THE CHRONICLE SPEAKS.

I am a little paper called "The Chronicle." I come as a MESSAGE to YOU from All Saints' Church, to notify services and meetings, and to tell you of the work of the Parish in the cause of Christ, and to assure YOU of WELCOME to the services.

If you can give the District Visitor who brings me, a REGULAR MONTHLY DONATION for the funds of the Church, she will be pleased to receive it; but, if not, the lack of money will not prevent me coming into your home. I am a link between you and your Church, and I want to become a very strong one; so strong that you will be really interested, and that you will make a well-beaten track between your home and All Saints!

THE RECTOR'S LETTER.

All Saints' Rectory,

Dear People of All Saints',—

30th July, 1938.

This letter was commenced 500 miles away from Sydney, where I had opportunities for reading which are so hard to come by at home. I have been very interested in a little book of Donald Soper, called "Popular Fallacies about the Christian Faith," wherein the author deals with the difficulties of people to-day who do not believe in Christianity. He very truly says these people are "held up by ideas ABOUT religion, which they sincerely think are correct, whereas actually they are nothing better than fallacies."

The following fallacy is so very, very common, in fact we meet it every day in one form or another, that I can't help passing it on to you. It is the fallacy that the Christian life was never intended for everybody; it is a matter of temperament. On page 4 I pass on to you Mr. Soper's words; they may fall into the hands of someone who has been hindered by this very difficulty.*

The matter claiming our attention is the forthcoming Consecration Festival which we shall commemorate on Sunday, August 21st. We cannot make this festival all that we hope it may be, unless we have your utmost co-operation. As you know, we always make this Festival a "Back-to-All-Saints" Sunday, and I hope you are already in touch with former parishioners, extending to them our cordial invitation to come back to their old Parish Church to join with us in worship, at least once on that Sunday. Not only do we wish you to invite past parishioners, but we ask your help in regard to present parishioners, especially those who do not come regularly, or who do not come at all, by extending to them a special invitation to our Festival. Above all, please remember the services in your daily prayers.

We particularly hope that all the men who are Communicants will be present at the early Celebration on August 21, and will accept this invitation to the Men's Communion Breakfast which follows. I refer you to page 5 of this issue, where you will find particulars of the services for our Festival.

Will those parishioners who have collecting boxes which we have been using for the past four months (in lieu of a fete) please return them on August 21? For those who did not take a box, there is a special envelope issued with this "Chronicle," in which you will please place your special offering, representing what you would have expended had a fete been held.

Our Festival will be further marked by the Parish Tea and Social Reunion, on Thursday, August 25. All Saints' Parish Teas have been so wonderfully successful and so greatly appreciated in years gone by, that we feel we have established a standard which must be maintained. Donations are requested from those who may be willing to give a table, or share with others in this gift, and promises of donations in kind will be very welcome. Admission to the Tea and Social Reunion will be by ticket, which costs one shilling, and which may be secured from the District Visitors, or any of the Church Officers. I am sure you will appreciate the value we set upon the sale of tickets. It is only by such sale that we can hope to approximate the number for whom we shall have to provide. If, therefore, you intend coming to the Tea—as we hope you do—will you please buy your ticket as soon as possible?

His Grace the Archbishop has kindly accepted my invitation to be with us at the Tea, and Canon R. B. S. Hammond will speak at the Reunion afterwards.

As already intimated Confirmation Classes will commence on Tuesday, August 2nd, for women and girls, and on Thursday, August 4th, for men and boys, both classes being held at the Rectory, and commencing at half-past seven each week. It is most essential that candidates for Confirmation should attend regularly. If you are really in earnest about your Confirmation, the Preparation Classes will come before all other engagements.

I am grateful to Mr. Pattison and all those who assisted him to "keep the flag flying" during my absence—the Reverends David Creighton, R. B.

Robinson, F. A. Walton, A. W. Morton, A. E. Gardner, and Canon Garnsey. Also to Mr. R. F. Atkinson for his address at the Children's Service, and to Miss Atkinson for taking my classes at Petersham Infants' School.

Very sincerely yours,

*FROM "POPULAR FALLACIES ABOUT THE CHRISTIAN FAITH."

(The following is the fallacy to which reference is made in the Rector's Letter.

It may help some of us to get our thinking about the Christian Religion straight.—Editor.)

"The Christian life was never intended for everybody; it's a matter of temperament. Those who are religious can't help it, and those who are not, can't do anything about it." I always associate this attitude in my mind with those short stories in magazines in which Jones recounts to his friends around the fireside an amazing experience which happened to him when he was big game hunting in '94. I'm sure you will recognise this: "There I stood face to face with that man-eater without a bullet left in my gun. Well, you fellows know that I'm not a religious man, but—etc., etc., etc." Now what is it that Jones is inferring when he says that "he is not a religious man?" He's certainly not apologising for it, but is assuming that being religious or not is no more a question of choice in his case than the names of his parents or the colour of his hair. What he means is—"You know I'm not built that way." People like this will often go on to say, with shameless impudence, that religion is all right for women and children, it suits them—as if it were never intended for their husbands and fathers. I expect that if any persons read this they will remember having been told by the master of the house where they have been paying a pastoral call, "Oh, yes, my wife comes to your Church—but you see I've got the garden; that's more in my line."

Let us clear some of the mental obstacles out of the way in order to see this contention in its true light. There are infinite varieties of religious experience, that is clear. The mystic way, for example, is not open to all: Seeing visions is a matter of temperament, and the doors that were open to a mystic like St. John of the Cross, are closed to many of us, no matter how devout we are. But mysticism is not the only door into the Christian life, or even a main entrance. Again, the life of St. Thomas a Kempis was set against the background of monastic quietness, and was made up largely of prayer and meditation, out of which he wrote the immortal "Imitation of Christ": the life of Keir Hardie was set in the hurly-burly of the political arena, and was largely composed of action and propaganda, out of which sprang the modern working class movement in England. Both were deeply religious men, although their personalities were so widely dissimilar.

It is a fact, which anyone can verify, that the idea of there being a certain type of person like our friend Jones, who is constitutionally unresponsive to the appeal of religion, is quite wrong. Every live Church contains its wrestling Jacobs, its patient Stephens, its Marys and its Marthas. The truth is this: The Christian life is for ALL, for we are all made for God; the way in which we live it out is for EACH, for each has his own personality through which his religion must be expressed. I am temperamentally unsuited to express the Christianity I cherish as St. John of the Cross did; so I fancy would Jones be; but whether or not the Christian life is for me does not depend on whether I'm like St. John, but whether I'm like God. If, as I believe, we are all His children, then there's a place for us all in His Home. You can't stereotype the religious life, but when it is faithfully lived out in all the variety with which individual believers can adorn it, it's not difficult to see that it is the same in everybody—"a unity of the spirit, in the bond of peace and in righteousness of life." . . .

—Donald Soper.

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL.

Women's Guild.—At the meeting of the Guild held on 14th July the members decided that they should provide a stall at the C.M.S. Fete this year instead of sending a donation, as formerly. It is to be a "Christmas Gift Stall" and, should this catch the eye of any parishioner, who would like to help this splendid work by sending a gift, Miss Adams will be pleased to receive the same. The Fete is to be held on August 16th. Keep this date free and come along to the Town Hall, Sydney, and buy your Christmas gifts. The meetings for August are: August 11, Business and Gift Evening for C.M.S. Fete; August 25, Festival Tea.

Parish Social.—The first of these Social Reunions organised by Miss Adams, which it is proposed to hold quarterly, was held on Wednesday, 27th July. There was a good attendance. A musical programme was contributed to by the Misses Phillips and Williams, the lady members of the Choir and the choristers, and Mr. C. Potter. Y.P.U. members were seen in a series of tableaux depicting "The Seasons." Supper was provided by members of the Women's Guild, Girls' Club and Y.C.I. Mrs. Brady arranged the competitions and Mrs. Phillips and Miss Sutherland kindly acted as accompanists. Mrs. Morris, our Flower Convenor, arranged the supper tables with Iceland Poppies. We were pleased to welcome our Rector back after his holiday. The date for the next of these social evenings will be during the last week in October, when we hope to have a larger attendance, as the weather will be more propitious for such functions. Proceeds are for the Curate Fund.

Girls' Club.—At the meeting of the Club on 11th July the Club again decided to provide a table at the Festival Tea on 25th August. Members are busy working on a knitted quilt, each member being responsible for a number of squares. It is hoped to have it completed by next meeting, when it will be sent to Deaconess Tickell, of the H.M.S., for her district. The meetings for August are: August 8, Bible Study (the Rector); August 22, Manuscript Journal.

All Saints' Sunday School.—There is little to report this month from the School; the work has gone along as usual. Preparations are about to commence for the "Children's Festival" in October, details of which will be given later. We are again pleased to report another addition to the staff, we gladly welcomed Miss Arkinstall, who commenced teaching in the Junior School.—R. F. Atkinson, Hon. Secretary.

C.E.B.S. (Juniors).—During this month there has been great activity amongst the boys at the various meetings. For one meeting night, the Junior C.E.B.S. and the Junior Cricket Club combined for a Pound Night. During the evening the cricket cups for last season were presented by Mr. J. M. Boyle, who proved to be a great favourite with the boys. We wish to thank the following donors for the cups, Mrs. Gray, Mr. Bannan, and Mr. W. T. Pattison, and also Messrs. George Hammond and Eric Staples for their entertainment. Another great event was the Indoor Cricket Match against St. Oswald's, Haberfield. However, All Saints' won by 248 runs. Well done, All Saints'. The boys are looking forward to meeting St. Luke's, Concord, on August 5th. Dick Bosward is the captain and we wish them luck.—P. D. Brady, Leader.

Acknowledgment.—The Revd. F. O. Hulme-Moir, General Secretary of the Church Missionary Society, writes as follows:—

"Even though I notice the receipt for the contribution of £10/15/6 (Ten pounds, 15/6) from All Saints' Petersham, for Medical Missions, has been taken, I feel I should like to write to ask you to thank the parishioners for their very splendid help at this time.

"We do value the loyal help given to the missionary cause by the people of All Saints', and appreciate their support of the Medical Appeal. Now that we have Dr. White in Tanganyika, we feel we have an added responsibility to maintain medical missionary work."

Junior Football Club.—The boys have shown keen interest in the games played and are coming third so far in the competition. Two of our players, Harold Robertson and Ken. Gieves, have been selected to play in a team to represent the Protestant Churches. We congratulate these two lads on being selected. The boys had to buy a new soccer ball and need 7/- (seven shillings) to fully pay for it. Would some kind-hearted parishioner or parishioners come forward and pay this debt for us, please—A. T. Pattison.

Junior Cricket Club.—We are thinking of cricket again, as entries have to be in next month. A wonderful offer has been made by Mr. R. Atkinson, who offers us three "Don Bradman" cricket bats for six shillings each. We would like to purchase these bats immediately. Would any reader please give something towards the cost of them? Any amount would be thankfully received. Please hurry, as this matter is urgent.—A. T. Pattison.

Y.C.I. Chronicle Report.—The next Y.C.I. Dance and Card Evening will be held in the School Hall on Saturday, August 13. Members and friends are requested to make the function as widely known as possible, so that a success will be assured. The proceeds are earmarked for the Parish Hall Fund.

The issue of the Manuscript Journal released at the meeting on July 8th was up to the usual standard. The editorial dealt with the Jewish Question in Totalitarian Countries; whilst other submissions covered the Test Matches, the Y.C.I. Dance, Manners, etc., etc.

A Club Room Night was held on July 22nd, so that members could indulge in billiards, table tennis, quaits, and at the same time keep an ear open listening to the scores in the Leeds Test Match. This was made possible by the generosity of Mr. Maurice Buckley, who has installed his radio set in the club room for the English cricket season.

It is pleasing to report that during the last few months the Y.C.I. membership has increased. The Membership Committee feels, however, that there is still a number of men in the Parish who are not linked up with any of the organisations of the Church, and is both willing and anxious to discuss with them the wisdom of membership.—D. B. Hunter, Press and Literature Superintendent.

Sympathy.—We desire to extend our sincerest sympathy to Mrs. Slee of North Street in the passing of her sister recently at Windsor. Also to Mr. A. E. Goff of Addison Road; to Mrs. Brown and the family of the late Mrs. McIlvenna of Denison Road; and to Mr. C. C. Reid of Shaw Street, in their recent bereavements.

Just as we go to press, the sad news has come of the very sudden passing of William Thomas Pattison, beloved father of the Revd. A. T. Pattison, our esteemed curate. No words can express our thoughts for his mother, grandmother, and himself; we can only pray that they may know, in very special measure, the consolation of God's love.

A Prayer for the Special Offertory.—Almighty Father, the giver of all good things, Who art pleased to receive the offerings of Thy people, and lovest a cheerful giver, bless, we pray Thee, the special offertory this month for the work of our parish. Open the hearts of all that they may offer to Thee as Thou hast prospered them. Help us to make our offerings a real sacrifice, acceptable, well-pleasing to Thee; and to offer not only our money but ourselves, our souls and bodies to be a reasonable, holy, and living sacrifice unto Thee; through Jesus Christ our Lord.—Amen.
