THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory, 26th June, 1944.

Dear People of All Saints',—

Writing for the July "Chronicle" reminds me that the time is drawing close when we shall commence our preparation classes for Confirmation. Once again I ask the co-operation of the parents and godparents of our young people. Obviously you cannot decide this most serious question for them, but you can, and, I hope you will, give them every possible encouragement and support as they approach this most important period in their lives. You, as parents, naturally want the best for your children in those things which fit them for life in the material sense, and you should be just as keen, in fact, even more so, to see that they are trained in the more lasting spiritual things. If you yourself have not been confirmed, why not grasp the opportunity now offered you? Should you be in the least diffident about attending a young people's class, I would be happy to arrange an adult preparation class should the numbers warrant it.

To the candidates themselves I would issue a word of warning. It is this: Unless you are prepared to be reasonably regular Communicants after your Confirmation, I would rather you did not present yourself for preparation. It is most disappointing to spend weeks of preparation on people who come to their Communion two or three times and then, without any reason, join the "drifters." It is worth remembering that once we commence drifting we drift down-stream, not up! Elsewhere in this issue you will note the date on which your classes commence. If you wish to join them, please let me have, before July 31st, your full name and address, your age last birthday, and the date of your Baptism. The Confirmation Service will be on Sunday morning, October 22nd; as a general rule, candidates should be fourteen years of age on or before that date. If you are not quite 14, and you wish to be prepared for Confirmation, I would like to have your name as soon as possible, as permission must be obtained from the Archbishop to admit you to the classes.

On August 20th we hope to observe the 41st Anniversary of the Consecration of All Saints'. It is not too soon to commence getting in touch with former parishioners to invite them to be with us at one or more of the special services being arranged for the consecration festival. We know all the difficulties of rationing, but we still hope to hold the Annual Festival Tea on Wednesday, August 23rd. We would, therefore, be glad to hear from those who would be willing to donate a table or portion thereof, and also from those who are willing to act as hostesses that evening.

On our Festival Sunday—August 20th—the boxes in use (in lieu of a fete) will be returned and presented. There now remain but six weeks in which to conclude our efforts for the Parish Hall Fund. A special envelope will be provided in the August "Chronicle" for those who have no box; and we ask all parishioners to join in making this annual effort for our Parish Hall a great success.

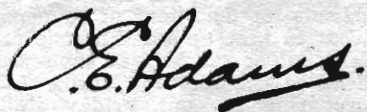

A great many people to-day cherish glowing hopes of a more Christian order of society in the days ahead. Speeches from platforms, talks on the air, writings in books and newspapers, are full of plans for a new order. I am afraid many of us are only too ready to believe that it can all be had for the asking. We don't realise what a complete revolution is involved. George Barclay, in "The Bible Speaks to Our Day," points out in a chapter on "Reconstruction," where we must commence. Basing portion of his talk on the prophet Haggai's first two chapters, he says: "The first message which Haggai brought from the Lord to the people was that their values were all wrong; they had been giving priority to the material needs of the community, and it had not been a success. Believing that economics was of more urgent importance than religion, they had failed even to make a success of their economics. Putting first things second had not worked well. It is the old lesson in new circumstances. Spiritual things cannot be neglected without misfortune; life goes wrong if God is left out. Man cannot live by economics alone; he needs, really needs, God. Haggai is not content to say that man needs God as well as economics; he goes a little further than that, saying that if a community neglects God it will not even make a success of its economics. The second message which the Lord sent by His prophet was a call to the people to make a start at once with the building of the Temple, which they had too long neglected . . . For, without a church, without a centre of worship, without some means by which people can express and develop their relation to God, God is not really honoured. The Bible knows little of the idea of a religion without a church . . ."

We realise how inadequate the church of to-day is for the tasks that lie before it. The call comes to each one of us to help build it up, and we cannot build it up from the outside! You must come in, and help to strengthen it from the inside if you really want a Christian social order after the war.

We continue to pray for our Empire and her Allies in this time of terrific struggle. We would like to see more people joining us Sunday by Sunday, and day by day. There are short periods of guided intercession on Tuesdays and Fridays at 12 noon, subject, of course, to the exigencies of the parish. The church is open daily for private prayer and meditation.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Appreciation.—Year by year, on the second Sunday in May, the members of the Wedlock family make themselves responsible for the church flowers, in memory of their mother. The profusion of most beautiful white chrysanthemum, grown and supplied by Mr. and Mrs. G. Clifton Smith, was a strikingly lovely memorial at our Mothers' Day services. The decorating was beautifully done by Mrs. Clifton Smith, kindly assisted by Miss E. Howard (in the absence, through illness, of Mrs. Sworn). This small appreciation was crowded out of last issue through lack of space, but it loses none of its sincerity in being delayed.

The Sunday School.—We are greatly indebted to the Vacuum Oil Co. for presenting a very enjoyable Talkie Show in the Parish Hall on Thursday evening, 22nd June. Also to Mr. Tanner for donating the sweets, and Miss Adams for making a good supply of toffees. The effort was excellent, and the total proceeds to date are £14. Thanks, boys and girls! Owing to the generosity of the Vacuum Oil Co., this amount was raised entirely free of expense, and we include in our thanks, Mr. Burns, the Company's Representative. We take this opportunity of welcoming Miss D. P. Brown to our teaching staff.

Congratulations to Lt. and Mrs. B. Dick (formerly Miss Gladys Jones, of our Kindergarten Staff), on the birth of a son.—D. E. Muldoon, Hon. Secretary.

Confirmation Classes.—Preparation Classes will commence in August—for boys on Tuesday, August 1st, and for girls on Thursday, August 3rd, both classes being held at the Rectory, and commencing at 7.30 p.m. It is absolutely essential that all candidates shall attend regularly.

Women's Guild.—Our annual luncheon on May 31st was most enjoyable. Despite rationing, the catering by the ladies concerned was excellent, and must have meant a great deal of self-sacrifice on their part. The floral decorations were also a feature, and we must congratulate Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Sinclair for their work in this direction. Mrs. Day arranged an attractive musical programme, which was contributed by Mrs. Lyttle and Miss Norma Lawrence. Canon Bell was our guest speaker, and his address, which was listened to with great interest, was a most challenging one. We hope this challenge, especially regarding Reconstruction and Advance in New Guinea, will be accepted by all, whether young or old. At the luncheon the Rector launched the appeal for £100 in connection with this Reconstruction. As you know (or don't you?), as a parish we have promised £100 a year for three years. This is our second £100. Last year we raised £106. Can we beat that this year? Of course, we can! The following amounts have been handed in to date:—Canon Bell £1, Misses Eve £1, Mrs. Slee £1, Mrs. McLaren £1, Mrs. Furnell £2/2/-, Mrs. T. Jones £1, Miss Watkins £1, Mrs. Robertson 10/-, Miss E. C. Horton £1, Mrs. Brennan £1, Miss Adams £1; Total, £11/12/-, and with promises, we already see our first £20. Cheers! Only £80 more to get by November next. You are all going to help again, aren't you? Those churches, hospitals and schools in New Guinea have to be rebuilt by everyone helping to the utmost. The Guild meetings for the month are: July 13, Quarterly Rally; July 27, Business Meeting.—E. V. Adams, President.

C.E.N.E.F.—On behalf of our members I wish to again thank all friends for donations of coupons, which have enabled us to procure more wool to knit up for our comforts for the boys. Parcels are now being sent out to the lads at their several posts. £20 has been paid in to the head branch for the Cathedral Hut expenses, and we are now very busy preparing for our Friday stall on September 29th, in the Cathedral grounds. We have a big task ahead, as we hope to raise about £40. Don't forget the date, friends, and support our effort. Thank you!—E. M. Belfield, Hon. Secretary.

Visiting Preacher.—On Sunday morning, July 16th, at 11 o'clock we are to have a visit from the Rev. Oliver J. Brady, of St. Aidan's College, Dogura, Diocese of New Guinea. We hope you will not only come yourselves, but that you will bring others with you on Sunday, the sixteenth.

Bush Church Aid Society.—The Organising Missioner writes: "Please thank the folk at Petersham, who so kindly helped you make up the splendid amount towards our Silver Jubilee Fund. It was nice to know that they were so ready to help us in that effort, which has been a very excellent success."

Since our last issue, a further donation of 10/- has been collected by Miss Watkins, making our total for the Jubilee Fund £17 (and £1 War Savings Certificate), plus £5 for this fund from our Sunday School.

B.C.A. Boxes for quarter ending May, 1944: Mr. and Miss Peard 7/6, Mr. Mervyn 7/-, Mrs. Paton 1/8½, Miss Adams 12/2, Mrs. R. W. Holt 10/-, Mrs. Hoseason 5/6, Mrs. Brennan 2/-, Mrs. Smith 1/4, Mrs. Jupp 4/5, Mr. H. F. Jones 2/6, Mrs. Reilly and Miss Hill 2/8½, Mrs. Grant 7/2; Total, £3/4/-. Thank you!—E. V. Adams, Box Secretary.

Quarterly Offertory.—The churchwardens acknowledge with thanks the following amounts specially marked for the quarterly offertory: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holt £2/2/-, Miss Eve £1, Miss Bentzen 10/-, Rector £1, a Friend 8/-.

Personal.—We would ask the following parishioners and friends to accept our sincerest sympathy in their recent bereavements:—Mrs. Tilley and family, of Morgan Street, in the very sudden death of her husband and their father; Mr. Halls and family, of Brighton Street, in the loss of his wife and their mother; Mrs. Field and Miss Smith, of Bright Street (and their relatives), in the loss of their sister; Mrs. Rockingham (and her daughter), of Edgecliff, in the tragic death of her husband as a result of a 'plane crash; Mr. Wimhurst (of Newington Road), and his sons, in the sudden death of his wife and their mother; and Miss Andrews, of Temple Street (and her relatives), in the loss of her sister after a short illness. The late Edith Marion Andrews (for many years Secretary of Cropleys Ltd.) was well known in church and philanthropic circles. At the services held in the home and at the Crematorium, the Rector was assisted by the Rev. J. T. Phair, Rector of St. Paul's, Cobbity, a very old friend of the Andrews family.

May the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit give to all who are sad, comfort for the present and strength for the future.

C.S.O.M.—At the last meeting of the 'All Saints', Petersham, Group of the Christian Social Order Movement, we had the pleasure of a visit from Miss E. M. Bannan (Lecturer in English and Warden of The Women Teachers' College). Miss Bannan gave a most helpful and interesting talk on "The Power Suggestion," with special reference to Education; and afterwards led the Group discussion.

The Group meets on the first and third Tuesdays in each month, and would welcome others interested in the Christian Social Order Movement. Not only C.S.O.M. members, but all parishioners should be interested in the announcement which follows this paragraph.

"When the Fighting Stops—What Kind of Peace?"

The problem is difficult. You will be helped to see it more clearly if you attend the Public Meeting in St. James' Hall, Phillip Street, Sydney, on Thursday, July 6th, at 8 p.m. Addresses will be given on three aspects:

War, Peace and Human Nature, Mr. R. J. Boyer, M.A.

Some Special Peace Problems, Professor I. Clunies-Ross.

The Christian Contribution, the Right Rev. The Bishop of Armidale.

C.E.B.S. (Seniors).—Latest news of our members in the Forces is that J. Giffin is now in Melbourne, while his brother, Les, is believed to be in England. Ron. McLean, our former Leader, who was recently in hospital up north, is reported to be recovered and getting about again.

Members who were recently on leave together were Dick and Jack Bosward, Colin Cooper, Bill Redmond and Ken Hayne.

Congratulations to J. Bosward, who will shortly receive his wings in the R.A.A.F.

The C.E.B.S. next Corporate Communion will be on Sunday, 23rd July, at 8 a.m.—H. Robertson, Secretary.

C.E.B.S. (Juniors).—The matter uppermost in the mind of the Juniors for the past month has been the C.E.B.S. Hand Soccer Competition. Of the four matches already played, Petersham has won three and drawn one. Our team consists of S. Archer (captain), R. Whittle, D. Anthony, J. Brotherton and K. Lane (with B. Lane as reserve). So far, the goals have been scored by D. Anthony and K. Lane, who have been backed up by a keen, enthusiastic team. We should get into the semi-finals, and, we hope, into the finals. We thank Kevin Williams (Seniors) for acting as Referee in these matches; and we are grateful to John Dunn in accompanying the team to Concord in the Rector's absence. We welcome Jim Sefton as a new member, and hope other juniors will come along and join the ranks of C.E.B.S.

Choristers.—The Rector and Choirmaster would be glad to hear of boys between the ages of 9 and 12 years who would offer as recruits for the Choir. Please get in touch with the Choirmaster on Thursday evenings or on Sunday, or notify the Rector if you know of any boys willing to join the Choir.
