Dear Nathaniel

We were very pleased to receive a letter from you this morning it seems a very long time since we heard from you we were wondering why you did not write but we are very glad to hear you are all well Thank you very much for your book you sent us I hope we shall enjoy reading it I have just been starting aunt Mary and aunt Mary to Rhyf we think of following them tomorrow just for a week or so it is rather late in the year to go to the sea side but Fanny could not get away earlier. A lady called here the other day Mrs Lawford who lives just above Essex a friend of Mrs Mitchells, I don't know if you ever heard her speak of her, I was rather sorry we were from home and did not see her. She left word with one of our neibours to say her son was going to sail for Sydney and she would like to see me and to have your address I think her son is going to be a sailor

She said she would call again some other day but I have not seen her I don't know how she found me out here Mrs. Mitchell went to see her when she was staying at Bronggodfa perhaps she would get your address from them. I had a letter from Mary this morning I think they are all well she said they were invited to Middleton to tea this afternoon Uncle is very friendly and very nice I am very glad I have no particular news to tell you Jennie joins me with kind love to you all hoping to hear from you soon Believe me your Loving Mother
