THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,

27th October, 1952.

Dear People of All Saints',

The beauty and simplicity of the Church's "Order of Confirmation" are always impressive, and this year they were no less so, when, on Sunday, October 26th, Bishop Pilcher laid his hands upon forty-two candidates—21 boys and 21 girls. The Bishop was particularly pleased with the service, and in praising the choir-master, soloist, and the choir for their devotional rendering of it, made special reference to the atmosphere created by the singing of Foster's appropriate anthem, "O for a Closer Walk with God." Dr. T. E. Page's beautiful Confirmation hymn, "Soldier, Go! Thy Vow is Spoken" (for which the music was written by Bishop Pilcher), was again sung. It certainly was a beautiful service to which the candidates themselves made their contribution by their attentive and reverent bearing. We thank the Bishop for his addresses, the text chosen this year being our Lord's words in Acts 1: 8, "Ye shall receive power . . . and ye shall be witnesses unto Me."

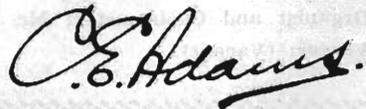

We commend these young people to you, hoping that you will remember them in your prayers and that, where possible, you will get to know them and help them in every way you can to be true to the promises and vows they made in their Confirmation. They go out into an indifferent and even hostile world, and they will need every help and encouragement their elders can give them. This Christian way of life to which we are all called is no easy thing—it is a constant struggle and a challenge to the best that is in us. The glory of the Christian Faith is that it not only sets before us the highest ideals, but also offers us the power to attain to them.

November promises to be a very busy month. We have the Children's Festival in the morning of the 9th, and the Evening Service will commemorate Remembrance Day. November 16th is the Masonic Service, and the 23rd, the Y.C.I. Commemoration.

As we approach November 1st, All Saints' Day brings the fond memory of at least one person who has commended himself or herself to one's knowledge and remembrance as being in reality a true saint of God. Doubtless, most of us have known more than one such person; some of us, perhaps more privileged than others, have known many, whom, in spite of all weaknesses, in spite of all failings, we should call true Christian Saints. They grew to be Saints because they did not wander aimlessly through life, but with unswerving and consistent purpose, they chose the one and only highway of obedience to God—the way of sacrifice and self-surrender.

It is a world-wide custom to observe the Eve of St. Andrew's Day as a day of continuous prayer for the missionary work of the Church. As Saint Andrew's Day falls on a Sunday this year, the Feast is transferred to Tuesday, December 2. I suggest, therefore, that we keep that day as our day of Intercession, commencing with a Celebration of Holy Communion at 7.30 a.m. and concluding with Evening Prayer at 5 o'clock. A roster will be prepared for you to place your name against the particular period you may be available, so that the continuity of prayer may be maintained throughout the day.

Very sincerely yours,

HOLY COMMUNION AND THE RECENTLY CONFIRMED

The twelve weeks' preparation are over, the Confirmation Service has come and gone, and you are starting out on a new life. Remember, Confirmation is not an end, it is a beginning.

In our Preparation Classes great stress was laid upon the importance of REGULAR attendance at Holy Communion. You may come to Communion as frequently as you wish. Wherever you may be, you should be present on the Great Festivals of the Church's year (Christmas, Easter, Ascension, Whitsunday and Trinity), also on Saints' Days, if possible. The choosing of one particular Sunday in each month, and regarding it as "Your Day," is to help you to become a regular Communicant and to remind you never to allow your attendance at Holy Communion to become less frequent than once a month.

Holy Communion is, of course, THE fellowship act of the Christian community, bringing together the individual members as one family, week by week. The other services, too, in a rather different way, aim at bringing us together in prayer and worship, reading and listening and thinking and planning together for the strengthening of our own lives and of the life of the family as a whole. Any club or society which never met would be a poor sort of community, much more so the Church—for the Church sets out to be a great deal more than an ordinary human society. Of course, it does need discipline and sacrifice, but if we aren't willing to give these we ought to ask ourselves what our membership is really worth.

The text the Bishop gave you—Acts, chapter one, verse eight—"Ye shall receive power . . . and ye shall be witnesses unto Me," should be marked in the space provided on your Confirmation Card. The words will remind you that you cannot hope to bear your witness to Jesus Christ without the Grace and Power of God.

We welcome into full membership of the Church the following candidates, who were confirmed by the Right Reverend C. Venn Pilcher, on Sunday morning, October 26:—

C. J. Strauss, G. J. Locke, D. J. Dwyer, K. G. Locke, T. J. Morris, P. W. Strauss, R. J. Thomas, M. P. Smith, J. D. Turner, R. C. H. Burns, K. W. Carruthers, D. L. Single, P. A. Willis, B. G. Harrison, G. Potter, J. D. Davis, B. R. Levy, A. C. Peters, C. E. Trounce, E. J. Cory, J. A. Elworthy, V. P. Osborne, K. J. Thompson, E. A. Bonner, M. R. Calver, J. T. Hale, K. M. Jones, D. M. Sharp, M. A. Shears, V. M. Warrender, K. A. Speechley, H. Thew, C. A. Arnfield, D. J. Bell, J. A. Lindsay, J. M. Murphy, A. R. Keys, J. M. Turk, F. Whaley, H. I. Seaglove, F. I. Blanch and G. James.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Melanesian Mission.—We have but one month left in which to reach our objective of £100 towards re-building the Mission Station destroyed by hurricane at Wailoku, Fiji. As you probably know, these special annual appeals are a memorial to the memory of the Guild's late President, Ethel Vivian Adams, who, for five years prior to her death, was responsible for raising an additional £100 for the missionary work of the Church. You will notice we still have a long way to go. We acknowledge, with thanks, the following gifts received during October: Mrs. Binns, 10/-; Mrs. Craigie, 5/-; Misses Janssen, £1; Mrs. R. W. Holt and Miss Hobbs, £1; Mrs. S. Horton, 10/-; Mrs. L. C. Calver, 10/-; Miss Bayley, £1/1/-; Anonymous, £2/2/-; Anonymous, £5. Previously acknowledged, £15/4/-. Total to date, £27/2/-.

Our gifts will be offered at the Evening Service on Advent Sunday, November 30. Will you please send your gift to the Guild Secretary, or hand it to the Rector, but please DO IT NOW!—V.L.

Women's Guild.—Although the weather was not kind to us, we had a reasonably good attendance of members and friends at our "Bring and Buy" Afternoon, on October 23, which added £3/4/- to Guild funds. We are grateful to Mrs. Sayers, Mrs. Carroll and to Mrs. Clifton Smith for a very enjoyable musical programme; and to Guild members who provided and served afternoon tea. On Thursday, November 13, at 8 p.m., members are asked to attend a special meeting to make final arrangements for our Christmas Gift Sale, which will be held on Thursday evening, November 27, commencing at 8 p.m. This effort is in aid of our Parish Hall Quota Fund and our Melanesian Mission Fund. We ask the utmost support of ALL parishioners and friends at our Christmas Gift Sale. We need more Guild members; illness and continued indifferent health have caused a dwindling of attendances at ordinary meetings, and we would be happy to welcome more women of the parish to our Fellowship of Service. We are glad to know Mrs. Handel is home again and is improving after some weeks in hospital. Miss Brown is with us again, but is not yet able to serve with her former vigour. We are glad to know Miss Hayes is convalescent. With these usually active people absent from our comparatively small membership, it is difficult to carry on without the aid of reinforcements. We extend our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Yarrington, Mrs. Morris and Mrs. Robert Sharp in their recent bereavements.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Rectory Repair Fund.—Maintenance work in connection with our Parish buildings is a large item in our expenditure, and recently the Parish Council found it urgently necessary to have the Vestry roof renewed. It was a costly job and emphasises the necessity of meeting the debit for the Rectory repairs without drawing on our General Fund. The Rectory Repair Fund, which was launched with this objective in view, has met with a good response from parishioners, but as we have a good leeway to make up new contributors will be welcomed.—L.C.C.

Y.C.I.—On the 10th October we released the 164th issue of our "Manuscript Journal." The articles, many and varied, were of a very high standard and aroused many interesting discussions. At the second meeting in October, we had our "Ex-Servicemen's Night." This syllabus item has proved very popular. Y.C.I. members who served with the Forces in either of the Great Wars recounted some of their experiences and humour was not forgotten. Our next meeting (lecturesses) will be held on Friday, 7th November. Our Institute was founded at a meeting held on the 21st November, 1910. We commemorate this meeting by our gathering of members on the 21st of this month, which is styled "Commemoration Night," and on the following Sunday night by our Commemoration Service in the Parish Church. Men of the Parish are invited to come along to our meetings and other gatherings.—L.C.C.

B.F.B.S.—The Treasurer has received the following letter of thanks from the Rev. L. J. Harris, Assistant to the General Secretary of the N.S.W. Auxiliary of the British and Foreign Bible Society:—

"Thank you very much for the donation of £5/3/9 which you have sent on behalf of the All Saints' Church, Petersham.

We appreciate very much your co-operation in our Bible Society Sunday.

A general survey clearly shows that there is a desperate need for Scriptures in every part of the world today. The destruction of Bibles in war, the shortage of paper for some years and the enormous growth of literacy are the chief reasons for this present position. Political and other changes are taking place so rapidly that doors which are open today may be closed tomorrow. We are doing our utmost to enter these open doors whilst there is yet time."

Children's Festival.—In addition to the Family Service on the first Sunday morning in each month, we ask the interest and support of the parents in the CHILDREN'S FESTIVAL, on Sunday, November 9, at 11 a.m., when the Chaplain for Youth, the Rev. A. D. Deane, will be the visiting preacher. Mr. Deane comes to us just prior to leaving Sydney to attend the World Conference of Christian Youth, to be held in Travancore, India, in December. We want every member of our Sunday School present at this Service (which is the Children's part in the Festival of All Saints) and we hope also that many parents will show their interest in a practical way by their attendance on November 9.

The Sunday School Picnic to Watson's Bay is being arranged for Saturday, November 22. Further details of this will be given later through the Sunday School.

We regret that we shall soon lose the services of Miss M. Rex, and we thank her for her faithful service with the senior girls. We are sorry to know that Miss M. Hunt is also discontinuing. This means we need, urgently, two teachers. Are there any who may feel called to this most important work in the service of God and His children?

District Visitors.—Miss Farley is kindly continuing her work until the end of the year. The Rector is grateful for this, as he himself has been doing two districts for the past two months, and, in view of his many other duties, he simply could not tackle a third! Looking over a crowded church on Confirmation Sunday, one wonders why it is so difficult to secure a few extra helpers for this and other important pieces of service urgently needing to be done in the parish. If "service is the rent we pay for our room on this earth," someone must be living rent free, who shouldn't be!

Masonic Service.—A Masonic Service arranged by Lodge Victoria, No. 73, will be held in All Saints, on Sunday evening, November 16, at 7.15. The Venerable Archdeacon F. O. Hulme-Moir, Rector of St. Andrew's, Summer Hill, will be the occasional preacher and there will be special music by the N.S.W. Masonic Jubilee Choir.

Personal.—There has been much sadness in the Parish during the past month. We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends in their bereavements: Mr. and Mrs. M. A. Grey and Mr. and Mrs. K. Kennett (and their families) in the sudden passing of their mother, Elizabeth Kennett; Mrs. Yarrington and Mrs. Morris and Mrs. H. Yarrington, of Rylstone, and their relatives in the death of Albert James Yarrington, at Marrickville Hospital; Mrs. Robert Sharp, in the very sudden passing of Robert Ekin Sharp, in the train, as they were returning from a happy holiday; also to Mrs. S. Angus and her brothers and sister; Mr. and Miss Bryen, in the death of their aunt, Eliza Isabella Martin; Mrs. Churchill (and family) in the loss of her husband, Reginald Silas Churchill; and to the relatives of Margaret Cleary; to Mrs. D. King (and her family), whose brother, Samuel Maxwell Short, died as the result of a car accident. We extend our sympathy to Mr. K. Allworth and Mrs. N. Shaw, former All Saints' Parishioners, in the sudden passing of their mother; also to the Rector of St. James', Croydon, his family and his people, in the death of his wife on October 26. May they, and all who are sad, know the comfort and sustaining power of the God of all Consolation.

Thank You.—We are indebted to Mrs. J. Thomas for the beautiful flowers for our Confirmation Sunday, which were arranged most artistically by her and Mrs. Adams, and which were given in memory of Ron's grandparents, and his uncle, Ron Kinnings.

Thanks also to Mrs. Gibb, who is giving additional flowers for the All Saints' Festival, in memory of her husband and our former choir member, Ernest Gibb.

The Fellowship.—Members of the C.E.F. are arranging an evening to welcome the recently confirmed, on Tuesday, November 11, at 8 p.m. We should be glad if those confirmees who are able to accept this invitation will let the Secretary know on or before November 9.

Special Appeal.—The Churchwardens acknowledge, with thanks, receipt of an additional 4/- from Mrs. M. F. Pullen, making the total £209/5/7. Boxes 16, 74, 76, 78 and 79 are still outstanding. We would be grateful for their return: even if they contain nothing, the boxes will be useful for re-issue.
