THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory, 25th February, 1946.

Dear People of All Saints',

It may seem like boasting (but it isn't, for you know I am not given to bragging!) to say that I don't know of any other parish in the diocese whose people give so willingly and generously to the Annual Harvest Festival appeal. Once again we had a wonderfully generous response, which included a great number of gifts brought by the girls and boys of all departments of our Sunday School (Senior, Primary and Kindergarten) who offered them at the Children's Festival Service, and made a very substantial addition to the gifts already received. We are most grateful to ALL our parishioners and friends for their kindly co-operation in making our Harvest Festival a day of real thanksgiving, which it undoubtedly was. Especially do we thank Mrs. Morris, Mrs. Yarrington and Miss Adams for the very effective Harvest decorations; we always rely upon Mrs. Morris to secure the necessary "harvest touches", and she has never failed us yet; also we appreciate the good work of the choir throughout the day, and we thank Mr. A. J. Harris and Mr. Sopwith for the transport of our gifts to the Home of Peace, where they are so greatly appreciated, as you may see from the acting Matron's letter which appears elsewhere in this issue.

We were pleased to have the N.S.W. secretary of the A.B.M. (Rev'd. A. J. A. Fraser) with us as the occasional preacher at our Harvest Festival. We are reminded how great is our cause for thanksgiving here in Australia, and such a festival should be a reminder and an incentive to do all we can for our friends in Britain, who will need all the food we can send them for some time to come.

As you know, the season of Lent commences on Ash Wednesday, March 6th. Our Lenten offerings received through the special boxes and envelopes are always given to the two great missionary societies of the Church—the Australian Board of Missions and the Church Missionary Society. Boxes and envelopes are now available both in Church and Sunday School, and the recent response to the appeal for New Guinea encourages me to hope that we shall increase our gifts this Lent for the Extension of Christ's Kingdom. The opportunities facing the Missionary Societies in this post-war period are tremendous, and they are a definite challenge to us all. If you have not yet received your Lenten box or envelope, please ask for one when you come to Church; if you cannot attend Church, ask your District Visitor to procure one for you.

I trust you will willingly respond to the invitation and accept the opportunities your Church provides for the proper observance of the solemn season of Lent.

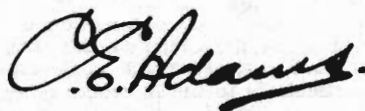

I have been interested in the letters appearing in the daily press under the heading of "Empty Church Pews". One writer stresses the necessity for the Church to train youth leaders, and, whilst admitting that this is a vital necessity, I am wondering if such a method would be really effective in filling the empty pews. Personally, I feel we need more leadership in the home. The advocate for trained youth leaders would perhaps be surprised if he went through the rolls of the youth groups in any parish, and discovered how small is the percentage of the parents of our young people who attend Church. Even with the most highly trained leaders in the world you won't get very far unless there is some friendly ally in the home. Moreover, the responsibility for the full pew is yours as well as that of your rector. How many laymen ever use the opportunities for Evangelism daily afforded by their various professions, crafts and occupations? There is a story told of the famous C. H. Spurgeon :—

A young man came to him and asked to be given some church work to do. "What is your profession?" asked Spurgeon. "I am an engine-driver," said the man. "Is the stoker a Christian?" "No," replied the engine driver. "Very well, there is your church work."

I know it is much easier to talk about politics or sport than about religion, but still, there it is; and it is no use talking about empty pews unless you are prepared to do your part.

We welcome to All Saints' the students who will shortly be arriving at the A.B.M. Hostel to commence their training as missionary candidates, and we wish them every happiness in their preparation for the great vocation to which they have been called.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Ash Wednesday.—On the first day of Lent, March 6th, there will be Celebrations of Holy Communion at 7 a.m. and 10.30 a.m. and Evening Prayer at 7.45 p.m. We hope you will arrange to attend at least one of the services arranged for Ash Wednesday.

Harvest Festival Gifts.—The Rector has received the following letter of thanks and appreciation from the Acting-Matron of The Home of Peace :—

"Once again it was a pleasure to receive a good supply of gifts donated to our Home by your parishioners as a result of their Harvest Thanksgiving Service held last Sunday. I do want you to thank them on our behalf for their kindly remembrance of us in forwarding so many very welcome gifts. Such practical gifts as these have always proved a great help to us in maintaining this Hospital, especially in these days of higher prices. The fruit and vegetables are very welcome, while the groceries are most useful and help to keep our monthly budget down.

"Thank you also for the money, £1/10/- (one pound, ten shillings), which was handed in with the goods. As the money was made up by two gifts, £1 from the Staff of the Kindergarten, and 10/- from Mrs. Atkinson, two receipts have been issued accordingly.

"Once again I would ask you to thank your parishioners for remembering the Home and patients here, and sharing with us in their thanksgiving to Almighty God for His care and protection during the year that has passed."

[We regret to learn that the Matron of the Home is absent through illness; and we wish her a speedy and complete recovery.]

Women's Guild.—The Guild and C.E.N.E.F. resumed on Thursday, February 14th, when final arrangements were made by the members of these two societies for the "Welcome Home" Party to our servicemen and women. This was followed by the Annual Gift Evening for The Home of Peace, at which the guest speaker was Sister Gilham, the Acting-Matron of the Home, who told us how very useful our gifts would be for the running of the Home. There was a very good attendance and the gifts were excellent. Supper brought a happy evening to a close. The meetings for March are : March 14th, Annual Meeting (when we hope all members will be present); March 28th, Quarterly Rally at 3 p.m. in the Chapel, followed by a Social Hour in the Parish Hall.—V. Lucas, Hon. Sec.

Physical Culture Class.— This class resumes on Monday, March 4th, at 6.45 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

Welcome Home Party.—There is a popular superstition that postponed events are never the success the original would have been; something of the initial enthusiasm fades away, and the postponed evening lacks something because of the delay. This was thoroughly disproved at the Parish Welcome Home Evening given on Thursday, February 21st, to our returned servicemen and women. The whole evening went with a "swing", and that does not refer only to the dances which were interspersed with very enjoyable musical and elocutionary items plus the acceptable efforts of a lightning sketch-artist! It was a real joy to welcome those who have passed through so many experiences in the years that have gone since they last met together in the happy fellowship of our parish life. No words could adequately express our thankfulness and theirs, and we can never forget those who paid the supreme sacrifice: If we are to build an Australia worthy of their sacrifice, we shall need the comradeship and co-operation of all service people, and we would like them to know the Church needs them as, we believe, they need the Church.

We are indebted to all who helped to make the evening such a happy one, particularly to the members of the Women's Guild and C.E.N.E.F. who prepared and served an excellent supper, to Mr. A. J. Harris and Miss Nancy King, our M.C's., and to two parishioners (who wish to remain anonymous), whose gifts were most helpful.

Children's Library.—We welcome Miss Watkins and Miss L. Gillies to our Librarian Staff, and we are glad to have their assistance. We acknowledge, with thanks, an anonymous donation of 4/- to the Library Fund, and 5/- from Mrs. R. Sharp to funds of C.S.O.M.

C.M.S. Boxes.—The Box Secretary has received the following acknowledgement from the General Secretary of C.M.S.:—

"Would you please convey our thanks to the boxholders of All Saints' Church, Petersham, for their further contribution of £8/7/7 towards our work."

C.E.B.S. (Seniors).—At cricket, the club's team has moved up into 3rd position, and it is pleasing to report that our captain, Harold Robertson, has completed the "double" of scoring over 500 runs, and taking 50 wickets, in the one season. Later in the month we have challenged a team of servicemen to a game at Marrickville Oval, and for this we have invited Kenny Grieves to play with us. Other grade players will be taking part, so an interesting match is assured.

Plans are going ahead smoothly for our coming concert, which will be produced in the near future, proceeds of which will be divided between our club and the Sunday School.

We are well represented at the Annual C.E.B.S. Swimming Carnival to be held this month and are confident of winning our share of events.

In the inter-house competition, the "Snipers" are leading from the "Cossacks". Harold Bicknell and Tommy Reynolds are the team captains. R. McLean, Leader.

C.E.B.S. Juniors.—We are once again in "full swing", and would welcome Church of England boys eight years of age and over on Friday evenings, at seven o'clock. Some of our Intermediates have passed on to the Seniors, where we hope they will continue to be keen and enthusiastic "Cebbs." Alan Jones is again our Secretary and Brian Heaton is Treasurer. Ted Brotherton and Brian Lane are captains of the "Lions" and "Tigers" respectively, with Bruce Timmins and Bob Kenny as their respective deputies. Mr. C. Williams is kindly giving us alternate Friday evenings as Gymnastic Instructor and has the nucleus of a good gymnastic team if every member will attend regularly and be prepared to work hard. All "Cebbs" and their parents and friends are invited to attend the Annual C.E.B.S. Rally in the Assembly Hall, Margaret Street, City, on Friday, March 8th, at 7.30 p.m.—C. E. Adams, Leader.

Quarterly Offertory.—The last Quarterly Offertory before the close of the financial year will be received on Sunday, March 24th. The Treasurer will be glad to receive any moneys for the General Fund and any outstanding quotas for the Parish Hall Fund before March 31st.

All Saints' Sunday School.—We are pleased to be able to report that the School Staff and Scholars are now back from their Christmas holidays, and we look forward to a successful year once again. The Annual Teachers' Meeting is to be held on Thursday, March 28th, at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall. A good attendance of teachers is desired. Thanks very much, Scholars, for your generous Harvest gifts, which are greatly appreciated by The Home of Peace.—D. Muldoon, Secretary.

Condolence.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their recent bereavements: Miss Dulcie Odlum and her brothers in the death of their mother; Mrs. Robinson (of St. John Street) and family in the loss of her husband and their father; the Williamson family of Temple Street in the passing of their mother; Mrs. Cole of Fort Street (and Mrs. V. Cole and family of Guildford) in the loss of her son; Mrs. Nicholls of Aubrey Street (and her family) in the death of her husband; Mrs. Milverton of Fort Street in the sudden death of her husband; and Mrs. McAuley (of Shaw St.), who has recently received word that her husband, Eng. Room Art. Robert McAuley, was amongst those presumed to have lost their lives on H.M.A.S. Perth. May all who are bereaved know the comforting and consoling power of the Holy Spirit in their sorrow.

Personal.—We wish Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Ricketts of North Street, who are leaving shortly for England "Bon Voyage" and a safe return.

Parish Memorial.—At a meeting of the Memorial Committee held on February 11th, it was resolved that "this Committee recommends that a memorial be erected in the parish church, and that any moneys over and above that required for a church memorial be devoted to a Kindergarten Extension Fund, subject to the approval of the Vestry meeting, to be held on April 29th."

The Choir.—Since our last report, the Choir Boys were the guests of the Rector at the "Majestic", when we enjoyed seeing "National Velvet"—an attractive and well-acted picture and masterpiece of technicolour. This was the very much delayed Christmas Party, which could not be arranged at the usual time owing to restrictions. We welcome Bob Smith, Ron Thomas and Peter Marshall as probationary choristers, and we should be glad to hear of other boys willing to serve in this way.

THE "CHRONICLE" SPEAKS

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints'!
