ACTING RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
Petersham,

2nd September, 1951.

Dear Parishioners,

The month of August has been a very bad one this year, so far as the weather is concerned; bitterly cold, with rain, snow and wind. As a result there is a great deal of sickness amongst parishioners. In spite of these disabilities, the Festival Services in connection with the 48th Anniversary of the Consecration of All Saints' Church were well attended and the spirit of joy and gladness was the keynote of our worship. We were privileged in having as our special preacher at the 11 o'clock service Canon H. N. Powys, Rector of St. Michael's, Vaulcluse. His stirring message was much appreciated by members of the congregation. At the evening service Archdeacon S. H. Denman preached an inspiring sermon on the Church's duty to guard the "Sacred Word," and preach it as the standard of faith and practice. He referred to the past history of All Saints', and the wonderful spiritual witness of the past and urged all to do their part in carrying forward the good work for which All Saints' stood.

The Parish Tea, held on 22nd August, was a great success. This was mainly due to the whole-hearted support given by all who took part in it. The ladies in charge of the various tables worked magnificently and the Church officers and young men did their part splendidly. I desire most heartily to thank all for this happy and willing co-operation in the success of our effort. Mr. Eagar, our organist, must also be mentioned for arranging the concert programme, which was excellent, and our best thanks go out to him and those who so readily gave their services in this respect.

After an enjoyable tea, Mr. W. Roland Eagar gave an Organ Recital, which set forth his great musical ability and gave great pleasure to all who heard it. This was followed by short Evensong attended by one of the largest congregations seen in the Church for a long time. This formed a fitting prelude to the concert which followed. The National Anthem and the Benediction brought a most enjoyable time to a close.

May these special services and the Festival see the beginning of a renewal of devotion and service to our great Master, to Whom be praise and glory for ever. Amen.

Yours very sincerely,

W. T. PRICE.

NEWS OF THE RECTOR

Dear Friends at All Saints',

It is rather extraordinary to reflect that what one does to-day may effect some other person hundreds of years afterwards! Because of the generosity of a certain Henry Alnut, of the Middle Temple, London, in 1724, it was possible for me in 1951 to serve at a chaplaincy and to enjoy something of the beautiful Thames Valley country. It happened in this way. Two hundred and twenty-seven years ago, Henry Alnut made his will, in which he bequeathed part of his estate to the building and endowing of a house at Goring Heath (near Reading) which was to be for the maintenance of a chaplain and schoolmaster to it, and for 12 men to be chosen from five neighbouring parishes, with a nurse to attend them. . . . In 1726 the house was built and the present resident chaplain, wishing to get away for a holiday, asked me if I would relieve him.

The Alnut Hospital (as it is designated on some local maps) is built on three sides of a hollow square and forms a quadrangle, with the open side facing a large, green field, which is the school playground. In the centre of the almshouses is the little Chapel of St. Barnabas, which is very appropriate, as the church and all it stands for should always be the centre of our life. On one side of the almshouses, where the old folk live, is the chaplaincy, and on the other is the school and school residence. The school has an enrolment of 70, consisting of girls and boys (up to 11 years of age) from nearby villages. The chaplaincy is a very comfortable two-storey house, at the back of which is a large, beautifully kept lawn, with fine, big lime trees, and beyond these a lovely garden—both flower and vegetable.

We had the usual Sunday services, such as one would have in a parish church (Evensong at six o'clock) and prayers were taken in the attractive little chapel by the Acting-Chaplain on Wednesday and Friday mornings, at a quarter to ten. I thoroughly enjoyed my three weeks' ministry amongst the Goring Heath people. Some, by reason of physical infirmity, could not attend services, but all the others came, and were joined on Sundays by some of the trustees and a few people from the scattered neighbouring farm houses. Although we were but six miles from Reading (the home of the well-known Huntley and Palmer biscuit!) and less than 50 miles from London, it was so quiet and restful in this little community that we seemed to be hundreds of miles from any city!

From Goring Heath it is possible to see much of the Thames Valley, either by road or by river—Maidenhead, Henley-on-Thames, Pangbourne, Goring and Streatley (two nearby parishes divided by the river), Whitchurch, Sonning Lock and Wallingford, to mention just a few of the very pleasant places. Nothing could be more enjoyable than the river trip from Reading to Wallingford on a fine, sunny day! English countryside in summer time is really delightful. I am reminded of Kipling's lines: "O England is a garden, and such gardens are not made by crying, 'O how beautiful,' and sitting in the shade!" You may remember that in the same poem ("The Glory of the Garden") he reminds us that "half a proper gardener's work is done upon his knees"—which recalls the importance of prayer, both private and corporate. Only this week came a letter from an old friend of mine (not in our parish), who has been very ill, which commenced, "Somebody's prayers have been answered," as he was able to report a great improvement in his condition. May I commend to you a very helpful (and comparatively inexpensive) little book, which should be on sale in Sydney by now—N. M. Kennaby's "To Start You Praying," published by the S.P.G.

All our home letters have reported rising costs and shortages of this and that commodity essential to a parish tea! Knowing full well that we have, at All Saints', over many years, a reputation to uphold and a standard to maintain, I feared that, in the circumstances, it might not be possible to organise the tea this year. I am glad, however, to learn that you have decided to go ahead with it. By the time you read this, it will be over, and I trust that those who tackled the job with no little courage and much optimism, have been rewarded by its success. You will be much in our minds at the time of the Consecration Festival and during that week.

After leaving Goring Heath we paid brief visits to Dorchester, Cambridge, Ely and Peterborough, and I am writing this letter from Lincoln. One day, in the not far-distant future, I hope to be able to tell you something of these places. As I will be busy preparing to sail at the end of September, I will not write again for the October "Chronicle." I am grateful to the Acting Rector for sparing me the space each month in order to tell you something of our doings. All being well, we should arrive in Sydney on November 5th. I hope to be on duty on Sunday, November 11th, which is Remembrance Sunday, and is also within the Octave of our Patronal Festival Sunday.

It will not be easy to say "Farewell" to England's "green and pleasant land" and the friends we have made in it, but still, we feel most grateful for this experience, and we look forward to a re-union with our friends at All Saints', Petersham. Meanwhile, may God's blessing rest upon all your work and worship done in His name and with all good wishes, in which my wife joins,

Yours very sincerely,

SUNDAY PICTURE THEATRES

The action of the Chief Secretary for New South Wales, Mr. Clive Evatt, in taking the law into his own hands and giving official sanction to the opening of a picture theatre at Kings Cross, Sydney, on Sunday, with the usual charges of admission, has amazed church-going Protestants. It received, however, strong support from "The Sydney Morning Herald."

We commend Bishop Hilliard for his outspoken letter which "The Herald" published in its issue of the 16th inst. We take the liberty of re-printing his letter:—

Sir.—You and some of your correspondents suggest that the churches ought to commend the commercialised opening of cinemas on Sundays, on the ground that "Satan finds some mischief still for idle hands to do," but I have yet to learn that most of the acts of delinquency are committed on Sundays; nor have I seen any suggestion that the shows are to be confined to the teen-agers about whom you are so greatly concerned.

Moreover, it is not only idle hands that Satan seeks to employ. If he can persuade good and highly respected people with worthy motives to get behind a movement whose ultimate result is likely to be the secularisation and even commercialisation of Sunday, and can secure the support of the influence which a great newspaper wields in the community, he will, on a long term view, have achieved far more than by the use of certain idle adolescent hands.

W. G. HILLIARD,

Bishop Coadjutor of Sydney.

In the same issue Mr. A. R. Payne, President of the Motion Picture Exhibitors' Association, published a letter of protest, in which he stated, among other things, that 50 per cent. of those present were New Australians.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Special Appeal, 1951.—So far the result of the Appeal has been disappointing, but it is difficult to estimate the final results, because so many boxes and envelopes have not yet been returned. If by any chance you have not received a box or envelope, will you please place your donation in an ordinary envelope and mark it "Special Appeal," and place it in the offertory plate or send it to the Churchwardens, c/o. The Rectory, at your earliest convenience. Amounts will be acknowledged in the October issue of "The Chronicle."

Fellowship.—On 14th August we held a debate on the "Rearmament of Japan." In spite of strenuous effort on the part of the Opposition, the Government won by a big majority. The speeches on both sides were forceful and interesting. Impromptu speeches proved very interesting and helpful on other evenings. The devotional side was well catered for by well delivered addresses by John Sharp and David Evan, and were interesting and helpful to the members. On the social side, our last "Woolshed Hop" was a great success. Some 140 young people came and enjoyed themselves, so much so that we have decided to hold another on Saturday, 15th September, at 7.45 p.m. Supper will be provided. Subscription, 2/6—MARY MARCH, Hon. Sec.

Bereavement.—Our sincerest sympathy is extended to the relatives of the late Mrs. Clarke, of Crystal Street, Petersham, on her decease. She was a regular worshipper at All Saints' Church until her sickness. The Acting Rector visited her several times in hospital, and when she passed away, conducted a service at the home, and also at Waverley Cemetery. Mrs. Hickey, of Westbourne Street, Petersham, another constant attendant at All Saints', passed to her eternal rest during the month. We extend our sincerest sympathy to her family. The Acting Rector conducted the service at the Chapel and performed the last rites at Randwick Cemetery. We offer our heartfelt sympathy to Mr. W. Jones and family in the Home Call of their dear wife and mother. Our comfort is found in God's words, which read: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord. They rest from their labours and their works do follow them."

Y.C.I.—Regular meetings of members are held every Friday evening in their club room. Recently the Acting Rector, Rev. W. T. Price, B.A., gave an address on the "Holy Land." He told them of a visit he and Mrs. Price had paid to Palestine and gave a vivid description of what they had seen and heard. The address was most interesting and instructive. Young men are invited to join up with the Young Churchman's Institute. See Mr. L. Calver, Hon. Secretary.

Personal.—We are pleased to note that the following ladies who have been ill are now quite recovered.—Mrs. McLean, Mrs. Cook and Mrs. W. T. Price. Mr. Dingle is in Gloucester House. We wish him a speedy recovery.

The Brotherhood of the Good Shepherd.—The Rev. T. W. Doyle (Bro. Tom) will preach in All Saints' Church on behalf of the Brotherhood on Sunday, 14th October, at 11 a.m.

Holiday Time.—Our worthy Churchwarden and Secretary, Mr. L. Calver, is enjoying his annual holidays during the next few weeks, and we wish him a very happy and pleasant time.

Women's Guild.—A very happy evening was spent by members and friends on Thursday, 9th August. After a short business session the evening was spent playing cards, and this was followed by supper. Our guest of honour was Miss Margaret Young and the President wished her happiness in whatever her future work may be, and presented her with a cut glass vase, sewing tidy and daffodils, with all the good wishes of the Guild. Most members, with a few exceptions on account of sickness, attended the Festival Tea, and Concert. Our first meeting for September will be Thursday, 13th, at 8 p.m. and we hope all members will attend as we want to arrange our future programme. We are hoping to arrange a Saturday Fair for either October or November to help our quota for the Parish Hall and we hope all parishioners will help us. We will announce the date later.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Annual Missionary Appeal.—We hope you won't forget the Guild's Annual Missionary Appeal. This year the proceeds will be for re-construction work after the Mt. Lamington disaster in New Guinea. Those who were present at our luncheon will remember Canon Brady's address. Total collected and as previously acknowledged is £9/1/6. Please give your donations to Rev. Mr. Price or to the Guild Secretary.

Appreciation.—We offer our sincerest thanks to Mr. Kidd, who very kindly came with his petrol lawn mower, and cut the grass in the Church and Rectory grounds. His kind action is much appreciated by all.

L.H.M.U.—The half-yearly meeting "direct giving" of the Ladies' Home Mission Union will be held Tuesday, September 18th, at 2.30 p.m., in the Parish Hall. Rev. R. G. Fillingham will show pictures of Home Mission work depicting various aspects of practical Christian service. Members and friends are asked to make a special effort to be present. This is an open afternoon for all women of the Parish.—D. P. BROWN, Secretary.

A Sure Stronghold.—The message of the Lord Jesus is for reception, and then for reproduction. Christ for us, our atoning sacrifice: Christ in us, our living power; Christ under us, our sure foundation: Christ around us, our wall of fire; Christ beside us, our perfect example; Christ above us, our blessed Master; Christ before us, our eternal inheritance.—W. H. Griffith Thomas, D.D.

Worship.—Worship is an offering, a discovery, a response; an offering of ourselves to God—that is the putting of ourselves in a position for God to act upon us; a discovery by ourselves of God and His will; a response of ourselves to God, a dedication to the doing of the will which we have discovered.—Dr. M. A. C. Warren.

"The real measure of a man's character is what he would do if he knew he would never be caught."—Anon.

"Self-fulfilment never comes through self-seeking. It only comes through God-seeking and other-seeking. We are made for Him and His whole fellowship."—Nils F. S. Ferre.
