THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,

26th June, 1953.

Dear People of All Saints',

Will parents and guardians of those approaching Confirmation age please see that they have an opportunity of reading the letter addressed to them regarding the formation of Preparation Classes early next month? Will they also draw attention to the importance of Confirmation and help the young people to make a wise decision. From time to time I meet adults in this parish, who, for some reason or other, have never been confirmed. I would suggest that you seriously consider the matter and take the opportunity which is now offering. No one is "too old"! Possibly you feel somewhat diffident about attending a young people's preparation class. If so, I am ready and willing to arrange an adult class if the numbers warrant it. It is a pity to let this opportunity go, year by year, without doing something about it. I will do all I can to help anyone who is interested, and I will be glad if any adult will come and talk things over. Please "do it now," for it is unwise to defer so important a decision, one which can afford you so much real strength for daily living.

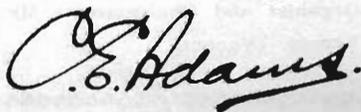

We are approaching the Fiftieth Anniversary—The Jubilee—of the Consecration of our Parish Church. This must be a special occasion in our Church life, and I first ask your co-operation in getting in touch with former parishioners to invite them to join with us in the Jubilee Services, which are being arranged for the Festival on August 16. His Excellency the Governor, Sir John Northcott, has graciously accepted my invitation to worship with us on that Sunday morning; and the Very Reverend E. A. Pitt, Dean of Sydney, has consented to preach in the evening. It is not so easy to preserve the "Back-to-All-Saints'" character of this Festival, for many of the older people have passed on; yet there must be some who would welcome the opportunity of sharing in an Act of Dedication, Praise and Thanksgiving, with which all parishioners, past and present, will endeavour to mark the Jubilee Festival.

The Annual Parish Tea on Wednesday, August 19, will mark the social side of the Festival. We shall be glad to hear from parishioners willing to donate a table or a portion thereof, and from those who can assist by acting as hostesses at the Tea. Here again we want to make a special effort for the Jubilee Tea, and we ask the co-operation of all our people in making it a time of happy fellowship and reunion.

Normally, we would be returning our boxes on August 16, but as boxes are already in use for our Jubilee Fund, we are asking that you will use the envelopes provided this month and next for the Parish Hall debt. This appeal concerns us all and we expect not only individuals, but all organisations which use the Hall will respond to it. The Jubilee Boxes are for church renovation (primarily for a new roof) over and above our annual commitments; but the special envelope offerings are for the purpose of reducing our Parish Hall debt and meeting the interest thereon, for which we need £200.

I am sorry to have to write and talk so much about money this year: it just happens to be our Jubilee Year when we want to do something "special" to commemorate it; but I don't want to give money any higher "priority" than it should have! Thank you for your ready response to our appeals.

Yours very sincerely,

THE RECTOR'S LETTER TO THOSE APPROACHING CONFIRMATION AGE

Dear Girls and Boys,

Open your Prayer Book at the "Public Baptism of Infants": turn to the last page and read the last short paragraph. You will notice that Godparents are instructed to "take care that this child be brought to the Bishop to be confirmed by him. . . ." Confirmation is the second step in Baptism, and is closely connected with it. At your Baptism your Godparents made certain promises for you, because you were too young to promise anything for yourself. Now you are being asked to confirm your Baptismal promises, making them firm or strong by putting your own names to them. It is like signing a document which someone else, a lawyer perhaps, has drawn up beforehand. But there is another side to Confirmation; we not only confirm the Vows which somebody made for us years ago, but we are confirmed. We are given special strength by God's Holy Spirit because without His special strength we cannot possibly keep the Vows.

The promise you will make at your Confirmation is about how you are going to live. Perhaps you have not thought much about that so far; for as a child one takes life very much as it comes, and doesn't bother much as to what it's all about. But time is going by very rapidly and you are growing up, in mind as well as in body. You can't just drift along, without any idea where you're going, or even where you want to go. Sooner or later, you have to make up your mind about life; what you think life is for, and what you're going to do with it. And that's exactly what we do when we are preparing for Confirmation. We face up to such questions as these: (1) How much does religion matter? (2) Should God play a part in my life? (3) Are there any things I'd like to develop in myself; and are there any things already there that I'd like to get rid of? (4) What is my aim in life; to get all I can out of it, or to put something into it?

I really don't see how a girl or boy can go through life without answering questions like these. I know lots of people don't answer them in so many words—but they have to live somehow, and the way they live is really the answer they give to them, without thinking them out.

If you are 14 years of age, or if you will be 14 by the end of October, I invite you to join the preparation classes, which will commence on Tuesday, August 4, for boys, and on Thursday, August 6, for girls; both classes commencing at quarter past seven.

I hope your parents will advise you in this important matter; but remember, no one but YOU can make the decision about Confirmation. If you wish to be prepared for Confirmation will you please hand me before July 31, your full name and address, your age last birthday, and the date of your Baptism. If you join the classes, as I hope you will, it is most important that you should attend regularly.

Hoping to have the privilege of preparing you for the Sacred Rite of Confirmation, and with all good wishes,

Your Sincere Friend and Rector,

C. E. ADAMS.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Women's Guild.—The Jubilee Appeal Dance, held in conjunction with The Fellowship on June 10, was not quite so well attended as the previous one; nevertheless, we were able to augment the fund by £16/8/-. We hope members and friends will be present in good numbers on July 8—dancing, cards, "beetles" and supper! On Saturday, June 20, an American Afternoon was held, which brought £11/9/6 to our Quota Fund. We thank all who helped, including Miss Sutherland and her friends, who gave us a very enjoyable musical programme. Please note the July meetings: Wednesday, July 8, Card Evening and Dance; Thursday, July 23, Business meeting. Miss Margaret Young, formerly Warden of The House of The Epiphany, now in charge of All Saints' School, Labasa, Fiji, sends greetings to the Rectory and all old friends at All Saints', Petersham.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Missions.—Most of us do something for the extension of Christ's Kingdom, particularly by our self-denial gifts during Lent. But this is just for six weeks out of fifty-two! What about the other forty-six weeks? The Missionary work of the Church goes on all the time, facing increasing costs, and the A.B.M. and C.M.S. need our help the whole year through. The Archbishop has drawn our attention to the "vast mass of unevangelised people in the islands and territories to the North of Australia, and of the competition from the forces of Communism for the controlling influence in their way of life." Through removals from the parish and through other causes we have lost some of the few regular, right-through-the-year contributors to Missions; the call comes to fill in the gaps. There are two ways in which you might help: (a) The Women's Guild Special Missionary Appeal for £100 for C.M.S. work in the Diocese of Borneo; (b) by becoming a regular helper through the Missionary Boxes, which are called in each quarter. Let the Rector know if you want an A.B.M. or a C.M.S. Box. Oh! yes!! We know we have a Jubilee Fund and that there are so many other appeals! But these parochial needs will NOT suffer because we give to Missions. Over a long experience, the writer has yet to meet anyone who neglected the needs of his (or her) parish, because he believes that Jesus meant what He said, when He commanded His followers to "Go into all the world and preach the Gospel!"

1952 Missionary Appeal.—The Rector has recently received the following letter of thanks from the Rev. L. Greensides, of the Mission House, Wailoku, Suva, to whom our special Mission Gifts were sent last year, to help rebuild the Mission Station after a devastating hurricane:—"Dear Brother, I want to write and thank you for the very generous gift, which the A.B.M. forwarded to me from you. The draft (£101/11/-) realised £89/17/4 in Fijian currency, and this is to be a "memorial" to Ethel Vivien Adams". I have sent an official receipt to Canon Warren, of the A.B.M. but I felt I must write and thank you personally. We are indeed grateful for this magnificent help, which to us means so much. I am sorry I have not been able to acknowledge the gift earlier than this, but I have just returned from a tour of the other island of Vanua Levu. This is our cool season and admirable weather for tramping around. With many grateful thanks and kind regards."

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to our parishioners and friends recently bereaved—to Miss E. Moses, of Gordon Street, in the loss of her sister; to the sisters and brothers of Florence Dean, of Livingstone Road; to the family of Martha Amelia Cole, of Fort Street; to the Misses Holland, of Railway Avenue, in the death of their brother, and to Mr. and Mrs. Bert Dick of Beverley Hills in the loss of Bert's father. We also send our sympathy to Miss Glanville and the relatives of the Rev. G. C. Glanville, who passed away recently at Nowra. Mr. Glanville was a former Vice-Principal at Moore College, and has taken relieving duty at All Saints', and to the Rev. R. C. Kerle, General Secretary, of C.M.S., in the recent death of his father. May the God of all consolation comfort and strengthen all who are bereaved.

Y.C.I.—The Coronation of Her Most Gracious Majesty Queen Elizabeth the Second was celebrated by the Y.C.I., who held a Dinner in the Parish Hall on the evening of Friday, the 5th June. There were more than 70 men present, the gathering including past and present members as well as other guests. Messages of goodwill were received from ex-members now domiciled in the country and in other States. The President, Rev. C. E. Adams, was Chairman and the Hon. Secretary, Mr. L. C. Calver, was toastmaster. The Right Rev. W. G. Hilliard, Coadjutor Bishop of Sydney, was the Guest of Honour, and he delivered the Oration, appropriate to the occasion. We were delighted to welcome the Bishop, as an "old boy" of All Saints', Petersham, and to hear his most impressive speech. Vice-President, H. G. Brodie, recited Masfield's Coronation Ode. Vice-President, H. F. Jones, proposed the toast of "The Church to which we Belong," which was responded to by the Rector, our President, Vice-President, M. A.

Buckley, proposed the toast of the Guests. This was responded to by ex-members, his Honour, Judge T. S. Holden and Mr. W. Weir. During the evening, Mr. Cecil Davey and Mr. Keith Palmer entertained with much-appreciated singing. The Dinner was prepared and served by a committee of lady voluntary workers, under the leadership of Mrs. B. T. Sayers, President of the Young Married's Club. The function was made possible by their co-operation, and the excellence of their work earned the congratulations and appreciation of members and their guests. Altogether, the Y.C.I. Coronation Dinner was an outstanding success, and will be long remembered by all those who were present.—L.C.C.

Thanks.—The following letters of thanks have come from (a) Canon A. E. Kain, Organising Secretary of S.P.C.K., for Australia and Tasmania, and (b) Captain A. W. Batley, Federal Secretary for Church Army: (a) "Many thanks indeed for a very generous contribution. Please thank Mr. Adams and all associated with him. I am sure that, quite apart from the money, S.P.C.K. is in your prayers." (b) "Thank you very much for the cheque for £6/0/3 from your Parish, this being a retiring offering in connection with my recent visit. We have pleasure in enclosing a receipt, and are very grateful for this financial assistance to help with the maintenance of our work."

Physical Culture Club.—Our Ball, held on the 19th June, by junior members of our Club was a great success. Mrs. Adams graciously received "thirty-two tiny sub-debs," who were outstanding in their dainty dresses. The mothers are to be congratulated for the beautiful work put into their frocks. To Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Grubb and Mrs. Kennedy, we extend our sincere thanks for their help in judging the fancy costumes, to Mrs. Collis, for her constant help in our Club, and to Mrs. Churchill, our M.C.'s, Mr. Joyce and Cliff Mangan, to Mr. Ditchburn and Mr. Sayers, Fay Endycott and Gwen Churchill a big vote of thanks for their co-operation at all times. Last, but by no means least, congratulations and thanks to all little "sub-debs", who made the evening so delightful. Through everyone's help we are able to donate £25/10/- to the Jubilee Fund. We commend to all the Senior Girls' Gala Dance, to be held on Wednesday, 15th July. A grand floor show to entertain all. Admission 3/-. Proceeds, Jubilee Fund.—F. DITCHBURN, Secretary.

The Fellowship.—We welcomed 17 new members to our Branch at the Initiation Service on June 14, which followed the Fellowship Tea, when our guest speaker, Chaplain J. L. Noble, spoke most interestingly of the different forms of worship he has seen during his service in Japan. The Chaplain also preached at Evensong. We are grateful to him for his visit to All Saints'. At our Musical Evening, Mr. Eagar told us the story of the Life of Handel, and Mr. and Mrs. Gunner and Miss Simpson illustrated the talk with solos from Handel's works. Our Square Dance evening was a great success. Erik brought along his records and radiogram, and everyone enjoyed themselves immensely.—J. SANDERSON, Secretary.

Choir Concert.—Mr. Eagar wants you to know of, and asks you to come to a special concert to be presented in the Parish Hall on Friday, 24th July, at 8 p.m. The Tudor Choir will sing a full programme of fine music, some written in earliest times and some modern. On the same programme will be items for those interested in ballet, presented by the Ballet Class. All proceeds of this concert are for the Jubilee Fund.

Baseball Club.—Some exciting games have been witnessed to date in this year's Churches Competition. Two points are allotted for a win, and our White Sox, with 10 points, are pressing the leading team, who are only two points ahead. The other All Saints' team, the Blue Sox, have six points to their credit. Come and see both your teams in action on Saturday, July 11, at Russell Park, 2 p.m., when the White Sox v. Blue Sox match promises to be one of the highlights of the season. All team members are reminded that a Church Parade will be conducted on the second Sunday evening of each month commencing July 12, followed by a social half-hour in the Hall. A big crowd of local and visiting ballplayers and supporters is anticipated at our forthcoming Dance in the Parish Hall, at 8 p.m. on Friday, August

7. Tickets at 3/- (including supper), are available from members of All Saints' Baseball Club.—N. GUNNER, Secretary.

Jubilee Fund.—Many thanks to all who are helping the Fund. June "Chronicle" credited the two following amounts, but inadvertently omitted the names of Miss Holland (Railway Avenue), £1, and the Misses Wells, Box No. 117, £1/11/5. During June came £5 from All Saints' Sunday School; Kindergarten, £12 (sale of wireless set); Anonymous, £2/2/-; Mr. and Mrs. Matthewson, £1; The Y.C.I., £5; Victor Seaglove, £3 (additional); (Victor asks that his thanks be recorded to Mesdames Day, Ditchburn and Churchill, who helped to make his evening such a success).
