THE RECTOR'S LETTER

All Saints' Rectory,
21st February, 1953.

Dear People of All Saints',

One of the advantages of a Harvest Thanksgiving is that it serves to remind us that we should be continually relating our religion to what we call the ordinary things of life. At the Annual Harvest Festival we are reminded that the God we worship is the God of Nature, and that what we call the ordinary processes of Nature, which reach their climax at harvest time, are, in fact, miracles of God's working. Harvest Thanksgiving will never fail, because it renders thanks to God for the fruits of the good earth. It provides a healthy corrective to much of our modern thought by reminding us that man is utterly dependent upon his Maker.

We record our sincere thanks for ALL our parishioners who co-operated in making our Harvest Festival so successful. Particularly are we grateful to those who decorated the church so beautifully; to the choir for its effective work in the Service of Praise, which is so important a factor in such services; and to those who sent the many useful gifts, which included a fine response from the Kindergarten and Senior Sunday Schools at their own service. We appreciate, too, the practical help of Mr. A. H. Thomas and his helpers in transporting our gifts to the Home of Peace after the Evening Service, where they were very gratefully received. We would like to have seen more people at the morning services, but that was the only disappointment in an otherwise happy day of real thanksgiving. Gratitude has been called "the clue to successful living": some of us have not yet found the clue!

This letter is written at the beginning of Lent, when we are challenged once again to look into our own lives to see whether we are really fighting all that leaves God out, or whether we are taking the line of least resistance and just following the crowd. We who live in 1953, who have seen vast realms of new knowledge made available for man; who have seen so great an enrichment of the material side of life; we, who, in the light of all these privileges, ought to be able to see the glory and grandeur of God as no generation has ever yet seen them, are largely failing to see God in it at all, which accounts in no small measure for the unhappy state of our world.

We hope you will make use of the opportunities your Church provides for the proper observance of Lent and Holy Week, which commences on Palm Sunday, March 29, and includes Good Friday. Once again we protest against everything that mars the solemnity of this, the most sacred day in the whole year. What right have we to call ourselves a Christian nation when we permit the day on which our Lord was crucified for us and for all men to be used as a day devoted to pleasure and material gain? In this issue you will find details of the services arranged for Holy Week and Easter Day.

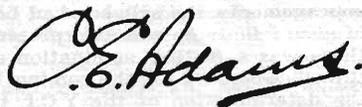

Lenten Boxes and Envelopes for our self-denial offerings have already been issued. All our Lenten gifts received in this way are given for the work of the Australian Board of Missions and the Church Missionary Society. Notwithstanding the needs of our own parish—and this year they are very great—I trust we shall not fall behind with our Lenten gifts for the missionary work of the Church.

We commend to you the Jubilee Fund (launched on Christmas Day) for church renovation. The first need is a new church roof which will be a very costly job. We do need the utmost support and co-operation of every Anglican family in the parish and all our friends. May we count on YOUR help? If you are a church-goer you will obtain the special box for the Jubilee Fund when next you come; if you are not, ask your District Visitor, who will gladly procure one for you.

The next "Chronicle" will be issued on Easter Day. Gifts of white flowers for the Festival will be very acceptable and should be left at the Church or Rectory on Saturday morning, April 4.

With all good wishes for a holy, happy Easter.

Yours very sincerely,

MATTERS MAINLY PAROCHIAL

Lenten Services.—In addition to the usual Sunday services there will be a Celebration of Holy Communion each Wednesday morning in Lent at 10.30 and Evening Prayer with Intercessions on Wednesday evenings at 7.45. We are using for our mid-week Meditations, Canon Edward Carpenter's "That Man Paul" (The Bishop of London's Lent Book). On the Sunday evenings in Lent the Rector gives a series of addresses on "Great Hymn Writers and their Hymns":—

February 22: Isaac Watts.

March 1: Charles Wesley.

March 8: William Cowper and John Newton.

March 15: John Henry Newman and John Keble.

March 22: Henry Francis Lyte and Bishop Reginald Heber.

Women's Guild.—The Card Evening and Dance held in conjunction with the Fellowship on 4th February in aid of the Jubilee Fund was very successful. When all moneys are returned we hope to have not less than £20 for the Fund. We plan to hold more of these functions during the year; Wednesday, May 13th, being the date of the next one.

On Thursday, February 12th, we held the usual Gift Evening for the Home of Peace, when Mrs. Menzies and Matron gave interesting talks about the Home. We thank all friends for their gifts. The next Sewing Day at the Home will be Monday, 9th March, and we hope many will attend as there is plenty of work to be done. Parishes much further away from the Home send many more helpers than we do.

We hope all members will attend the important Annual Meeting on Thursday, March 12th.—V. LUCAS, Secretary.

Reunion of Confirmees.—His Grace, The Archbishop, will take a Reunion Service in the Cathedral for all who have been confirmed either during the past year or in previous years, on the Monday evening in Holy Week, March 30th, at 7.45 p.m. The Rector hopes that many of the young people from this parish will be present at that service.

Sunday School.—On the morning of Sunday, February 15th, a large number of boys and girls were seen converging on All Saints' carrying various objects, some wrapped in paper and some unwrapped. These objects were many kinds of fruit and vegetables, eggs (yes, eggs despite their high cost), and all manner of groceries, all being gifts for the Children's Harvest Thanksgiving Service.

The artistic manner in which our church was decorated, the display of produce, the singing of the Harvest Hymns, the story of "Big Bill the Blacksmith," the big attendance of scholars and the presentation of the gifts, all combined to make a very happy service and impressed on all that in the words of the well-known hymn: "All good things around us are sent from Heaven above." We wish to thank the scholars for their splendid effort and also thank parents for their co-operation.

Lenten self-denial boxes have been issued to scholars and we trust that parents will encourage their children in this effort to help on the work of missions.—R. F. ATKINSON, Superintendent,

Y.C.I.—The Forty-second Annual Meeting of the Y.C.I., which is the men's club of the Parish, was held in the Institute's Club Room on Friday, 20th February, 1953. The Rector, who is our president, was chairman, and there was a large attendance of members although the weather was unfavourable. The Hon. Secretary's Report disclosed that, despite many discouragements, the syllabus had been carried out in its entirety and the spirit of good fellowship was ever present. Four new members recently enrolled and there was a further nomination at the meeting. There was little change in the office-bearers for the coming Institute year. Several speakers emphasised the determination of the Y.C.I. to make a forward move and stressed the need for more publicity so that all men of the Parish will know that our organisation exists for the promotion of the spiritual, intellectual and social welfare of men. The Y.C.I. will gladly welcome applications for membership. The Rector and the church officers will furnish any information.—L.C.C.

Jubilee Fund.—The Rector and Churchwardens ask again for the interest, co-operation and support of ALL Anglicans in the Special Jubilee Appeal for Church renovation, as outlined in the January and February "Chronicles."

As already intimated, the boxes will be recalled and re-issued throughout the year. The first box-opening will be on Sunday, March 29th. Will you please bring or send your box on that day, when another box bearing your number will be issued, to which you will add your name and address.

We acknowledge with thanks the following gifts:—Anonymous, £2/10/-; Mrs. Handel, 10/-; Mrs. Wyborn, 1/-; Box No. 65, Mrs. Hutchins, £1/1/-; previously acknowledged, £107/8/9; total to date, £111/10/9.

MAKE A NOTE OF THE DATE — MARCH 29

Personal.—We offer our sincere sympathy to the following parishioners in their bereavement: Mrs. Rivett, in the death of her husband; Mr. and Mrs. Jacobs, whose only son died as the result of an accident; and Mr. Hankin and his family, in the loss of his wife. We pray that they may be sustained and comforted in their sorrow by the power of the Holy Spirit.

C.E.F.—After six weeks' recess the Fellowship resumed activities on January 27th with an encouraging attendance of 33. We welcome all new probationary members and hope that after the usual three months' probation they will be initiated into full, active membership. On February 10th a Barbecue at Maroubra Beach provided an exciting time for participants. The year's syllabus will be discussed and arranged this month. Fellowship members are reminded of Corporate Communion, first Sunday in each month at 8 a.m.—MARY MARSH, Secretary.

District Visitors.—We welcome Mrs. V. Barrett, Mrs. K. N. Oldfield and Mrs. F. T. Millarey to our District Visitors' Association. Although we understand Mrs. Millarey is unable to take a district permanently, we are glad to have even temporary help. We thank Miss Howard for again doing Palace Street, for which district we need a regular Visitor. We apologise to our friends in the Brighton Street district for the late delivery of the January "Chronicle" but the Rector understood this would be done in his absence. Mrs. Adams kindly came to our aid in doing this and the Livingstone Road district.

To assist in the preparation of the "Chronicle" will those Visitors who cannot attend please hand in their lists not later than the day following the monthly meeting. Our meeting this month is on Wednesday, March 25, at 3 p.m.

Diocesan Festival.—The Diocesan Festival Tea is to be held on Friday, May 1st, when we hope to have our own table and trust our people will gather round it at this important reunion of the church people of the Diocese. Further particulars of the Tea and Public Meeting will be given next month.

Historical Pageant.—A colourful historical pageant, "The Church of Our Fathers," written by Bishop C. Venn Pilcher, will be presented in the Sydney Town Hall on Good Friday night, April 3rd, and again on Saturday and Monday evenings, April 4th and 6th at 7.45 p.m. Music by Bach, Handel, Beethoven and Mendelssohn will be presented by the Cathedral Choir and a special quartet under the direction of Dr. Vincent Shepherd, Acting Cathedral Organist, and Mr. L. Sage.

Don't miss this splendid opportunity of learning something of vital interest about your Church. Tickets are available at Church House, or may be obtained through the Rector. Tickets 6/- in reserved block; 4/- unreserved. Please tell the Rector as soon as possible the number of tickets required, intimating the date desired.

Commonwealth Public Service Anglican Fellowship.—The President writes as follows:

"The Fellowship was formed over 10 years ago to provide a basis of common fellowship for members of the Commonwealth Public Service who owe allegiance to the Church of England. Our objects are:—

1. To deepen the spiritual life of its members, and, by example and precept, induce others to lead a Godly life; 2. To foster a spirit of goodwill and friendship amongst members and all people; 3. To uphold and promulgate the doctrine of allegiance to Her Majesty the Queen of England.

"Our most important gathering is the Annual Communion Service at St. Andrew's Cathedral followed by a Corporate Breakfast. This year's service will be held on Sunday, 15th March, at 8.30 a.m. and the speaker at the Breakfast to follow at C.E.N.E.F. will be Mr. Justice Athol Richardson of the Supreme Court of New South Wales."

Will those interested in the Fellowship and wish to be informed of its activities, please telephone the President, XL 4333, or Miss M. A. Crook at XB 1351; Mr. W. Livermore, UL 3178 or Mr. W. Jones, LB 2203.

Ballet Classes.—Ballet lessons are being given every Saturday morning from 11.30 a.m. to 12.30 p.m. in the Parish Hall. No age limit. Fees 2/6 per hour but where there are two or more in one family fees are 1/6 per hour. The proceeds are for the Jubilee Fund. Teacher, Jacqueline Ditchburn.
