W. McKeand/D. Ferrier.

A bank transfer has been approved for US$1,000 to go to the ACWC for Registration and accommodation costs for our four delegates to the ACWC General Assembly in Bogor, Indonesia in October.

Winifred Kiek Scholarship Trust M. Clark

It has been quiet this month. Circular No 7 with news from Siok Cheng (2005) has been sent to all WKS Convenors. The 2010 Scholars have not yet arrived in Australia – problems in obtaining visas.

Publicity/Newsletter

The Occasional news will be out soon. Let Judy know of any dates that must be noted.

Special Days J. Brown

Judith has emailed each State and Territory Unit that the National Executive moved and accepted the 2010 project for Allowah Presbyterian Children's Home at Dundas.

Social Justice K. Smith

This month I am contacting my State Social Issues Convenors to let them all know what I'm doing to keep in touch. I am doing this every three months.

ACWC report D. Bryan

Greetings from the east. In recent days I have received emails from Shu-Wen (ACWC Exec. Secretary) re -

1. Her visit to Korea to meet with leaders of Korean Christian organisations and enlist their co-operation in supporting Rev. Lee Moon Sook, the incoming Exec. Secretary. Shu-Wen also attended the Korean Church Women United (KCWU) Assembly and presented a greeting from the ACWC.

3/...

A report of Shu-Wen's visit is available on the ACWC website
<http://acwc.blogspot.com/2010/05/report-of-visit-korea-on-17-19-may-2010.html>

2. Prayer request for Thailand. After the Red Shirts in Thailand had been protesting for weeks we know that more than 30 buildings had been set ablaze and 50 people killed. Nearly 400 people were injured.

Also preparations for the ACWC General Assembly are continuing to keep the ACWC officers busy.

God Bless. Donna.

GENERAL BUSINESS

National Conference 2011

1. Public Liability can't be finalised until Chris compares all states details. Immanuel have given details of its insurer.
2. Wanda showed details of personalised stamps on drink driving and suggested it as a marketing ploy. She will follow up on costs.
3. Judy will prepare a trifold brochure with details of the conference and this will include space for registration of interest in attending re 2011 Conference.
4. Discussion of possible things to include in the programme – Aboriginal welcome; liaising with the Mayor of West Torrens; possible places for the conference dinner or just having it at Immanuel; Judith will inquire about the revolving restaurant at Glenelg; Kath will inquire about Morphettville racecourse; suggested speakers – Lynn Arnold; Jane Doyle; Keith Conlon; Aboriginal in charge of scholarship boys from Rostrevor; Tutti ensemble; Judith Brown could co-ordinate a music group. Judy will inquire if there is a resident organist.
A Prayer room could be organised. Each member of the executive has a chart to fill in with possible time table of events.
5. Judy will email Donna and discuss the possibility of inviting Rev. Lee Moon Sook to the Conference and applying for a WKS Fellowship to cover her costs.
6. Margaret will look into a design for putting the logo on the bags, made by Pat. If there are not enough, more can be made when we know how many. Wanda and Judith will contact firms to get SA items to include in them. Vice Presidents may ask to speak at the unit meetings to ask for ideas. We will also need a photographer.

Next meeting will be held on 13th July at 1.45pm.

Reflection next time will be given by Kath Smith.

Meeting closed at 4.15pm.
