Anzac Day Prayer

Lord of the Universe! We recall in humble gratitude this day the valour and devotion of our countrymen who on a far distant shore so gallantly jeopardized their lives unto death upon the high places of the field to earn immediately a glorious place among the nations for our young Commonwealth, and to lay a foundation of the eventual victory of the honourable cause in which Britain and her Dominions took up arms. Their honoured memory yet stimulates us, and shall stimulate those who come after us, to patriotic service and unselfish comradeship.

Father of Peace! in Whose hand are the souls of the living and the dead, O remember for good all Thy brave children who were ready to lay down their lives at the call of King and Country. Send healing to the wounded, and bless them again with bodily vigour. Let not in vain have been the sacrifice of those who are no longer in the land of the living. May their death bring nearer an end to all hatred and defiance of right among nations. Implant Thou a new heart and a faithful spirit in the peoples; and hasten the day when the children of men shall understand that they have one Father, that One God created all of us. O speedily spread Thy tabernacle of peace over all the dwellers on earth.—AMEN.

Memorial Prayer

We therefore hope in thee, O Lord our God that we may speedily behold the glory of thy might, when thou wilt remove the abominations from the earth and the idols will be utterly cut off, when the world will be perfected under the kingdom of the Almighty, and all the children of flesh will call upon thy name, when thou wilt turn unto thyself all the wicked of the earth. Let all the inhabitants of the world perceive and know that unto thee every knee must bend, every tongue must swear fealty. Before thee O Lord our God, let them bow and fall; and unto thy glorious name let them give honour; let them all accept the yoke of thy Kingdom and do thou reign over them speedily and for ever and ever. For the Kingdom is thine, and to all eternity thou wilt reign in glory; as it is written in thy Law. The Lord shall reign for ever and ever. And it is said: And the Lord shall be king over all the earth: in that day shall the Lord be One, and his name One.

Mourners' Kaddish

Magnified and sanctified be his great name in the world which he hath created according to his will. May he establish his kingdom during your life and your days, and during the life of all the house of Israel, even speedily and at a near time, and say ye, Amen.

Let his great name be blessed for ever and to all eternity.

Blessed, praised and glorified, exalted, extolled and honoured, magnified and lauded by the name of the Holy One, blessed be he; though he be high above all the blessings and hymns, praise and consolations, which are uttered in the world; and say ye, Amen.

May there be abundant peace from heaven, and life for us and for all Israel: and say ye, Amen.

He who maketh peace in his high places, may he make peace for us and for all Israel; and say ye Amen.

ONE MINUTE SILENCE

THE REVEILLE

The National Anthem

SUNG BY ALL PRESENT

I.

God save great George, the King;
Long live our noble King;
God save the King!
Send him victorious,
Happy and glorious,
Long to reign o'er us;
God save the King!

II.

O Lord our God, arise,
Scatter his enemies,
Make war to cease;
Keep us from plague and dearth,
Turn all our woes to mirth;
And over all the earth
Let there be peace!
