

St. Andrew's Passage

Ecclcs.

Apr. 20. 1893

My dear Mr. Taylor

I have had a note from the Bishop saying that he has accepted you for Holy Orders. It only remains that you should write me a formal acceptance of this curacy.

I am much looking forward to an "fellowship in the ministry of our Lord Jesus Christ". It is my high desire to help you to "make full proof of" it in your training under me in this parish. I know there is is no life or happy, & useful, and so influential in all best spheres of influence work calling to name, as that of a clergyman of the Church of England

Meanwhile you will never be long out of my thoughts and prayers, and I am sure you will often remember me in yours. If I may write a Holy Scripture on the threshold of your new more immediate preparation let it be, ii Tim. ii. 19-20.

We

We have both taken the yoke of Christ. May we be "true yokefellowes." The burden will be lighter if we keep close to each other by keeping close to Him.

Mrs. Armstrong joins in kindest regards

Ever sincerely yours
Henry J. W. Armstrong

P. S. Will you take love
