(Address on separate sheet)

Correspondence:- (Miss Roseby)

(a) re Women's representation with Australian Council of Churches. Miss Roseby has contacted Rev. Garrett on this matter. In reply, he writes, "...Women's Inter-Church Council and other groups are urged to join the 'World Council Fellowship' and thus become intimately related to the World Council of Churches. (Presumably, representation with the Aus/n Council of Ch/es automatically functions through the World C/l of Ch/es.)

(b) Rev. Norman Cocks of the London Missionary Soc/y has notified Miss Roseby that a Production of Dicken's "Christmas Carols" will be held on Dec. 19th. He will be pleased to donate a proportion of the funds to 'Wybalena'. The I-C Council is asked to plan a Musical Interlude and to arrange floral decorations for the Stage.

(c) re Meeting at Chapter House on August II. Delegates from the World Convention of Churches of Christ returning Overseas from Melbourne were entertained and received at the ~~Australian Tourist Hotel~~ ^{Meeting} _{V. 3}. Some members of the Council helped with the floral decorations and refreshments; a letter of thanks has been received.

Address (Mrs. Moffitt). Senior Social Welfare worker for -----N.S.W. within the Commonwealth Dept. of Immigration.

The speaker based her Address upon her work in connection with Displaced Persons: her task is to investigate individual cases of distress etc., She said that of all migrants to Australia, one third of them were in New South Wales. Holding accommodation Camps were situated at widely separated townships, (e.g. Greta, Cowra, Chulbora, Parkes, Bathurst, Regents Park and other X centres. Single women, men and married couples who were fitted for domestic duties or for Hospitals were placed where accommodation was provided. Some Camps or Hostels were for men only, whilst others were for women only.
Unfortunately, this meant that often families were living apart: the wide distances between Camps often prevented even week end reunions. Consequently family anxieties and suspicions arose, resulting in infidelity, delinquency and even divorce.

At Chullora Railway Workshops migrants were encouraged to join the various Mens social Organisations; through these contacts, language difficulties and ways of living and understanding were mastered. Children attending Public Schools very quickly became familiar with their new language and mode of living. The mothers who remain out of industry but in Camps, are often difficult to cope with.
They are slow in grasping the new language, and the lack of foregathering with their new neighbours retard their assimilation. The need of club work has been recognised by both Governmental bodies and voluntary social workers.

The New Settlers League has grown out of a Convention at which representatives of Churches, public bodies & Government bodies Depts have co-ordinated to carry out this work on a non-party non-sectarian level. Newspapers & Pamphlets serve as aids to the understanding of our "New Neighbours."
