THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,

29th May, 1948.

Dear People of All Saints',

This part of the Christian year which commences with the long series of Sundays "after Trinity" deals not so much with Christian faith as with Christian life. The Bible, from beginning to end, insists that religion must find practical expression—"by their fruits ye shall know them." Those fruits are there for all the world to see in the shape of ordinary men and women facing life victoriously in the power of Christ. It is simply not true to say "Christianity makes no difference to one's life." Furthermore, have you ever thought how many of our modern humane and social provisions originally emerged, not from political action or humanitarian idealism, but from Christian faith expressed in Christian living?

Whatever goodness there is in the world, whatever improvement we have seen in outlook and practice, whatever reform, whatever progress has been made in social life and economic conditions, it can all be traced back to the influence and activity of certain individuals whose lives were channels of God's truth. In this connection, I commend to you two fairly recent biographies—(a) Florence Higham's "Life of Lord Shaftesbury," and (b) Janet Whitney's "Elizabeth Fry" (which is published cheaply in the "Guild Books" Series). In the former, we have the story of that great Victorian who changed for the better the lives of millions, and, as one reads of his unwearying, herculean efforts on behalf of the children, the sick in mind, the exploited workers, one is reminded of what tremendous issues hung just on one life! What radiance and power emanated from one heart filled with God's love! "If one man," writes Florence Higham, "not brilliant nor over confident, could do so much, what could the world accomplish if it set itself the same rule of living?"

Elizabeth Fry badgered Parliament and her influential friends for drastic reforms in the prisons and penal code. She had Newgate Prison cleaned and whitewashed; she started a strong campaign against capital punishment; she intrigued bishops and cabinet ministers and the Royal Family. Even when her husband's business collapsed and she had to live very humbly, she carried on this vast labour of love. She made journeys to France, Belgium, Holland, Germany and Denmark to start the work there, despite what she called "the roughs of the journey" ("roughs" indeed! for a woman of 60, one hundred years ago!). She spoke at meetings, agitated for reforms, collected funds, organised, pleaded, wrote thousands of letters, interviewed everybody of power and importance, and meantime ceaselessly visited the prisons herself and radiated her own marvellous personality in direct loving contact with those in prison.

Incidentally, as a very chastening thought to those of us "who would rather like to do something for Christ and His Church if only we were not so busy"; Elizabeth Fry managed her home, entertained largely, brought up eleven children, started libraries for coastguardsmen; initiated an institute and a pension scheme, plus registry office, for domestic servants; organised the first visiting nurses for poor people; and established the home for nurses from which Florence Nightingale subsequently drew her Crimean nurses; and was withal a gay and unruffled person.

There is, you know, a fair amount of mock humility about in these days. When the rector asks Miss Snooks to take a class in Sunday School, she replies: "Oh, Rector! I'd love to, really; but I couldn't; I just haven't got the brains!!" You know how mortally offended she would be, if the rector had said: "Oh, Miss Snooks, I was going to ask you to take a Sunday School class, but I remembered, just in time, that you haven't got the brains of a hen!" As a matter of fact, people who talk like Miss Snooks know perfectly well that they should be doing something; but they are not prepared to give up a portion of their Sundays, not even to help mould the characters of those our Lord had in mind when He said, "Feed My Lambs."

We welcome to All Saints' Mr. C. W. S. Taylor, who has accepted the office of Verger, commencing on May 24th. We ask that you will help him in his new and important work, in which we hope he will be happy. A little consideration for others, especially by those who use the Parish Hall, will obviate unnecessary work, and show that we do desire to co-operate.

A sketch block has been made (through the courtesy of Mr. A. E. Carruthers) to give some idea of the Stone of Remembrance we hope to erect as our Parish War Memorial, about which we shall communicate further with parishioners and all interested friends very shortly.

My sister and I very deeply appreciate the assurance of your prayers, your sympathy, and the evidence of your sincere friendship so generously expressed in many and varying ways by numerous enquirers in her serious illness.

Very sincerely yours,

E. B. Adams.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Women's Guild.—We commenced the month with a Boomerang afternoon on Saturday, 1st May, and this function was very successful. We would like to thank parishioners and friends who came along in spite of the weather. We would also like to thank Mrs. Hammond and her friends, Mrs. Rowlands, Mr. Atkinson and Professor Carl Budden Morris, also Miss K. Byrne, who gave an excellent musical programme. We hope to hear them again at a future date. Tuesday, May 11th, was a business evening, when our 2/- Trading was commenced. Any other members who would like to take part in this, please apply to Secretary for the 2/-. We would also thank Dr. Biggs for her address on New Guinea that evening. Our meeting on 27th was abandoned so that members could attend the Police Choir Concert the evening before. Our meetings for June are: 10th, Lunch in the Gardens, members meeting at Gardens at 11 a.m.; 24th, Rally at 3 p.m. Our Sewing Day at the Home of Peace is Monday, 7th June. V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Home Mission Festival.—All Saints' was again represented at the Festival Tea, which is an annual reunion of the Church people of the Diocese. Miss Hayes and Mrs. Craigie kindly acted as hostesses and Mr. A. J. Harris was an efficient steward for our tables.

"Food for Britain" Fund.—We thank all those who responded to the "Food for Britain" appeal on Mothers' Day, May 9th. One of the parcels sent as a result of our previous appeal has reached Miss P. Denahey, who lives with her parents and a younger sister at Whitfield, near Dover. She has kindly acknowledged the receipt of the parcel by air-mail letter, received by the Rector to-day (29th May, 1948). Miss Denahey writes: "I should like to thank you and the parishioners of All Saints' Church for your great kindness in sending the food parcel which arrived quite safely last week. I cannot tell you how much we appreciate your kind thoughts, especially of a stranger whom you have never seen. We were delighted with the contents of your parcel and used one of the tins of meat to take on a picnic last week-end.

and shall save the others for future occasions. . . . I expect your parishioners would be very interested in our village church, as it is extremely old, part of it having been built by the Normans. It is situated about a mile from the village and has only a few cottages nearby, but there is a very pleasant walk there across the cornfields. It is spring-time here now and the countryside is at its best. There has been a great deal of blossom on the trees, and we are looking forward to a good harvest of fruit. . . . Please convey our thanks to your parishioners for the kindness and generosity they have shown in helping us in this way."

Appreciation.—Once again we record our thanks to the members of the Wedlock family who deem it a privilege to provide and arrange the church flowers on Mothers' Day in memory of their mother—Elizabeth Wedlock. The artistic arrangement of, literally, hundreds of beautiful white chrysanthemums was for Mrs. Sworn, Mrs. G. Clifton Smith and Miss D. Wedlock an act of loving memory in which we all shared.

The Sunday School.—The Social held in the Y.C.I. Club Room on May 29th brought in £12/6 for Sunday School funds. All Saints' Sunday School was represented at the Heralds of the King Annual Service in the Cathedral on May 30th, when our Children's Lenten Offering of £16 was presented. We would remind all parents and friends of the Concert to be held in the Parish Hall on Wednesday, June 9th, at 8 p.m.; and we ask their interest and support.—N. HARRIS, Secretary.

S.P.C.K.—The Treasurer has received the following acknowledgment from the Organising Secretary (Rev. A. E. Kain, St. Paul's, Adelaide): "Many thanks to your Rector and congregation for so kindly remembering S.P.C.K., especially on our 250th Anniversary. I wish our thanks could be put in your Parish Paper, as the people do not often know how grateful we are for their very kind response."

A Reminder.—When you read this, there will be but ten weeks before August 15th, when the boxes we use (in lieu of a fete) will be recalled. There are still a few boxes not issued, and the Churchwardens hope they will be appropriated, as we need the help of all parishioners if we are to attain our objective of £200 for our Parish Hall debt. Have YOU received your box yet?

L.H.M.U.—We are indebted to the members of the Police Choir, under the Conductorship of Mr. Richard Thew, for an excellent concert (given in aid of the Home Mission Society's Parish Nurses' Appeal), in which they were assisted by Mr. W. R. Eagar and Mr. Schofield. We thank all who contributed to the success of this effort, not forgetting our own members who provided and served supper for the choir and assisting artists.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

War Memorial Fund.—We acknowledge with thanks receipt of £1 from Mrs. McLaren, which increases the total to £42/0/6.

Personal.—We offer our sincerest sympathy to the following parishioners and friends to whom bereavement has come during the past month: Mr. and Mrs. Flynn (and their relatives), of Belgrave Street; Mrs. Gardiner, Mrs. Grant and Mrs. Robertson, of Trafalgar Street; Mr. and Mrs. McLean and family, and Mrs. Cruden and family, of Maria Street; Miss D. L. Best (and her relatives), of Addison Road, and the members of the Sutherland family, of Stanmore Road. We ask for them, and for all who are bereaved, the strengthening and consoling power of the Holy Spirit.

The Archbishop's Winter Appeal.—Bishop Pilcher (the Archbishop's Commissary) writes asking our support for this appeal. To enable those to help who may think that their gift is not of sufficient importance to be sent in to the Wardens, a retiring offertory will be received on Sunday, June 27th.

Y.C.I.—We had impromptu speeches at our first meeting in May, and quite a large number of subjects were discussed. There was plenty of variety and humour was not overlooked. Altogether, it was the most successful meeting under this heading that the Y.C.I. has held for many years. On 21st May we entertained the ladies at a Games Evening in the Club Room and, although the prevailing 'flu epidemic adversely affected the attendance, we had a very enjoyable evening. Both members and guests are looking forward to the next Ladies' Night. The Y.C.I. was formed in 1910 for the promotion of the spiritual, intellectual and social welfare of men, and has functioned continuously since then. Men of the Parish who have not yet linked up with the Y.C.I. are invited to come along to any of our meetings with a view to membership. A Junior Branch of the Y.C.I. caters for the younger men, those of sixteen years of age and over.—L.C.C.

Y.C.I. Junior Branch.—Activities since our last notice have been quite varied and interesting in character. The first Annual Meeting of the organization was held on 30th April, a satisfactory report of the year's activities being presented. An evening of impromptu speeches was held on 14th May, whilst our last meeting, on 28th May, we were pleased to have Mr. B. H. Dick, of the Senior Branch, who spoke on the "Rubber Industry." Mr. Dick gave a practical demonstration in the making of some rubber goods. Our next meeting is to be held on Friday, 11th June, at 8. p.m.—A. JONES.

C.E.B.S.—The various sections of "Cebs" continue their activities with enthusiasm. The Basket-Ball Competitions have commenced and will be keenly contested. A re-arrangement of competitive teams amongst the Intermediates and Juniors was made with the consent of the Rector and the Leader on May 28th; by which Brian Lane captains the "Cossacks" (with Reg Jago as Vice-Captain), and Bob Kenny leads the "Snipers" (with Ron Nowland, Vice-Captain). Keen and interested "Cebs" will need no reminder regarding Church and Sunday School attendance; and those who have been confirmed will remember that the First Sunday in each month is their Corporate Communion (at 8 a.m.).

C.M.S. Calling.—"This meeting of the Federal Council of the Church Missionary Society of Australia and Tasmania believes that, in this year of the Third Jubilee, urgent needs in face of inadequate income present the Society with a serious challenge. We resolve to call upon the Society's supporters to organise, pray and give with even greater energy and sacrifice than at present, that the work needing to be done shall not be hindered by lack of the necessary funds. We remind all those in the fellowship of the Society that all our resources are in God, and that the measure of the Society's needs ought to be made the measure of our faith in Him for its fulfilment." (Resolution at C.M.S. Federal Council, May, 1948.)

C.E.N.E.F. Centre.—The following has been received from Mrs. G. Adams, Restaurant Director of C.E.N.E.F. Centre: "I would like to take this opportunity of thanking you for your splendid interest and help in our C.E.N.E.F. Memorial Centre Restaurant. I am happy to say your efforts are bearing fruit. The restaurant is well patronised and each day brings its quota of new customers. It would be impossible to cope with the numbers but for our band of willing helpers. Their assistance with the salad and sandwich making and the serving and waiting on tables has proved invaluable, and it is mainly for their sakes that I am making a fresh appeal to you for still more help. The work is becoming too heavy for those who are so willing to cope with it. The shifts are from 10 to 2, from 2 to 5 and from 5 to 8. Any reader who can spare four hours once a week will be playing a big part in furthering the post-war work of the C.E.N.E.F. Our restaurant, as you know, is a room to be proud of, and I think our helpers enjoy their association with it. I am also going to ask those of you who have gardens, would you please drop some flowers into the Centre when you come to town, or perhaps your husbands would be good enough to take them to their offices, where I could arrange to have them picked up. The room is noted for its flowers, but most of them have to be purchased. I shall be looking forward with pleasure to hearing from you again."

Looking Ahead.—The Rector and Churchwardens would appreciate a crowded Church each Sunday, but especially Sunday, October 24th next, for the visit of the N.S.W. Jubilee Masonic Choir. See what you can do about the matter.—A.J.H.
