This littlebook is dedicated (by permission) to the memory of Major-General Sir William Bridges, K.C.B., and the sons of Australia who have given their lives in the service of their God and King in this great war.

Others have laboured, and ye are entered into their labour. - S. John iv. 18.

Lei none forget how vast the debt
 We owe to those who died.
 Let none forge! the Others, marching
 With steps we feel no more;
 Whose bodies sleep.

∴ S. ir E. Haslings Do)lle.

These prayers and intercession have been compiled to help you to commune with God each day. As soldiers, you go forth in the name of Australia, to help the Empire in these days of war. Whilst we are proud of the response of our Australian manhood, we are deeply concerned to know and be assured, that no unworthy act of yours will sully the fair name of our country.

In the days of waiting, fighting and in the hours of solitude by day or night, this book will, I hope, be your companion, and in its words you will find the source of strength to endure, and of faith to believe, in Him Who has redeemed you from sin, and Who watches over you with love and care unceasing.

H. L. MELBOURNE.

Bishops Court Melbourne,
All Saints' Day 1915.

This very simple manual of prayers is offered to you who are on active service in the hope and with the earnest prayer that it may help you to pray regularly, and also to encourage you in the grim and serious task before you. It contains simple prayers for daily use, prayers for special needs, short prayers to be learned by heart; and on pages 25-32 you will find thoughts for each day for a fortnight. I trust the booklet will be helpful to you. Remember you are fighting for God, for honour and for liberty. That God Himself may be with you and that you may be brave and return with honour, is my humble prayer.

For My Wife.

MOST LOVING SAVIOUR, bless abundantly my dear wife, and give her Thy special grace. Do Thou be her constant support and stay whilst we are separated, and protect her from all dangers and anxieties. Deepen our love for each other, and grant that we may be true to our promises, especially during our absence from each other, and, if it be Thy will, bring us safely together again; for Thy Name sake. Amen.

For My Children.

HEAVENLY FATHER, who hast given me the blessing of home and children, and who hast called me to leave my dearest for awhile to serve Thee in this war, I commend them to Thy keeping. Be very near to them. Make them obedient, loving and gentle. Grant that they may grow up in Thy faith and fear, and that I, together with them, may serve Thee truly all my days; through JESUS CHRIST our SAVIOUR. Amen.

HEAVENLY FATHER, bless, I pray Thee, my father and mother, and sustain them in this time of sorrow and comfort them in our separation and grant that, whether or not we meet again in this world, we may be re-united in Thy Heavenly Kingdom; through JESUS CHRIST our LORD. Amen.

For the Chaplains.

O JESU, the Good Shepherd, I humbly pray Thee to bless the ministers of Thy Gospel now serving at the front and in hospitals. Make them to be true shepherds of Thine, and give them love, wisdom and sympathy in their work. Give also to me and all to whom they minister, grace to benefit by their care for us, that we may be drawn closer to Thee O Saviour; for Thine own Name's sake. Amen.

For Doctors, Nurses and Ambulance Workers.

Grant to the doctors special skill, to the nurses sympathy and patience, to ambulance workers endurance and protection. Vouchsafe Thy blessing to Red Cross workers, and all those in their home lands who are helping in this work of mercy. Amen.

For Comrades.

O LORD GOD OF HOSTS, who alone canst give us victory, strengthen us against our enemies. Help each of us to play the man and thus encourage one another to fight bravely on. For Purity.

ALMIGHTY GOD, unto whom all hearts be open, all desires known, and all humors secret, I beseech Thee to keep me from all impure thoughts and words. Suffer me never by any uncleanness to defile my body, his, the temple of the Holy Spirit. Guard my heart, I pray, that I may not harbour any unclean thoughts, and grant that, being kept pure and clean body and soul, I may be Thine for ever; for JESUS CHRIST'S sake. Amen.

23

When Sick or Wounded.

O SAVIOUR, look with love and piety upon me Thy servant. Have mercy upon me, and help me to bear my sickness and my wounds patiently. Be ever with me and support my weakness. Bless and sanctify every pain, and enable me, through suffering, to learn to love Thee more and more. If it be Thy gracious will, restore me to health and strength, that I may yet again serve my country, and evermore glorify Thy HOLY NAME. Amen.

Thanksgiving for Recovery.

O MOST GRACIOUS GOD, who hast in Thy great mercy restored me to health and lengthened my days upon the earth, grant that I may devote the life which Thou hast spared, entirely Thy service.
