

Jan: 27. 1887

THE PALACE,

RIPON.

My dear Mr Jones,

You can take up some of the subjects for Priest's orders next examⁿ 19. Feb: 15 &c.

Our wish is that the subjects should be taken at intervals of six months, so as to spread the reading over the whole diatribe, instead of leaving it to be crammed up in the last few weeks. Of course you could not be given Priest's orders at last; but you can put that necessary part of examⁿ behind you.

Yours
W.D. Ripon