 THE CHRONICLE SPEAKS.

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints!

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,
29th July, 1940.

Dear People of All Saints',

Our Consecration Festival now looms very close; and if it is to be a success, we shall need the full co-operation and support of all parishioners. Sunday, August 18, will be observed again as a "Back-to-All Saints' Sunday," and you can help considerably by getting in touch with all the former parishioners you know, and inviting them to worship in their old parish church on that day. You can assist also by inviting present parishioners, particularly those who do not attend church regularly, and those who do not come at all. Above all, please remember the Festival Services in your daily prayers.

All the men of the parish who are communicants are invited to attend the early celebration on August 18, and to join in the fellowship of the Men's Communion Breakfast which follows. You will find particulars of the services being arranged for the Festival elsewhere in this issue.

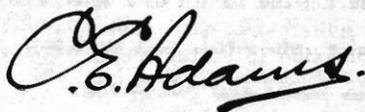

Those who have collecting boxes, which have been in use for the past five months (in lieu of a fete) will please return them on the Festival Sunday. For those who have no box, there is a special envelope issued with this "Chronicle," in which you are asked to place your special offering and bring it to church on the same Sunday.

In connection with our Festival, there is the Parish Tea and Social Re-union on Wednesday, August 21. All Saints' Parish Tea has been so wonderfully successful, and so very greatly appreciated in years past, that we feel we should like to maintain the very high standard. Donations are invited from any who may be willing to give a table or part thereof, and promises of donations in kind will be most welcome. Admission to the Tea and Social Re-union is by ticket, which costs one shilling, and which may now be had from members of the Women's Guild, from your District Visitor, or from the Rectory. You will understand the importance we place upon the sale of tickets, for it is only by such sale that we can hope to approximate the number for whom it will be necessary to provide. In short, it will be a help if you purchase your ticket as soon as possible.

Confirmation classes commence during the first week in August, as already advised. Will those who desire preparation please fill in the form provided in the July "Chronicle," and send it in immediately. It is absolutely essential that the candidates for Confirmation should attend the classes regularly, and should put their preparation classes before all other engagements. If sufficient adults apply for preparation, it may be possible to form a class for adults only.

In common with many other parishes, All Saints' has felt the effect of prevailing influenza and measles epidemic. The Rector has been afflicted, and at the present moment is dictating this letter under great difficulties. What is lacking therein he trusts you will excuse.

Very sincerely yours,

"BACK TO ALL SAINTS" SUNDAY

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Congregational Hymn Practice.—The 15th Congregational Hymn Practice will be at 6.45 p.m. on Sunday, 11th August, when the following hymns will be taken:—12, "At even when the sun did set" (Angelus); 356, "All hail the power of Jesus' name" (Miles' Lane); 497, "O Light, whose beams illumine all" (New 113th).

C.M.S. Boxes.—Rector, 10/-; Mrs. Cox, 3/11; Mrs. Gash, 3/5; Mrs. Lindsay, 2/-; Mrs. Pullen, 9d.; Mrs. Paton, 10d.; Miss Watson, 5/-; Miss Hill, 3/3; Miss D. P. Brown, 10/-; Anonymous (Dr. P. White, Tanganyika), 10/-. Total: £2/9/2.

—D. P. Brown, Hon. Sec.

C.E.N.E.F.—The All Saints' Branch of C.E.N.E.F. meets in the Guild Room on the first and third Thursdays of the month at 8 p.m. On Thursday, August 2, an "American Tea" is being held in aid of funds for wool, etc. A good programme has been arranged, and it is hoped that the Rev. C. W. Hammond, chaplain to the Ingleburn camp, will be the guest-speaker. During the month of August members are asked to collect as many khaki handkerchiefs as possible, for distribution in the camps, and to bring their collection in at the meeting on August 30.

—E. M. Belfield, Hon. Sec.

Acknowledgment.—The Churchwardens acknowledge with thanks the following amounts, specially marked, and included in last quarterly offertory: Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Holt, £2/2/-; J. and F.M., £1; Miss E. Ockwell, 5/-; Miss E. Stones, 5/-; Misses Eve, £1/4/-; the Rector, £1.

Personal.—We regret to state that the enthusiastic leader of the Junior C.E.B.S., Mr. P. Brady, is in hospital. We wish him a speedy recovery. Our thanks to Mr. R. F. Atkinson for taking Mr. Brady's place in the C.E.B.S.

Women's Guild.—The meetings held in July arranged quite a number of matters to be carried out during the remainder of the year. The Guild is holding a Gift Evening on Thursday, August 8, at 8 p.m., in the Parish Hall. Each one is asked to bring either a tea-towel or an apron, and these gifts are to help stock the All Saints' stall at the C.M.S. Fete in the Sydney Town Hall on August 27. We hope the response will be a generous one. A good programme of music and competitions is being arranged, and supper will be provided by members. On Sunday, August 18, the Guild members are arranging the Men's Communion Breakfast in connection with the Consecration Festival. As the Festival Tea is being held on August 21, there will be no meeting of the Guild on August 22. We hope all members will be present at the Social Evening for the Bush Church Aid Society on September 3. The Rev. T. Jones, Organising Missioner, will be the guest-speaker, and will also show moving pictures of the great work of the B.C.A.

C. Reilly, Hon. Sec.

B.C.A.—It is twenty-one years since the late Bishop Kirkby founded the Bush Church Aid Society. We feel, therefore, this year, that we must do something of a special nature to mark the coming-of-age of the B.C.A. The Organising Missioner, Rev. T. Jones, will preach at All Saints' at both morning and evening services on September 1, and will also come on the following Tuesday, September 3, to give a B.C.A. Travel Talk. It is hoped that everybody will make a special point of attending, both on Sunday and the Tuesday, especially when many are stating that they cannot do as much for B.C.A. as they used to do. We all know the many claims made upon us these times, but we cannot, and must not, let the work of the B.C.A. suffer.

Sunday School.—Saturday, July 20, was a red letter day in the history of the School, when the Kindergarten Hall was opened by the Ven. Archdeacon W. L. Langley. We are very grateful to the Archdeacon for performing the opening ceremony, and appreciated his delightful address. The Archdeacon was presented with a memento of the occasion by Peter Marshall, one of the youngest Kindergarten scholars. Previous to the opening ceremony a lot of hard work was put in by the Kindergarten Staff, assisted by a number of helpers, in painting, lino. laying, etc., so that the Hall presented a most attractive appearance. We are indeed extremely grateful to all who made possible the building of the Hall, and to others for supplying equipment, so that the Kindergarten can now carry on its activities under ideal conditions. We would like to thank the Kindergarten

Building Committee for its co-operation, particularly, prior to the opening, when there was so much detail to be attended to. We wish to record the following gifts:—Linoleum and rubberoid floor-covering and musical Birthday Chair—Miss E. Carolus; Seat for visitors, Leader's Table and Palestine models—Miss E. M. Belfield; 6 Kindergarten tables and palm stand—Mr. R. F. Atkinson; Water set—Mrs. Robertson; Vases—Mrs. Nolan; Pot plants and waste paper basket—Miss Gladys Jones; Picture—the Rector and Miss Adams; 30 yards curtain material together with curtain fittings—some members of the Women's Guild. It is also very gratifying to know that we were able to open the Hall free of debt. The contract price was £385, and with extras brought the total to £396/6/-, which has been fully subscribed.

We regretted receiving the resignation of our superintendent, Mr. G. A. Guilfoyle, owing to his removal from the district. During the short time he has occupied the position, he has endeared himself to all, and we shall indeed miss him. Opportunity was taken at the monthly social to present Mr. Guilfoyle with an Eversharp pencil as a small token of our esteem. The monthly social was again successful. The next social will be held on Saturday, August 17, at 8 p.m., in the Y.C.I. Club Room.

—R. F. Atkinson, Hon. Sec.

L.H.M.U.—A Sale of Work is being held in the Chapter House on Friday, August 9. There will be Cake and Sweets, Household, Provisions, Bathroom and Flower Stalls, and Afternoon Tea. Proceeds are in aid of the work of the Ladies' Home Mission Union. Parishioners are asked to come and buy at it.

Condolence.—Towards the end of last month we recorded our deepest sympathy with the Neal family in the loss of their mother. Only eight days afterwards they were called upon to lose their father very suddenly. We again express our deepest sympathy with them in this double bereavement. We also express our sincerest sympathy with Mrs. Duffield and family, with Mr. R. V. Edmondson, Mr. E. Edmondson, and Mr. and Mrs. H. Edmondson, and also with Mrs. Quin and family.

PAUSE TO PRAY.

There is nothing more urgent than prayer for the peace of the world.

This Church is open for prayer from 8 a.m. to 8 p.m.

Pray for those in danger—Pray for those in anxiety or sorrow.

Pray for your friends—Pray for your enemies.

Pray for your country—Pray for yourself.

"Men ought always to pray and not to faint."

The above notice of our "Pause to Pray" Board was so admired by a parishioner that he suggested it might be put into the hands of all parishioners, through the medium of the Parish paper. This we gladly do, and thank him for his help.
