RECTOR'S NOTES

There's something very pleasant in contemplating the first opportunity that my wife and family and I will have of joining together with you all to celebrate the remembrance of our Saviour's Birth. December is a very happy month—for most of us surely. Of course, there comes a pressure in the accelerating pace of activities which takes a "bit of the shine off" the rejoicing. We can become so busy that the weariness robs us of the ability to "real-ise" the basic significance of the occasion. I hope this misfortune will not be your experience. I must admit I find I need to make a deliberate effort to avoid that trap myself. We've planned a few "get-together" occasions for "the family" here at All Saints—and we hope you'll be able to share them with us—the Lord's family celebrating the Lord's Birthday together.

Christmas and the Christ-Child speak so plainly of newness and the promise of new hope and great possibilities. It's like the excitement of the prospects that confront us when a baby makes his appearance in our home—only then it is possibilities for someone else. But the Coming of the Christ Child really means the promise of new hope and new possibilities for us. He came to make it possible for the chain of cause and effect to be broken when it's needed and longed for. That's the real miracle of Christmas—the fact that we can always know the release from things that bind us. Just as God broke into the life of man and revealed His power and love in the God-Man Christ Jesus, so also His Spirit is able to "break-in" (when invited) to the life of the individual and powerfully re-make the direction of a man's life, and share with him the joy of divine love and companionship. I say "when invited" because He comes to answer needs, and needs when consciously realised will always issue in invitations being made. God will not impose Himself and His Life Abundant, but like the Prodigal's father, waits to speedily respond when once we turn homeward, motivated by our realised needs.

May you all make the most of your opportunities to experience the Newness and Offered Blessing in the celebration of the Coming of God's Salvation at this Festive Season.

Your Friend and Minister,

S. W. GISSING.

CHRISTMAS DAY
from Dreamthorp
ALEXANDER SMITH

There is one more good thing about Winter—he brings Christmas through the bleak December the thought of the coming festival is pleasant—like the reflection of a fire on our faces. We taste the cake before it is baked, and when it is actually before us we find that it is none the worse for the fond handling of imagination. Christmas day is the pleasantest day in the whole year. On that day we think tenderly of distant friends, we strive to forgive injuries to close accounts with ourselves and the world—to begin the new year with a white leaf, and a trust that the chapter of life about to be written will contain more notable entries, a fairer sprinkling of good actions, fewer erasures made in blushes and fewer ugly blots than some of the earlier ones. And to make Christmas perfect, the ground should be covered and the trees draped with snow, the bleak world outside should make us enjoy all the more keenly the comforts we possess; and, above all, it should make us remember the poor and the needy for charitable deed is the best close of any chapter of our lives, and the best promise, too, for the record about to begin.

A STUDENT'S PRAYER

Lord grant to me a quiet heart
Before examinations start,
Teach me to use my leisure hours
To re-invigorate my powers
My mind from day-dreams liberate,
Give me the will to concentrate
From all distractions set me free,
That in my studies I may be
A student with this sole intent,
To make my work a sacrament.
From my faint heart in love expel
All failure fears that therein dwell.
And from my pillow drive away
All dark forebodings of that day.
Help me in faith to rest so deep
That I may have untroubled sleep.
While notes and summaries I prepare,
May I not lose my zest for prayer.
And may I not forget to look
For daily evidence in Your Book.
In quietness, confidence and peace,
May I find sure and swift release.
From needless fears and apprehension,
From outward strain and inward tension.
And may I ever grateful be
To all who offer prayer for me.
While for myself I intercede,
For other students I would plead.
So may examinations find,
Each one alert in heart and mind.
Thus inward joy and peace possessing,
Exams will prove a source of blessing. Amen.

FETE APPRECIATIONS

The Chairman of the Parish Council's Fete Committee, Mr. Frank Hearn, extends his sincere congratulations to all stallholders and other fete workers for their tremendous efforts throughout the year. Without their hard work and co-operation, the record final result would not have been obtained. Thanks also to all parishioners and friends of All Saints' — your wonderful support will enable the work of this Parish to be maintained securely in the coming year.

The following Stallholders wish to express their appreciation for the help they received in raising the takings:

Fancy Goods: Mrs. D. Jones wishes to thank everyone who donated goods, sewed, and helped in any other way, including those who served on the Stall on the big day; this assistance was greatly appreciated. Thanks also to all who came and bought.

Mrs. Ivy Clark expresses many thanks to all who gave stocks for her stall, to all who helped on the day, and to her niece from Queanbeyan, for help on the stall. Thanks also to all who bought and helped to make the result better than ever. "A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year" to you all — I hope to see you all in 1975.

"How delightful is the company of generous people who overlook trifles and keep their minds instinctively fixed on whatever is good and positive in the world about them.

People of small calibre are always carping. They are bent on showing their own superiority, their knowledge or prowess or good breeding. But magnanimous people have no vanity, they have no jealousy, they have no reserves, and they feed on the true and the solid where ever they find it, and what is more, they find it everywhere."
