

AUSTRALIAN CHURCH WOMEN

NSW STATE UNIT INC.

MINUTES OF COUNCIL MEETING, 2nd floor 222 Pitt Street, Monday 15 November, 2010, 10.30 a.m.

WELCOME: The President, Nola Dickson welcomed everyone

DEVOTIONS: Based on Hearing from Mark's Gospel. Jesus took a boat out from shore to preach from so his voice would carry to all the people gathered to hear his words on the 'Sower.' So often we hear but do not understand, we must really listen. When Jesus told the Disciples about His death to come, they didn't understand the full implication of His words, so their reaction showed their ignorance. Jesus didn't come to us full of worldliness, He had to listen and learn just as we do. Nola then prayed expressing our gratefulness for all that Jesus' coming has meant to the world

PRESENT: 39 as recorded. APOLOGIES: Edith Ridge, Martha Noel, Lily Hanlon, Jennifer Peffer, Heather Badgery, Bonnie Lyons, Beryl Duncan, Shirley Wells, Beryl Kirkwood, Isabel Hewitt and Shirley Mitchell.

Campaign for Care of Older Australians which is composed of all faith – based providers, wants Government to prioritise aged care reforms. Older Australians need to be given a choice in the type of services they can access. Disadvantaged and vulnerable people need to be given preference in assistance so they don't miss out on care they need. Aged care providers need to be put on a sustainable footing because about 50% are in financial vulnerability. Government funded Ethics classes are to held at same time as SRE classes which are run by volunteers, compassion and understanding for all asylum seekers, Church Mission Groups foster understanding between Aboriginal and Non-Aboriginal people, rate of Aboriginals in jail due mainly to poverty. Pray for those suffering violence in Middle East, for those in Indonesia suffering effects of Tsunami, earthquake disasters and those in Haiti hit by another typhoon.

FUNCTIONS ATTENDED/TO ATTEND: PPSEAWA Luncheon, Concord West Uniting Church Community Day Service, AWC Launch of Healthy Happy Women, Interfaith Service for Peace.

PRESIDENT'S BUSINESS: Nola reported on the functions she attended.

Nola invited Winsome, Lyn and Lillian to give the committee brief accounts of their recent travels.

Winsome and her husband left in May, the main object of their trip was to attend the Passion Play in Oberammergau. On to Hong Kong, Niagara Falls, Boston, London where they visited Spurgeon's Tabernacle. Next a coach tour taking in Belgium, Germany, (for the play), Switzerland, Italy, Monaco, Nice, Spain, Gibraltar, San Francisco and Yosemite Park.

Next Lyn told us that she and Ken flew to Canada to begin their travels, Rocky Mountains, Alaskan Cruise, Skag way, tour on railway to White Pass Summit, built in 1880's, over to London, then onto Oberammergau for play, Dresden, saw Lutheran Cathedral fully restored, last stop was Berlin, Lyn told us about the cross that catches the sun and shines out over what was a divided city, despite many efforts to stop the cross reflecting, no one has succeeded.

Lillian and her husband were part of a group being honoured for 35 years of service with a trip to 'where Paul walked.' This was Lillian's first trip overseas. Saw great poverty, with many beggars. They saw Gallipoli and Anzac Cove, sang New Zealand anthem then ours as they joined with other visitors. They found visiting the cemetery a very moving experience. Saw the Acropolis in Athens, visited Turkey, Napoli, found the Blue Grotto inspiring, Venice, Switzerland, Paris, London, never thought to see the White Cliffs of Dover and the blue birds that Vera Lyn sang about but she did! Her husband became very ill but with God's Grace all things worked for the good and he received wonderful care and so did she.

Norma Dumbrell was reminded of Myanmar when Lyn spoke of the Cross on the TV tower. She expressed joy at the release of Aung San Suu Kyi. Norma is returning to Myanmar in the New Year, she asked for our prayers for the safety and health of their group.
