

THE PRINCIPAL'S LODGE,
ST JOHN'S HALL,
Highbury, N.

Ap. 12. 1901.

My dear Sir,

London University will open its Divinity Degrees to all-comers in the same way as it does now ^{for other degrees}; but those students who are not connected with one of the recognised schools of the University in London will have to come to London to sit for the examinations.
So I fear that - for the present at any rate - the University will be of no assistance to Moore College, Sydney.

I may say that the regulations for

THE PRINCIPAL, 1800
OF JOHN'S HALL
THE UNIVERSITY
Divinity Degrees are not drawn up yet and the University is not likely to get into working order under the new scheme for at least a year.

I understand that you were once lecturer here. May I presume on this fact in asking you if you would very kindly preach in our College Chapel on Wed. May 15 at 8 p.m.?
It would give me great pleasure if you would.

Yours very faithfully,
A. W. Greenup.
