

A.B.M. HOLDS CAMP FOR CHILDREN SUCCESSFUL WEEK AT MORPETH

FROM A CORRESPONDENT

"Just take any suitcase and head for the verandah!" These were the oft-repeated words as campers and leaders invaded the Morpeth Conference Centre in pouring rain on Friday, May 14, for the annual A.B.M. Children's Camp.

The next six days proved to be very hectic but very rewarding for the 108 children and 27 leaders who attended, representing 12 dioceses from Sydney, Newcastle, Armidale, Grafton, and Canberra and Goulburn. Fine sunny days meant that many discussions and activities could be held out of doors.

The "Dioecse of Kuching" was the theme for the mission sessions, more than two hours, instead of the programmed one and a half hours.

Visitors to the camp included the Bishop of New South Wales, the Right Reverend James Housden and Mr Housden; the Right Reverend Harold Rogers, State Secretary of the A.B.M. and the Right Reverend Ayscough, Rector of St. James, Morpeth, and Mrs Ayscough.

All items were of a high standard and the audience was kept enthralled in the evening. More than 200 people, instead of the programmed one and a half hours.

Visitors to the camp included the Bishop of New South Wales, the Right Reverend James Housden and Mr Housden; the Right Reverend Harold Rogers, State Secretary of the A.B.M. and the Right Reverend Ayscough, Rector of St. James, Morpeth, and Mrs Ayscough.

Mr Chin is the son of a priest and became a firm friend of all campers, but especially of the young boys in "Kuching House", of which he was leader.

Mr Jim Sney and Mr Ken Adams, two A.B.M. staff members, and Mr Chin conducted the mission sessions, giving the children an insight into the work of the Church in Borneo and their part in extending this work.

It was to be associated with the wonderful experience of the Sisters of the Community, who very graciously acted as leaders and participated in all aspects of camp.

The two Sisters are from St. Andrew's School and have patiently they answered the many and varied questions asked of them by their callers.

Mr Chin Sister conducted a service for the children on "Vocation" and gave the campers much to think about. Many of them began to grasp the true meaning of the Church's mission.

The Reverend David Bowden, from St. Andrew's School, camp chaplain and presented a very interesting and thought-provoking discussion, the theme of which was "Relationships".

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

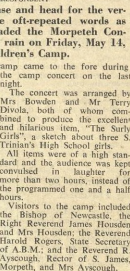

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

Mr Bowden also participated fully in camp life and has very charming and attractive wife, Mrs Bowden, who was with him.

THREE MISSIONARY BISHOPS TO VISIT WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Three missionary bishops will be visiting Western Australia in June. They are the Bishop of Polynesia, the Right Reverend John Vockler; the Bishop of Kuching, the Right Reverend Nicholas Allenby; and the Bishop of Mauritius, the Right Reverend Alan Bright.

The highlight of their visit to Perth will be a rally to be held at the Churches of Christ's Christian Centre, Beaufort Street, at 8 p.m., on Wednesday, June 9.

This meeting, to be chaired by Bishop Brian Macdonald, cathedral bishop of Perth, will feature a "cross-examination" of the missionary bishops by Mr Kim Beasley, M.B.E., Fremantle.

Other engagements include a men's luncheon in Boon's restaurant on June 16, an international youth conference at the Burt Hall on June 10, a diocesan women's service at St. George's Cathedral on June 11, and a seminar for all adult people in the Burt Hall the same evening.

Bishop Allenby will visit Georgetown on June 12 and 14. Bishop Vockler will visit Bunceville (June 12), Broome and Bunbury (June 13), Narrogin and Manjimup (June 14), and Kalgoorlie (June 17), before leaving for Adelaide.

Bishop Vockler is very well known in this country, having served in the Diocese of New South Wales, the Diocese of Singleton and as lecturer at St. John's College, Morpeth, before 1959.

Bishop Bright is less well known here. He is an Englishman who first went to the Diocese of Mauritius in 1951, and he served in several parishes and was also headmaster of the diocesan boys' school.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

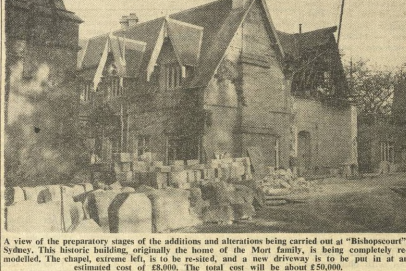

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

THREE MISSIONARY BISHOPS TO VISIT WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Three missionary bishops will be visiting Western Australia in June. They are the Bishop of Polynesia, the Right Reverend John Vockler; the Bishop of Kuching, the Right Reverend Nicholas Allenby; and the Bishop of Mauritius, the Right Reverend Alan Bright.

The highlight of their visit to Perth will be a rally to be held at the Churches of Christ's Christian Centre, Beaufort Street, at 8 p.m., on Wednesday, June 9.

This meeting, to be chaired by Bishop Brian Macdonald, cathedral bishop of Perth, will feature a "cross-examination" of the missionary bishops by Mr Kim Beasley, M.B.E., Fremantle.

Other engagements include a men's luncheon in Boon's restaurant on June 16, an international youth conference at the Burt Hall on June 10, a diocesan women's service at St. George's Cathedral on June 11, and a seminar for all adult people in the Burt Hall the same evening.

Bishop Allenby will visit Georgetown on June 12 and 14. Bishop Vockler will visit Bunceville (June 12), Broome and Bunbury (June 13), Narrogin and Manjimup (June 14), and Kalgoorlie (June 17), before leaving for Adelaide.

Bishop Vockler is very well known in this country, having served in the Diocese of New South Wales, the Diocese of Singleton and as lecturer at St. John's College, Morpeth, before 1959.

Bishop Bright is less well known here. He is an Englishman who first went to the Diocese of Mauritius in 1951, and he served in several parishes and was also headmaster of the diocesan boys' school.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

THREE MISSIONARY BISHOPS TO VISIT WESTERN AUSTRALIA

Three missionary bishops will be visiting Western Australia in June. They are the Bishop of Polynesia, the Right Reverend John Vockler; the Bishop of Kuching, the Right Reverend Nicholas Allenby; and the Bishop of Mauritius, the Right Reverend Alan Bright.

The highlight of their visit to Perth will be a rally to be held at the Churches of Christ's Christian Centre, Beaufort Street, at 8 p.m., on Wednesday, June 9.

This meeting, to be chaired by Bishop Brian Macdonald, cathedral bishop of Perth, will feature a "cross-examination" of the missionary bishops by Mr Kim Beasley, M.B.E., Fremantle.

Other engagements include a men's luncheon in Boon's restaurant on June 16, an international youth conference at the Burt Hall on June 10, a diocesan women's service at St. George's Cathedral on June 11, and a seminar for all adult people in the Burt Hall the same evening.

Bishop Allenby will visit Georgetown on June 12 and 14. Bishop Vockler will visit Bunceville (June 12), Broome and Bunbury (June 13), Narrogin and Manjimup (June 14), and Kalgoorlie (June 17), before leaving for Adelaide.

Bishop Vockler is very well known in this country, having served in the Diocese of New South Wales, the Diocese of Singleton and as lecturer at St. John's College, Morpeth, before 1959.

Bishop Bright is less well known here. He is an Englishman who first went to the Diocese of Mauritius in 1951, and he served in several parishes and was also headmaster of the diocesan boys' school.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

On returning to London, in 1959, he maintained the Diocese of Mauritius and was chosen to be the bishop of the Diocese of Mauritius in 1959.

PRIMATE'S VISIT TO BATHURST

The Archbishop of Sydney, the Most Reverend B. R. Gough, will visit the Diocese of Bathurst from June 3 to 10.

This itinerary will include the far west of the State where he will visit congregations at Brearley, Bourke and Cobargo which are staffed by clergy of the Brotherhood and the Good Shepherd.

At Bourke he will attend a brotherhood luncheon on Saturday, June 5, and will preside at a parish Eucharist on Sunday, June 6.

The archbishop will also visit Dubbo and Nyngan where he will be shown over a copper mine, and will complete his tour to the Bathurst diocese by attending a jubilee dinner of the Church of England Men's Society at Orange on Monday, June 7.

FIRST DEAN OF WANGARRATTA INSTALLED

FROM OUR OWN CORRESPONDENT

Wangarratta, May 31
The Very Reverend R. G. Beal was inducted as rector and installed as the first dean of Holy Trinity Cathedral, Wangarratta, on May 19.

The dean, from the Diocese of Bathurst, follows the long and distinguished ministry of the Very Rev. H. Decker, who was rector for thirty years.

A large gathering of clergy and laity from the diocese was present as well as members of the community.

The bishop welcomed the dean on behalf of the diocese: the churchwardens on behalf of the parish; and the Dean of Melbourne, the Very Reverend T. W. Thomas, on behalf of the Province of Victoria.

Other speakers were the Mayor of Wangarratta, Mr Goldsmith for the Minister of Education, Mr and Mrs Richards for the women's organisations of the diocese.

Dean Beal, in responding, spoke of the great work done by his predecessor, Archdeacon Decker.

The secretary is the Reverend A. J. Decker, who is based at Ulverston, Tasmania, from whom further information may be obtained.

SIXTY YEARS ORNAINED

The Reverend A. M. Levick, now honorary assistant minister at St. Mary's, South Camberwell, Diocese of Melbourne, will celebrate the sixtieth anniversary of his ordination to the diaconate on Trinity Sunday, June 13, 1905.

He was made deacon in Bishopscourt Chapel, Bathurst, by the Right Reverend C. E. Camidge, on Trinity Sunday, June 13, 1905.

Mr Levick will be 83 years of age on June 16. He now lives at 8 Cudini Street, Glen Iris, Victoria.

He graduated from the University of Sydney Bachelor of Arts in 1904, obtained his M.A. degree in 1914, and Th.L. with honours in 1915.

Mr Levick served in the Diocese of Bathurst at Mudgee, Manabala, the Cathedral and Grenfell; and in the Diocese of Sydney at Darling Point and Hurstville.

He was State secretary for A.B.M. in Victoria from 1916 to 1918, after which he was vicar of Good Vale, Mt. Sney, Dandenong, and North Fitzroy (1918 to 1943).

He was chaplain to St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

He was vicar of St. Vincent and Mr St. Elvin's hospital (1940 to 1943), the Royal Melbourne Hospital (1943 to 1950) and the Alfred Hospital (1950 to 1952).

Mr Simon Chin, from Borneo, is seen here explaining some Dyak customs to members of the A.B.M. Children's Camp, held at Morpeth from May 14 to 20. Left to right: Miss Ruth Sney of Carel, Sister Edith Rachael of St. Gabriel's School, Timothy May of North, and the Reverend Keith Brown, A.B.M. Youth Secretary.

Newsphoto "Herald" Book

THE INTELLECTUAL DEBATE

This is applicable to-day where due to the process of secularisation Christian concepts are on the one hand meaningless to the secular and as they are out of social context empty of content to the Christian.

EXCITING

Beeson (English editor of "Parish and People") writes a fascinating report of the important English conference on "The Baptismal Life", the very radical findings of which made such a deep impression upon Press and Church in England. There is a very successful attempt to define the modern term "Baptisma". This movement is concerned with more than Baptism. The

-108

AUSTRALIAN J

He has also contributed the

Having increased our understanding of this situation, the speakers then show the relevance to it of Our Lord's words. In so doing, they reveal a profound

—A. V. M.

JOURNAL
n. Annual subscription 7s. 6d.

In short, this journal is a worthy and inspiring contribution to our Australian Church life. It is a matter of sincere gratitude to this growing group of people (mostly parish priests) which has given us such an amount of good reading, clear thinking and challenging ideas in such a well-produced paper.

—A.P.L.

Having increased our understanding of this situation, the speakers then show the relevance to it of Our Lord's words. In so doing, they reveal a profound

MALCOLM C. DAVIS
(Managing Director)

3RD. FLOOR

CKEY & NUNN LTD., MELBOURNE. Phone 3-2024

SECRET & NOFORN EYES ONLY

NEW STEPS TO UNITY

EDINBURGH
RESOLUTION

ANGLICAN NEWS SERVICE

Edinburgh, June 30 (AP)—The Church of Scotland is to seek new advances on a path front towards the other churches, it was agreed by the general assembly here on May 24.

It was decided in spite of an unsuccessful plan for "negotiations immediately after the end of extended 'conversations'."

Attention was given to a post-1968 full-scale conference of the Anglican and Presbyterian churches here next January was defeated.

The conference, which received the endorsement of the assembly, will be the first of its kind since the resumption of ecumenical work at Durham in 1962.

Reports from four regional study groups which have been working since then are to be presented to a synod. It was expressed that these reports would mark the "opening of a new chapter which will call of hope," in the words of the Bishop of Bristol.

Reverend Oliver Tomkins, in his address to the assembly, said soon after the bishop's remarks had been warmly applauded, however, had been under fire from the Reverend John Welsh of Fife who

"The Church of England is a feeble thing without the intellectual and moral energy to reform itself and get rid of the established church or to go to the roots of many of its priests desire to Rome."

The cause of unity, he said was diverting the energies of churchmen from more important matters, but that mattered was not what mountain he was trying to go to, but what he was doing the work of God.

But he received no backing for his proposal that the assembly should not pursue further talks on unity.

ADVANCES

The convenor of the special conference on Anglican-Presbyterian relations, Dr. J. W. C. Donald, Edinburgh conference next January and indicated that measure of progress might be expected on the mutual recognition of the respective ministries.

A member of one of the regional groups, Dr. C. L. Edinburgh, wanted group discussions to continue but not a full conference.

This, however, was also heavily defeated. Dr. Neville Davidson said that the regional groups might go on discussing issues without reaching complete agreement.

He also offered Mr. J. D. Michael wanted negotiations immediately, but that the regional groups as a whole "do not care to participate for these conversations which will interest only a few of the clergy."

The assembly noted with approval that a group was to be begun discussions on a Scottish basis between the churches of Scotland and the Episcopal Church in Scotland, and welcomed the continuation of conversations with the Congregational Church in Scotland, and welcomed discussions leading to action as a consequence of the Edinburgh conference on faith and order.

LITTLE ROCK CALL

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

New York, May 31 (AP)—The Episcopate of Little Rock, Arkansas, U.S.A., has adopted a resolution calling for the removal of all priests and congregations to make their type of gathering initiated at Little Rock in 1961, continued regularly.

JOINT GROUP MEETS

W.C.C. - ROMAN CATHOLIC

ANGLICAN NEWS SERVICE

The joint working group of the World Council of Churches and the Roman Catholic Church ended a three-day meeting here on May 24.

The meeting was an announcement, the basis was laid for work to be done at future meetings.

Dr. W. A. Visser's floor, and the three-day meeting was held for the purpose of Christian Unity, which was led by Dr. W. A. Visser, and was led by Dr. W. A. Visser.

The main task for the inaugural meeting was to clarify the group's mandate, which is to examine the present relations between the World Council and the Roman Catholic Church and to explore possibilities for greater mutual understanding and cooperation.

The council's announcement pointed out that the group had no authority in itself, but would report to the bodies to which it was attached. The council's announcement added:

"The meeting proceeded in a spirit of Christian understanding and it became clear that there was a common interest which would be to study in future meetings."

CLARIFICATION

"It was felt particularly that the work of the group should concentrate on the clarification of the moral energy to reform itself and get rid of the established church or to go to the roots of many of its priests desire to Rome."

The initial meeting had also been a preliminary meeting, which would provide of considerable use to the group. The meeting was taken note of ecumenical conversations going on in various parts of the world, and the group was asked to continue on future developments.

The group was also asked to continue on future developments. The group was also asked to continue on future developments.

NON-MEMBERS MEET AT W.C.C.

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

Geneva, May 31 (AP)—Fifty members of constituent churches of the World Council of Churches and members of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary met at the W.C.C. meet in a conference at the Ecumenical Institute of Geneva on May 30.

The theme of their discussion was "The understanding of the Church in church groups inside and outside the World Council of Churches."

The lectures were given by Dr. Dale Moody, president of the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary, Louisville, and by the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the W.C.C., led daily Bible studies with the participants attention on the role of the church and its responsibility in the world.

The group also examined such questions as the relationship between the W.C.C. and the Roman Catholic Church, the political pronouncements of the W.C.C., and the relationship between the W.C.C. and the Southern Baptist Theological Seminary.

MINORITY GROUPS

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

New York, May 31 (AP)—The program jointly sponsored by the American Council of Churches and the Roman Catholic Church for the study of minority and ethnic groups in the State will have a new focus this year.

U.S. POLICY ON VIET NAM

CRITICISM BY ACADEMICS

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

New York, May 31 (AP)—More than 300 American educators and theologians, Protestant, Roman Catholic, and Unitarian, met in Washington to a statement sharply criticizing the U.S. policy in Vietnam to negotiate peace.

The statement, titled "A reply to Secretary of State Dean Rusk on Viet Nam," the statement, printed in the New York Times, took issue with an April 23 statement of the U.S. State Department.

The statement, titled "A reply to Secretary of State Dean Rusk on Viet Nam," the statement, printed in the New York Times, took issue with an April 23 statement of the U.S. State Department.

"This abusive language," the statement said, "is a clear indication that the Administration wants to silence the voices of those who are opposed to its policy in Vietnam."

"It is easy to see why the Secretary of State is angry. The statement is a clear indication that the Administration wants to silence the voices of those who are opposed to its policy in Vietnam."

"PLAIN FACTS"

The "plain facts" of the situation, the statement said included the fact that (1) the 1954 Geneva Accords were never accepted by the United States, and (2) that despite American government statements that it was not seeking a solution for South Viet Nam, "the scale of American military intervention is in complete with the goal of self determination."

"If American actions in Viet Nam are defensible American action attempts to defend them should square with the 'plain facts' the statement declared."

"Self-determination of American intervention can do greater perils than discriminating against minorities."

"The situation in Viet Nam raises serious moral questions," the statement said. "It is a situation as a nation we have immense power to do good, but we have chosen to do evil."

The signatories to the statement included the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the World Council of Churches.

It was sponsored by an organization of the American Council of Churches, the American Council of Churches, the American Council of Churches.

NEW ZEALAND VIET NAM PROPOSAL

TALKS

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

Wellington, May 31 (AP)—Leaders of major churches in New Zealand have proposed that the East Asia Conference, a series of "round off" in seeking to arrange a conference of prominent leaders of North and South Vietnam to negotiate a cease-fire.

A delegation from member churches of the Anglican Church of New Zealand, Archbishop McKeefey, informed Prime Minister Keith J. Holyoake of the proposal.

A heated debate was held under way in New Zealand concerning proposals before Parliament to send combat troops to Viet Nam.

The delegation, which was led by Mr. Norman Perry, a lay member of the Anglican Church, told the Prime Minister it was hoped would not be necessary to send in the nation's troops and offer to receive them.

"To send in the nation's troops and offer to receive them is a good idea in making an appeal to the conscience of the Christians in both North and South Viet Nam to leaders of the confederation of the world."

TO CEYLON

The New Zealand Council of Churches is a member agency of the Federal Council of Churches, Roman Catholic Church is not a member, a spokesman said.

The Bishop of Ceylon, the Bishop of Australia, the Bishop of Adelaide and Bishop of E. H. Burgess.

The Bishop of Ceylon, the Bishop of Australia, the Bishop of Adelaide and Bishop of E. H. Burgess.

OPPORTUNITY IN KOREA

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

St. Louis, May 31 (AP)—A U.S. missionary reported here in the U.S. that there is a "great opportunity" for Christian evangelism in South Korea.

"The situation in Viet Nam raises serious moral questions," the statement said. "It is a situation as a nation we have immense power to do good, but we have chosen to do evil."

The signatories to the statement included the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the World Council of Churches, the Rev. Dr. W. A. Visser, general secretary of the World Council of Churches.

It was sponsored by an organization of the American Council of Churches, the American Council of Churches, the American Council of Churches.

LITERACY SEMINAR

ECUMENICAL PRESS SERVICE

New York, May 31 (AP)—Jerusalem will host the local for the First International Seminar on Literacy and Literacy, New York, May 31 to June 1.

The seminar is sponsored by the Committee on World Literacy and Christian Literature, a joint project of the U.S.A., and locally arranged by the Council of Churches in the Near East Council of Churches.

Attendance of 25 experienced literacy administrators and specialists from all over the world is expected.

OUR BEST BOOK "BUYS"

THE ANGLICAN BOOK DEPARTMENT, in cooperation with the Church of England Information Trust, has pleasure in offering the following titles.

All works published by the Trust are available to MEMBERS at their special discount of 15 per cent. Prices to non-members are as shown below.

Publications by the THE NEW ENGLISH FELLOWSHIP

Already established as a book club, the new English Fellowship is a steady demand.

Price 99¢ (Postage 1/14d.)

A LATMAN LOOKS AT THE CHURCH, by Sir Kenneth Finch.

Limited stocks are again available at this invaluable price 100. Price: 7/6d. (Postage 10d.)

OUTLINES FOR YOUNG ANGLICANS, by S. Minton Taylor.

This second edition, printed only a few months after its work first appeared, testifies to its value.

Price 84. Price: 3/6d. (Postage 5d.)

THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND — A FELLOWSHIP, by Canon H. G. Liddell.

First published in Australia in 1954, this book is a valuable guide to the life of Anglican faith and practice has now run through four editions.

Price 61. Price: 3/6d. (Postage 5d.)

THE ANGLICAN WAY — being a series of four addresses given by the Rev. Canon H. G. Liddell, at the Jubilee celebrations of St. John's Theological College, Morphet, Brisbane, 1954.

Price 21. Price: 2/6d. (Postage 5d.)

MARRIAGE & DIVORCE, by Canon H. P. Reynolds.

This book, first published in 1939, has been revised and reissued, clearly the teaching of the Church on marriage and divorce.

Price 21. Price: 1/6d. (Postage 5d.)

From Books from other publishers available from our stocks include:—

A BOOK OF OCCASIONAL SERVICES, published under the authority of the General Synod of the Church of England. Most Reverend H. R. Gough, Primate of Australia.

Price 100. Price: 7/6d. (Postage 10d.)

WHITE AUSTRALIA — TIME FOR A CHANGE, by the N.S.W. Association for Immigration.

Price 24. Price: 2/6d. (Postage 5d.)

SHORT HISTORY OF THE CHURCH OF ENGLAND IN AUSTRALIA, by the Rev. Canon H. G. Liddell.

Price 24. Price: 2/6d. (Postage 5d.)

MUTUAL RESPONSIBILITY: QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. This book asks ten questions about the plan for MUTUAL RESPONSIBILITY, and answers them.

Price 96. Price: 7/9d. (Postage 10d.)

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

THE TRUST TO OTHERS

