

My dear Broughton,

Agreeable to your request, I have by this post written to the Bishop of Winchester, & hope & pray it may meet with success, as nothing will give me greater pleasure than to live to see you provided for in the Church. I thought it was better for me to write myself, than to get John to do it, as the Bishop well knows my hand. Poor Ellen! how sorry we all are for her. You must not expect a long letter, Mary having written so lately. I am happy to say we are all better. All join in Love.

Believe me to be

Dear Broughton,

most sincerely Yours.
