 THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
30th December, 1951.

Dear People of All Saints'

As I write, the remaining life of 1951 may be reckoned in hours. Any occasion that reminds us that the past has gone beyond recall, that the sands are running out for each one of us, that the unknown lies ahead, and that fresh opportunities are in front of us—any such occasion should be welcomed by all who are not insensitive to the great issues of life. It is a wise policy to audit one's book of life at least once a year if we wish to make a success of the business of living. Find out what you have lost or gained during the past twelve months. Have you been wasting time on things that are not really worth while? How do you stand in regard to the debt you owe to God and to His children? The end of one year and the beginning of another is a good time to take stock of our position. We make some sort of a balance of the past year, giving thanks for its joys and achievements, and confessing with sorrow its failures and shortcomings. We look back and we look forward, making our plans and our resolutions, but oftentimes forgetting to look UP, and pray for a power greater than our own. Maybe we have not been so regular as we might be, in attendance at Holy Communion and the other Services of the Church. We want to take our stand with those who absolutely refuse to surrender their Christian ideals, but we have failed through lack of courage.

I suggest we take the words Moses gave in his parting message to the Children of Israel, as our motto for the New Year: "As thy days so shall thy strength be." Again and again has this great leader of men proved the truth of these words. Although we might express the thought differently there are thousands of people who have experienced the same truth. Yet, the strange thing is, that at every new turn in the way, at every fresh hill of difficulty, in the presence of every unexpected foe, we become dismayed and unbelieving. It is a universal weakness to forget the lessons of the past when facing the future.

For the gigantic tasks before us in these difficult days our confidence must be in the strength and courage which God imparts. All experience goes to show that the work which God has sent us into the world to do will remain undone unless we are humble enough to rely on His help. Today, as ever, Christian discipleship is an exacting business. It calls for the destruction of many wayward tendencies, the acceptance of high ethical standards, and the manifestation of a Christlike spirit. We feel we cannot attain to it. We have seen the fruits of it, we admire it, but we deny that the victory is possible for natures like ours. But He Who calls us, saying, "Follow Me," gives the assurance, "Lo I am with you always, even unto the end of the age." Personally and nationally we are being faced with changes. In spite of what God has done for us in the past, we are fearful and unbelieving—the hearts of many are dismayed as they face the future and they fear the worst. I would commend to such these words of Moses; and ask you to study your own nation's history, to look into your own past, and as you face the unknown road of 1952, to discover afresh the truth of this great assurance, "As thy days so shall thy strength be."

We record thankfully the inspiration of our well-rendered Christmas Services. The Church was beautifully decorated for the Festival by Mrs. Adams, Mrs. Bosward and Mrs. Sayers to whom (together with those who kindly brought extra flowers) we are very grateful. We were glad to welcome our old friend, the Revd. A. E. Gardner (recently returned from abroad), and to have his assistance at the Christmas Day services. Mr. Gardner leaves shortly to join the staff of Caulfield Grammar School: he will take with him our good wishes in his new appointment.

We commend to you the Churchwardens' Appeal for the Rectory Repair Fund. It is many years since anything was spent on the Rectory. As some of the work is of an urgent nature, we hope for a ready response. There is something to be said for the old Latin tag, "Bis dat qui cito dat"—"he gives twice who gives quickly"!

We at the Rectory wish you ALL that inward happiness of service to God and man which alone can put any real meaning into the old, old wish

"A HAPPY NEW YEAR!"

Yours very sincerely,

A SPECIAL MESSAGE TO ALL PARISHIONERS

2nd January, 1952.

Fellow Parishioners,

As you are aware, the Rectory is an important part of All Saints', Petersham, which wields much influence for good in our district. We, the Wardens, and Parish Councillors, are seriously concerned at the condition of the building, the deterioration being such that immediate repairs and renovations are essential. The water service is also in a deplorable condition, and a complete renewal of the piping is an urgent necessity. The kitchen, and indeed most rooms in the building, require attention to make the building habitable. From preliminary enquiries we gather that the cost of the necessary work would be in the vicinity of £400, and it is apparent that any undue delay in carrying out the repairs would ultimately involve the Parish in an even heavier cost. The financial commitments of the Parish make it impossible to meet such an expenditure from our General Fund. It has, therefore, been decided to make a special appeal for the purpose mentioned. On page four appears a slip which we invite you to detach and forward with your contribution to the Hon. Treasurer, care of All Saints' Rectory, Stanmore Road, Petersham. As an alternative you may use the special envelopes which are available in the Church Porch. They are marked "Rectory Repair Fund," and all donations will be acknowledged in the "Chronicle." With confidence in your interest and support, and in the Master's Service.

Yours very truly,

A. J. HARRIS,
L. C. CALVER,
W. SOPWITH,

Churchwardens.

The Hon. Treasurer,
All Saints' Church,
Petersham.

Dear Sir,

I have pleasure in enclosing £ : : as a donation towards
THE RECTORY REPAIR FUND.

Yours faithfully,

Address:

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Rectory Repair Fund.—The Churchwardens invite your attention to the special message in this issue of the "Chronicle." They are anxious that all Anglicans in the Parish should have an opportunity of reading it, and contributing to the Fund. Reprints of the message are available for distribution, and donations, large or small, will be welcomed.—L.C.C.

Women's Guild.—The Eight to Ten Sale of Work held on 13th December was a great success socially and financially and enabled us to pay the balance of our quota for the Parish Hall fund.

Thanks to members and friends the stalls were well stocked and there were plenty of buyers.

We would also like to thank Miss McGeorge and the Physical Culture girls for the Display, and Mrs. Little, Mr. and Mrs. Stead, Mr. Brocklehurst, Mrs. Day, Mr. Eagar and the Choir members for the musical programme.

Unfortunately the severe thunderstorm and heavy rain spoiled the Xmas Party on December 20th and only a few members were present.

As Miss Mottram was unable to be there the Secretary took up to her at Burwood, at a later date, the cut glass vase which members gave to her in recognition of her services as President.

The Guild now goes into recess until February, 1952, and will commence with a Gift Evening for the Harvest Festival and Home of Peace on Thursday, 21st February, 1952, at 8 p.m., in the Library. There will be a Guest Speaker and it is an open evening for all parishioners.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Sunday School.—Our Sunday School does not go into recess during the School Vacation and we welcome any visiting children to join us on Sunday mornings. Parents are reminded that if our own children attend other Sunday Schools whilst away on holiday, we will award them marks for those attendances.—M. REX, Secretary.

All Saints' Extension Group.—The class for young men, called the "Extension Group," has been in existence for a year and is working well in the interests of the age group for which it was designed, that is, young men ranging in age from 14 to 17.

Among those who have given talks include Rev. W. Price, Mrs. Price, Mr. D. Hunter, M.L.A., and Mr. W. Sopwith. Also in the year's programme was a visit to the Cathedral and two socials.

With the addition of new members from the Sunday School seniors our prospects are very good for the coming year.

Our group has so far produced one Sunday School teacher in Mr. John Willis, with others in view.

- Officers of the class are
- Graham Kearns, Secretary.
 - David Evans, Recorder.
 - John Sharp, Chaplain.
 - Neville Steer, Treasurer.
 - H. Jones, Leader.

Harvest Festival.—An advance notice is given of our Harvest Festival Thanksgiving Services which are to be held on Quinquagesima Sunday, February 24. All our Harvest gifts are sent to the Home of Peace, which is doing so great a work that it merits all the support we can possibly give.

Home Mission Society.—We acknowledge with thanks a further donation of £1 from Mr. and Miss Tadish, for the Society's Special Appeal, bringing our total to £12/14/-.—D. P. BROWN, Branch Secretary.

Rectory "At Homes".—Mrs. Adams desires it known that she will be "At Home" on the third Saturday afternoon in each month, commencing Saturday, January 19th.

Nineteen Fifty-two.—People sometimes ask for information regarding the Church Year. Here are some important dates in 1952 which we should remember:

Ash Wednesday	February 27	Easter Day	April 13
First Sunday in Lent	March 2	Ascension Day	May 22
Palm Sunday	April 6	Whitsunday	June 1
Good Friday	April 11	Trinity Sunday	June 8

The Choir.—Choir members well deserve the short recess customarily observed at this time of the year. We are grateful to them for their work, especially during the Advent and Christmas Season. Practices will be resumed on Thursday, January 17th. A good attendance at this and subsequent practices is essential, in preparation of the music for Harvest Festival, Holy Week and Easter.—C.E.A.

Physical Culture.—Competitions held among our own girls on Monday, 3rd December, resulted in wins for:

Senior Trophy Cup donated by our Rector, P. Williams, 1st; P. Costello 2nd.

15 yrs. Cup donated by Mrs. Collis, B. Carbine 1st; J. Pleasance 2nd.

13 yrs., N. Rawson, 1st; J. Lindsay, 2nd.

11 yrs., G. Churchill, 1st; M. Jamieson, 2nd.

9 yrs., T. Jamieson, 1st; J. Endycott, 2nd.

7 yrs., P. Hunter, 1st; S. Hunter, 2nd.

On the following Monday our concert was held and proved to be a huge success. Our girls certainly excelled themselves in every item and Miss McGeorge is to be congratulated on her splendid instruction. Our sincere thanks to Miss McGeorge, the girls, and parents and all who helped to make the two evenings most enjoyable.—F. DITCHBURN, Secretary.

Thank you.—The Churchwardens acknowledge with thanks gifts posted to the Rector for Christmas offering and for the Church of England Homes; the former, anonymous, and the latter initialled "J.W." Thanks also to the Carol Singers whose work on Christmas Eve brought in £3/15/- for the Church of England Homes.

Personal.—To the following parishioners and their relatives is offered our sincerest sympathy in their recent bereavement:

Mrs. Hadley and Mr. and Mrs. H. Hadley;

Mr. and Mrs. Whiting and family;

Mrs. Gunner and family;

Mrs. Hayne and Mrs. Musgrove.

May they and all who are sad know the sustaining power of the Holy Spirit.
