Poster prepared by Peg Blake and Joan Tong of our activities to be exhibited. Heather had written two letters to the Premier - one asking that an enquiry be held into the problem of poker machines and their effect on the gullible public and the other congratulating him on his action in placing an embargo on the installation of poker machines in clubs and hotels for the next 12 months. Letter written to Mr. Face, Minister for Gambling objecting to the increasing number of poker machines being installed. Letter to Mrs. Chikarovski, Leader of the Opposition, thanking her for supporting the Premier's embargo.

Heather suggested that each member write a personal letter to the Premier - congratulating him on his embargo but complaining that the ban should be placed indefinitely.

She had also written to the Ink Group complaining re the obscene Christmas Cards they had produced last Christmas.

Heather has the current list of Members of Parliament.

The Girls' Brigade had celebrated its 60th Anniversary recently at the Whitlam Centre, Liverpool - a wonderful occasion.

Heather tabled various pamphlets and leaflets for members to peruse. (Listed at end of Minutes.)
