THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,
27th July, 1942.

Dear People of All Saints':

If our Consecration Festival is to be in any sense worthwhile, and worthy of the thoughts and ideals which prompt us to keep this annual remembrance, we shall need the utmost co-operation and support of all parishioners. I want, therefore, to put the question to each one of you individually: What are you going to do about it? It is customary to observe this Festival as a "Back to All Saints'" Sunday, when we endeavour to get in touch with all former parishioners and invite them to worship with us in their old parish church on that day. First; will you commence to do this now? There are no invitation cards being issued this year, but you can send your friends this paper, specially drawing their attention to page 5. Many of those former parishioners who were keen, loyal churchpeople have passed on; but there must be numbers of their relatives who would welcome an opportunity of renewing their associations with All Saints', Petersham. Second; you can help quite a lot by inviting present parishioners to come, particularly those who do not attend regularly, and those who do not come at all. Third; and above all, you can remember daily the Festival Services in your prayers.

In view of the fact that we still have afternoon service, this year's arrangements will be slightly different. That people can come in the afternoon if they want to, is clearly shown by the splendid congregation we had on a recent Sunday when Bishop Cranswick visited us and gave one of the finest missionary addresses I have ever heard. So we shall expect you to make an effort to be present at the afternoon service on August 16th—the Festival Sunday. Unfortunately some of those who used to attend regularly on Sunday evenings do not now come at all; in spite of the fact that there are always two morning services to which they might come if the afternoon is not convenient. In this connection, I must pay a tribute of appreciation to our Choir. None of us really like the afternoon service, but the Choir members have been very loyal, and have "stuck to it," quite regardless of personal preference. I wish I could say the same of many others. This lack of co-operation in the matter of afternoon service is very discouraging to the clergy who give of their best at all times, and a discouraged ministry is little less than a tragedy. We do not ask to be pampered by our people, but we would like them to remember that we also are human beings. I was struck by a sentence I read in a recent article regarding Sunday services eighteen hundred years ago; it reads: "Worship was a social act, for which no amount of private piety and good behaviour could serve as substitute." Also from the same article, "It did not occur to them to ask that their worship should be 'bright' or 'attractive' or 'helpful.' They were content that it was true, and that, in offering it as they were taught, they were standing in the sight of the Divine Majesty before God's altar in heaven." Unfortunately, many people to-day are endeavouring to make all sorts of things a substitute for worship. Even doing various kinds of war work, most necessary as it admittedly is, is no substitute for corporate worship, and never can be. So far, I see no signs that we are even remotely approaching a state of readiness for, and worthiness of the peace for which we are longing and praying.

The men of the parish are again invited to be present at the 8 o'clock celebration on August 16, and to share the fellowship of the men's Communion Breakfast which follows that service.

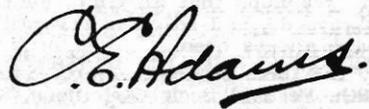

Will those who have collecting boxes which were issued some months ago (in lieu of a fete) please return them on the Festival Sunday? For those who have no box, there is issued with this "Chronicle" a special envelope in which you are asked to place your offering, and bring it to church on the same Sunday. As there are fewer boxes allotted this year, more people will require envelopes. Our offerings must not fall below last year's total; we should try rather to exceed it.

We hope to have our Parish Festival Tea and Social Reunion on Wednesday, August 19. Tickets for the Tea are now available and may be had from your District Visitor, from members of the Women's Guild or from the Rectory at a cost of one shilling. We attach a good deal of importance to ticket sales, for it is only in this manner that we can approximate the number of people for whom we shall have to provide. You can help by purchasing your ticket as soon as possible. Even allowing for the many essential calls upon us, we feel that, with your help, we can maintain the high standard of our Festival Tea. We shall be glad to hear from any parishioners who may be willing to donate a table or a portion thereof, and promises of donations in kind will be most welcome.

Confirmation classes will commence this month: Boys on Wednesday, August 26, and girls on Thursday, August 27, both classes being held at the Rectory and commencing at 7.30 p.m. I spoke last month of going to the Cathedral for Confirmation this year, but I have since discovered that there is a Confirmation at St. Augustine's, Stanmore, towards the end of November, at which the Rector is willing that I should present our candidates. I am therefore making application to the Archbishop for permission to do this. I feel it would not only be more convenient, but would be fitting that our candidates should join with those of St. Augustine's which was originally a daughter church of All Saints'. Candidates for Confirmation will please supply the date and place of their Baptism. Regular attendance at preparation classes is absolutely essential.

Our sympathies go out to those anxious parents and friends whose loved ones are reported "missing." Doubtless many of those so announced in recent lists are prisoners-of-war. We continue to pray for them both in our corporate and private prayers; and we suggest that all who are anxious might come together to join in the corporate intercession which is offered each Sunday and Wednesday. We reprint a prayer taken from "The Canadian Churchman" which you might care to use.

Very sincerely yours,

LET THE RECTOR KNOW.

Mrs. Huff is up the Miff Tree
On a seat fixed good and firm;
And she'd like to tell the Rector
A few things and make him squirm.

Mrs. Huff was sick abed, sir,
Yes, sir, sick abed a week,
And the Rector didn't call, sir,
Never even took a peek.

Then I asked her how the Doctor
Knew that sickness laid her low,
And she said that she had called him
On the 'phone, and told him so.

So the Doctor called to see her,
But the Rector didn't go,
For the Doctor knew that she was ill,
And the Rector didn't know.

Now the Doctor gets his bill paid
With a nicely written cheque,
But the Rector, for not knowing,
Simply gets it in the neck!

—(From a London Church Paper.)

A Prayer for To-day.—Protect, O Lord God, we beseech Thee, by Thy Mighty Power, those to whom Thou hast entrusted the safety of this Commonwealth. More especially do we pray for our brethren who fought so bravely and are now prisoners. Shadow them now, O Lord, in their imprisonment, with Thy gracious hand; give them peace within their hearts and minds; comfort the wounded and the dying and take unto Thyself for Eternity the souls of those slain in battle. Give consolation to their dear ones at home. Spread out, O God, Thy protecting arm over our fleets at sea; direct the course of those who fly above the clouds; and have in Thy gracious keeping all who serve in the forces of their King and country. Make us, we pray Thee, who are spared the miseries of warfare, worthy of the sacrifices of our fellow men, and grant to us Thy grace and mercy in the building of Thy Kingdom in the world; through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Women's Guild.—Knowing the value of gifts to Missions for medical purposes and in response to an appeal during Medical Missions Week, the Guild, at its last business meeting, voted £5 toward this fund. The musicale held on Saturday afternoon, July 25, was most successful, and Guild funds will benefit to the extent of £5/5/-. We thank the artists who contributed towards the enjoyment of the audience—Miss Sutherland and her pupils, the Misses Betty Mansfield and Shirley Endres; also the Misses Clarke, McBurnie, Morgan, Elva Young and Master Cecil Davey, Miss Watkins and her group we thank for the afternoon tea. A musical competition, arranged by the Rector and Miss Adams, was won by Mrs. F. Ward. We welcomed back Miss D. P. Brown, who has been away for some months for health reasons. We are now looking forward to our Consecration Festival and the Communion Breakfast and Festival Tea to follow.

We hope that all Guild members will respond as generously as they always do, and so make our festival functions this year the success they have always been.

Fixtures for August are: Saturday, 15th, Business Meeting; Saturday, 29th, Festival Social Afternoon, 3 p.m., Parish Hall.—C. Reilly, Hon. Sec.

B.C.A.—The organising missionary has suggested that it will help him considerably in his work, if a combined meeting might be arranged in some convenient centre to which parishioners from neighbouring parishes might be invited. The Women's Guild of All Saints' has consented to organise the first of such combined meetings, which will be held here on Wednesday, October 7, at 2.45 p.m. This is timely notice, but it is given in the hope that that afternoon might be set aside for B.C.A. Further details will be given in next month's paper. The O.M. will preach at All Saints' at both morning and evening services on October 4th.

All Saints' Sunday School.—Teachers are asked to note that the second Teachers' Conference for this year will take the form of a talk on Elementary Doctrine by the Rev. C. K. Hammond, and will be held here on Saturday, 22nd August, at 2.30 p.m.

The members of the Sunday School Staff take this opportunity of expressing their best wishes and congratulations to Miss Ivy Muldoon and Mr. William Cooke, who recently announced their engagement.

We extend deepest sympathy to Mr. Harold Jones in the loss of his father, and Miss Gladys Jones in the loss of her grandfather, who passed away on Sunday, July 12th.—M. E. Haywood, Hon. Secretary.

District Visitors.—We welcome Miss Peard who has kindly consented to resume her work as Secretary to the association. We regret to report that Mrs. Whiting, acting upon medical advice, has been obliged to tender her resignation. We thank her for much faithful service as a District Visitor, and wish her a speedy restoration to health. Mrs. Cleary has been off duty suffering from a severe attack of influenza: we hope she may soon be able to take up her work again. During her absence the Rector and Mr. Nicholls undertook the visiting in her District.

Will you please accept this as an Invitation?

Our next meeting falls on Wednesday, August 19, but owing to the Festival Tea, it has been transferred to the following Wednesday, August 26, at 3 o'clock.

Condolence.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements:—

Mr. and Mrs. Walter, of Hunter Street, in the passing of Mr. Walter's mother; Miss Clare, of Napier Street and her brother and sister in the loss of their brother; Mrs. Jones, of Newington Road, and her family, in the sudden passing of her husband and their father; Mr. and Mrs. E. W. Pepper, of Audley Street, and the family of the late William Edward Jaques, who also passed away very suddenly; and Mr. and Mrs. Rupert Ashwood, Mr. and Mrs. Cyril Williams, of Middle Street (and their relatives) in the loss of Mr. Ashwood's and Mrs. Williams's mother, Lillian Ashwood, who passed away quite suddenly at Broke, near Singleton. Mrs. Ashwood will be remembered as a most loyal churchwoman and keen member of our Women's Guild, always gladly helping wherever she could.

May all who are sad know the comfort and consolation of the Holy Spirit of God.

The Choir.—We would be pleased to hear of boys of nine to twelve years of age who would be willing to become recruits for the Choir. We are gradually building up but would be glad to have another six boys to be trained as choristers. If you can help, please get in touch with the Rector or Choirmaster.

C.E.B.S. (Juniors).—The Junior Branch continues to flourish under the leadership of Mr. Nicholls. Church of England boys over eight years are eligible for membership, and are invited to meet on Monday afternoons at 4.15. We hope we may soon have an Admission Service for the Juniors.

Missionary News.—The following interesting paragraph has been supplied by Miss Olive Stevens, Federal Secretary, Heralds of the King, A.B.M.:—

Priests of their own: In India every year many thousands of new Christians are baptized. Indian priests are needed to give them the sacraments and to teach them. The Bishop of Assam has a plan to help the people in his diocese in that way. Assam is a land of mountain and jungle. Most of the Christians live in villages miles away from any means of transport or even a good road. The people are poor and need priests who understand how hard their lives are and who will live with them and help them in their Christian life.

As the Bishop travels from village to village he often finds Christian men who are trying to teach others and invites them to come and stay in his home. They come for six weeks, all working and praying and eating together, while the Bishop teaches them more about the Christian Faith. Then they go back to their own villages to teach the other Christians.

Next year they come for another six weeks, and so on, for several years, each time learning something more of the Christian Faith. Some of them are then chosen to be Deacons and later on Priests.

Writing of such an ordination, the Bishop of Assam says—"The chief event of the year has been the ordination of our first voluntary priest, i.e., a man who, while continuing to earn his living by cultivation, is not only the leader of his village in secular matters, but can also minister to them the Bread of Life. This type of clergy is very badly needed."

They will be very poor like their congregations, for they will live on the offerings of the people. But that will make them and their people better able to understand and help each other, and to offer to God their best in worship and service.

Rest Centre.—As most of you know, our Parish Hall is designated "Rest Centre No. 11." Alderman Bain, accompanied by Mrs. Clifford Superintendent) and Mrs. Bosward (Assistant Superintendent), attended a recent meeting of CENEFF to explain the object of rest centres and their equipment. Additional helpers would be welcomed at No. 11, so if you can assist, please get in touch with the abovementioned ladies, without delay, or hand your name and address to the Rector who will pass it on to them. Gifts of soap, face-washers, blankets, and quilts (old or new) would be very acceptable and should be sent to the Parish Hall addressed, Rest Centre No. 11.

Contribution.—The verses on Page 3, kindly sent by a parishioner, are worthy of a place in any parish paper; for there are people in every parish who are just as unreasonable as the lady mentioned, who credit the clergy with powers of clairvoyance which they really do not possess!
