THE CHRONICLE SPEAKS.

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints!

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,
26th February, 1940.

Dear People of All Saints',

Although Lent came early, and there was little time for preparation, our Harvest Festival Services were very successful, and we record our thanks to ALL who helped to make them so. Owing to the continued dry spell, flowers are scarce, but Mrs. Morris and her helpers, notwithstanding the difficulties, managed to decorate the Church beautifully for the Festival. An excellent Harvest Offering (including the gifts from the girls and boys of the Sunday School) was kindly taken to the Home of Peace by Mr. McFadyen, and has since been appreciatively acknowledged by the Matron, with grateful thanks for all your gifts. In the evening of the Festival we were fortunate in having Canon E. Howard Lee (always a welcome visitor to All Saints') as preacher, and we thank him for his helpful address.

"Time marches on," and by the time you read this letter we shall be more than half-way through the season of Lent. I want to pass on to you some arresting and challenging words of the Bishop of Armidale in a recent letter to his diocese, quoted in the "Church Standard" (16/2/1940). The Bishop writes:—

"We are fighting a righteous war. I see this written again and again, and for my part I believe it.

"But, and here comes in a doubt I cannot quell, are we capable of fighting a righteous war as a righteous people? That I gravely doubt. To apply the words of the Bishop of Bradford to ourselves: 'Australia has not forsaken God, but she does not look like a country who thinks it worth while to pay Him any public acknowledgment. A nation of whom the great majority never pay God the tribute of public worship is well on the road to forgetting Him altogether.'

"Frankly, my heart aches over my fellow countrymen. The only people who can bring good out of evil, a lasting peace out of a world war, are people filled with the Spirit of God. You cannot gather figs of thistles—though we are trying so to do in the manner of our living.

". . . . When you think of Jesus Christ spending the 40 days of which our Lenten season is the memorial, apart with God, that He might be God-possessed and save the world; when you see Him going to public worship every Sabbath day and up at sunrise every morning for prayer—well, you realise that our scanty prayer and irregular worship are a mockery, almost a blasphemy, and that any hope of our being a people inspired to save our world for peace is an empty hope.

"How did Australia spend last Sunday? How many Ministers of the Crown spent time giving themselves to God in the fellowship of worship? Where were our leading men of commerce and industry or on the land? Where were our youth in whom lies so much of the hope of the future? Did one-tenth of the community yield itself to God at all in thought and prayer?

"But still we say our cause is righteous, we must win the war. We may do so; we are rich enough in this world's goods to last until our foes are starving, but we are not Godlike enough to win a peace. And unless we can see this war end with a peace that has brought the nation into harmony, it were not worth fighting at all.

"What a challenge lies here to every one with the very faintest Christian loyalty! God needs your life as a way to a better world."

When you read these words, I hope you will turn back and read them through again, slowly; and when they have become so firmly fixed in your mind, so that you cannot forget them, I would suggest that you pass them on for your neighbours and friends to read, since they challenge us all. I would put them into every Australian home, particularly those where our God-given freedom is taken for granted, and where seldom, if ever, is there a thought for the Giver, or a desire to come together to publicly acknowledge Him in all our undertakings.

I would draw your attention to the services being arranged for Holy Week and Easter (set out on page 11), and particularly ask that you will keep Holy Week (which commences on Palm Sunday, March 17) free from social engagements, in order that you may spend at least a part of each day in meditation and worship. There will, of course, be no meetings of clubs and societies during Holy Week. Their members are invited to attend the services, particularly upon the evening of the regular club night. Our young people will, I am sure, understand that the proper observance of this sacred week concerns them equally with the more senior parishioners.

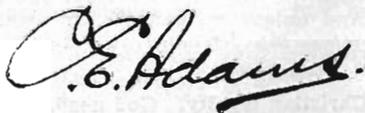

Because men use Good Friday—the most sacred day in the whole year—for purposes which we cannot do other than deplore, and against which we ought never cease to protest, it is necessary to remind people once again that the ONLY REASON why Good Friday is a holiday is because our Lord was crucified for us on that day. Your Church makes ample provision for all parishioners to spend this most sacred day quietly and thoughtfully in corporate acts of Penitence, and Thankfulness. Surely the times in which we live call us to greater thoughtfulness, and I ask you all most earnestly to make use of the opportunities provided throughout Holy Week, that we may prepare ourselves to enter into communion with our Risen Lord on Easter morning. There will be three celebrations on Easter Day—seven o'clock, a quarter past eight, and at the eleven o'clock service.

I do hope each one is doing his or her utmost for the extension of Christ's Kingdom by Lenten gifts to the Australian Board of Missions and the Church Missionary Society, especially in view of the great need of increased support from Australia, to which prominence has been given through announcements in Church and in the February "Chronicle." Please return your box or envelope on Easter Day, together with your Easter offerings. If you expect to be absent from the parish for Easter, perhaps you could hand in your box before going away, or send it by some friend?

I am hoping that Mr. D. A. Ridley, of Moore College, will be ordained on Sunday, March 3rd, and will come here as my colleague after his Ordination. I am sure you will make him feel that in doing so he is coming amongst friends who will help him in his work in every possible way, but especially by their prayers.

Notwithstanding the anxieties of these days, we can still wish you all a holy, happy Easter, for Christ's Kingdom is the one reality, that is deeper than all the deep discord and evil of our time.

Very sincerely yours,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Music on Palm Sunday and Good Friday.—The occasional cantata Olivet to Calvary (Maunder) will be sung by the Choir on Palm Sunday at Evensong, when the special soloists will be Mr. Paul Kain (Tenor) and Mr. Don McMichael (Baritone).

On Good Friday evening at 8 p.m. The Crucifixion (Stainer) will be sung by an augmented choir, and the soloists will be Mr. Raymond Beatty (Bass) and Mr. Lance Jeffree (Tenor).

The solemn and beautiful music of these two well known meditations upon the sacred incidents of our Lord's life leading to the Sacrifice on Calvary, should not only attract many, but will carry into the hearts and minds of all the eternal appeal and arresting challenge of the events of the First Good Friday.

Congregational Hymn Practice.—The usual Congregational Hymn Practice will be held at 6.45 p.m. on Sunday, 10th March, when the following hymns for Evensong will be practised: 596, "When I Survey the Wondrous Cross" (Rockingham); 136, "Sing My Tongue the Glorious Battle" (Pange Lingua); 141, "O Sacred Head Sore Wounded" (Passion Chorale).

Women's Guild.—The main activities for the month were the meetings held on February 7 and February 22, both of which were very well attended. The former was a business meeting, and amongst other things it was decided that each member trade with 2/-, and the profits made to be paid in at the Annual Meeting, which is to be held on March 28. At the latter meeting, Mrs. E. Cranswick gave a Travel Talk, which was very much appreciated by the large number present. There were many new faces in the audience, and it is hoped the meeting will result in an addition to the membership of the Guild. It is sincerely hoped that all women of the parish will seriously consider joining up with this branch of their Church's activities, and so make our little bit of this troubled world a better and happier place to live in.

Dates to be noted in the coming month are March 14, Quarterly Rally; and March 28, Annual Meeting.

—C. Reilly, Hon. Secretary.

Girls' Club.—The annual meeting of the Club was held on Monday, February 19. The President, Mrs. J. Thomas, was in the chair, and amongst those present we were glad to welcome Miss Chippindall, a former president for many years, but who, owing to ill-health, was forced to relinquish that position. The meeting was a very happy one, and all the office-bearers were re-elected. The Treasurer's statement showed that the Club had accounted for £17 as its quota towards the Parish Hall Fund. Mrs. E. C. King, Vice-President of the Club, kindly entertained the members at supper. The meetings for the month are:—March 4, Suggestions Night; March 18, Holy Week—Service in the Chapel.

—E. Howard, Hon. Secretary.

All Saints' Sunday School.—The Annual Picnic was successfully held at Watson's Bay on February 3rd, when we were favoured with ideal weather, and under pleasant conditions the day was happily spent in swimming, various games, the Sports Programme and, of course, the "eats," so that everyone had a most enjoyable time.

The picnic was also successful financially, and our Treasurer was happy to report that the picnic had balanced its budget. This result was made possible firstly, by the splendid efforts of scholars and staff with collecting cards—about £9 being raised; secondly, by the donations of our good friends, whose continued support is greatly appreciated; and thirdly, by the collecting of Green Coupons—£2 was raised by this means. To all who helped in any way to make the picnic such a success, we say a very sincere "thank you."

The scholars were offered two prizes for the highest amounts collected on their cards. These were won by Charles Richards, 1st, and Lewis Charlton, 2nd.

The departure of Rev. A. E. Gardner left the position of Superintendent vacant, and during the month the Rector appointed Mr. G. A. Guilfoyle to the position; we are very happy to welcome Mr. Guilfoyle as our Superintendent.

Preparations are in hand for an entertainment to be held on Tuesday, April 30th. The proceeds will be divided between school funds and the Kindergarten Hall Building Fund; further details will be given in next month's "Chronicle"; in the meantime, we hope all parishioners will make a note of the date, and support this effort.

—R. F. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.

Parish Hall Fund.—At the last Parish Council Meeting it was unanimously decided to again use boxes in lieu of a fete for our Parish Hall Fund. These will be issued on March 24—Easter Day—but if any parishioner would like to make what is called in sporting circles "a flying start," you may obtain a box before the date of issue. Between that date and August 18 (our Consecration Festival) there is a period of 21 weeks, and if you and your friends will put something in the box each week, the churchwardens will attain their objective, which is £200.

The plan is, that the proceeds of anything you make and sell amongst your friends, or of any effort you arrange for this fund, or any donations your friends may give you, shall be placed in the box and returned on Sunday, August 18. We would like to issue two hundred boxes—WILL YOU TAKE ONE?

Annual Re-union of Confirmees.—His Grace The Archbishop is arranging Re-union Services at the Cathedral for those confirmed between the years 1934 and 1938 on Monday evening, March 18, and for those confirmed last year, on Tuesday evening, March 19. The Rector hopes that all the confirmees concerned will endeavour to attend the particular service arranged for them.

—All Saints', Petersham, has contributed its quota towards the erection of Church huts, and the Treasurer is able to send a cheque for £10/4/- to this fund. We are grateful for the ready response. If there be any who still wish to help, please place your donation in an envelope endorsed "C.E.N.E.F.," and hand it to the Rector or Churchwardens. Meetings in connection with this movement are held in the Guild Room at 8 p.m. on the 1st and 3rd Thursdays of the month, the dates in March being 7 and 21. The Secretary would be pleased to hear of new members, especially to help in knitting and sewing. The C.E.N.E.F. button, which is a badge of membership, costs 1/- and may be obtained from the Treasurer, Miss Carolus, or any of the members.

—E. M. Belfield, Hon. Secretary.

District Visitors.—Miss Ockwell willingly undertook the district formerly visited by Miss Craig for the month of February. Mrs. Jago has kindly volunteered for this work, and commences visiting this month.

The Y.C.I.—There was a very large attendance for the 20th annual meeting of the Y.C.I. held in the club room on Friday, February 15. The chair was occupied by the President, the Rev. C. E. Adams, and greetings were received from members absent in the country.

Mr. L. C. Calver, in presenting the 20th annual report, dealt with the many phases of the Y.C.I.'s activities during 1939, and won the congratulations of members by the precision and thoroughness of his work.

Mr. M. A. Buckley disclosed in his financial statement that the Y.C.I. had come through the year satisfactorily, and was carrying a small credit balance in to 1940.

Mr. A. D. Sumner reported that the Library had added a number of new books during the year, and was holding a slight credit balance.

The elections of officers and Special Committees for the ensuing year resulted as follows:—

President, Rev. C. E. Adams. Vice-Presidents: E. C. King, R. L. Calver, J. Alt, S. L. Rankin, T. H. Bosward, J. M. Boyle, H. F. Jones, J. Gray, H. F. Brodie, R. F. C. Atkinson, E. F. Kinnings, F. Kinnings, W. Belfield. Press and Literature Superintendent, D. B. Hunter. Librarian, A. D. Sumner. Treasurer, M. A. Buckley. Visiting Representatives: R. Ashwood, O. G. Horton. Hon. Secretary, L. C. Calver. Hon. Assistant Secretary, A. C. Hunter. Library Committee: W. Sopwith, R. McCarty, M. Sumner. Social Committee: A. Dixon, A. C. Hunter, R. N. Hunter, L. Webb and D. B. Hunter.

—D. B. Hunter, P. and L.S.

Roper River Disaster.—The recent severe floods and cyclone in North Australia have destroyed the Roper River Mission Station. Miraculously the lives of all the staff and native population were saved. The launch "Holly" is a total wreck and beyond salvage, the members of the staff and crew clinging all night to a partly submerged tree, when the boat was swept to destruction from her moorings.

The Church Missionary Society has decided that the work must go on, and plans are in hand for re-building the Mission—in that approximate area, but on a new site. The total cost of rebuilding is estimated at £5,500, including the replacing of the boat.

Gifts for this purpose may be handed in to the Church officers, or sent direct to the Church Missionary Society, 109a Bathurst St., Sydney.

[Portion of the retiring Offertory received on Sunday, January 27, was devoted to Roper River, but there may be some who had not the opportunity of giving then, who would wish to help rebuild the Roper River Mission.—Editor]

The Choir.—At the Annual Meeting of the Choir it was decided to arrange a Choir Social for Tuesday, April 9th. Further details will be given later, but meanwhile please keep the date free.

—D. Ritchie, Secretary.

Good Friday—Procession of Witness.—"Is it nothing to you, all ye that pass by."

Procession of Witness from Sydney Domain to St. Andrew's Cathedral, 4.20 p.m. (Assemble in Domain at 4 p.m.) Parishes to be grouped in Rural Deaneries. (This Parish is in the Rural Deanery of Petersham.) Choirs and Clergy to robe at the Domain.

Special organisations are invited to assemble in groups and march together (Mothers' Union, G.F.S., Scouts, C.E.B.S., C.E.M.S., Missionary Societies and Fellowships, etc.). Banners to be carried, regalia to be worn.

It is hoped that All Saints' will again be well represented.

L.H.M.U.—The Annual Meeting of All Saints' Branch of L.H.M.U. will be held on Tuesday, March 12th, at 3 p.m. in the Guild Room.

Paying of subscription (2/6) and gift of new garment. All members are asked to make a special effort to attend.

—D. P. Brown, Hon. Secretary.

Quarterly Offertory.—Sunday, March 10 (5th Sunday in Lent), is the day for our next quarterly offering. The Wardens ask that all parishioners will help by increased offerings on that occasion. March 31 concludes the Church financial year, and any outstanding moneys from clubs or from individual parishioners should be paid, if possible, before that date.

C.E.B.S. Seniors.—Membership open to boys between the ages of 14 and 21. Meetings held every Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Parish Hall.

The members wish to express their appreciation of the excellent work Mrs. Fettell has done for the club in arranging Card Evenings at her home, the proceeds of which she has kindly donated to us for our gymnasium work.

The members spent the Anniversary week-end camping at Otford, and are keenly looking forward to the next camp.

—N. Higgins, Secretary.

Condolence.—We offer to Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Boyle, and extend through them to the parents of George John Boyle, our deepest sympathy in their recent bereavement. Mr. G. J. Boyle, who was connected for many years with Hazelbrook Church, died as a result of a motor accident on January 27.

We also deeply sympathise with Mr. and Mrs. Gill (and family) in the passing of their elder son, Terence William, on February 12. Terry was well-known and respected in this parish and district, and his readiness to help in many practical ways will ever be remembered.
