEASE NOTE: NEXT BOX OPENING, SEPTEMBER 27

Total Anonymous, £9/9/6. Total to 30/8/53, £121/8/2.

The Choir.—Many people have made complimentary remarks, others not so complimentary, about our work during the last few weeks, which should serve to remind us of the need to maintain dignity and decorum if our singing is to be appreciated.

Choir members are asked to be early at practices on Thursdays as work for the All Saints' Festival, Confirmation, Christmas and Easter, has all to be learnt.

Mr. Eagar hopes as many choristers as possible will attend the welcome to Sir William McKie, Organist of Westminster Abbey, on Saturday, September 19th, at 8 p.m. in the Chapter House.—J.K.C.

The Sunday School.—We are very pleased with the result of the Annual Medical Mission Appeal, held recently; no less than 150 cakes of soap, 68 bandages and 503 safety pins were brought in by scholars and have been forwarded to the Church Missionary Society. We wish to thank the scholars for the splendid result and also thank parents for their co-operation in this matter.

Attention is drawn to the Special Youth Service on Sunday, September 27, at 11 a.m. We hope to see many parents present. Please note, there will be NO Sunday School that morning, the scholars are asked to attend the service at 11 a.m.

We regret that Miss Gwen James has resigned from the Staff, owing to removal to Ashbury. We greatly appreciate the loyal service Miss James has rendered to the School.

Positions Vacant. Several positions as Sunday School Teachers are vacant. Apply The Rector or Superintendent.—R. F. ATKINSON, Superintendent.

C. of E. Homes Annual Fete.—We willingly agree to advertise, and to commend to your interest and support the Church of England Homes' Annual Fete, to be held at C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre, 201 Castlereagh Street, on Friday, 25th September. Should any parishioners wish to help by donating gifts, in kind, these may be left at 70 King Street (3rd Floor), Sydney, or if this is not convenient, the receipt of these articles could be arranged either by writing to the Hon. Organiser, Mrs. E. E. Olds, Ilfracombe, Bonds Road, Peakhurst, Telephone: LA 9160.

L.H.M.U.—The half-yearly "Direct Giving" Meeting of the Ladies' Home Mission Union will be held in the Guild Room at All Saints', on Tuesday, 29th September, at 2.30 p.m. Deaconess Baker has promised to provide a Guest Speaker. Miss Allen would be very pleased to welcome more workers at the Sewing Afternoon, which is held at her home on the second Tuesday of the month.—J. SMITH, Secretary.

Cricket.—An All Saints Cricket team is being formed for the approaching season. Will those interested please get in touch with Mr. J. M. Boyle. You may see him at Church on Sunday evenings or contact him at his home, 59 Acton Street, Hurlstone Park, but "Do it NOW!"

Appreciation.—We thank Mr. L. Morton and Mrs. Frank Fletcher for the altar and other flowers on Sunday, August 30th; given in memory of Warren Campbell Morton, who was killed in action on 31st August, 1942. We appreciate this remembrance and thank Mrs. Bosward for the artistic arrangement of the gift.
