 THE ASTRONAUTS' PRAYER

We commend to your careful study the following prayer which Astronaut Commander Frank Borman recited from Apollo 8 on Christmas Day, 1968.

"Give us, O God, the vision which can see Thy Love in the world in spite of human failure,
 Give us the faith, the trust, the goodness in spite of our ignorance and weakness.
 Give us the knowledge that we may continue to pray with understanding hearts, and show us what each one of us can do to set forth the coming of the day of universal peace.—Amen".

 RECORD WINTER APPEAL RESPONSE

At June 30th, donations to the Archbishop's Winter Appeal totalled $21,571, compared with $13, 419 at the same stage last year. It is better than last year's total of $18,000, a record up to that time.

Parishioners still wishing to contribute may do so through the Parish Treasurer, Mr. W. Sopwith.

 LET THE RECTOR KNOW

Mrs. Huff is up the Miff Tree
 On a seat fixed good and firm;
 And she'd like to tell the Rector
 A few things and make him squirm.

Mrs. Huff was sick ahed, sir,
 Yes, sir, sick ahed a week,
 And the Rector didn't call, sir,
 Never even took a peek.

Then I asked her how the Doctor
 Knew that sickness laid her low,
 And she said that she had called him
 On the 'phone and told him so.

So the Doctor called to see her,
 But the Rector didn't go,
 For the Doctor knew her illness,
 And the Rector didn't know.

Now the Doctor gets his bill paid
 With a nicely written cheque,
 But the Rector, for not knowing,
 Simply gets it in the neck!

66TH CONSECRATION FESTIVAL

Special Services and Parish Tea

When the Reverend Canon R. E. Goddard became Rector of All Saints' in 1895, he soon realised that the debt on the church building was not only depressing to the parishioners, but a serious hindrance to the progress of the parish. He launched a campaign which culminated in a Golden Offertory on Sunday, 18th January, 1903, the success of which was reported in our Parish Paper of the following month:

"At the close of evening service, the large congregation, including many who usually attend the morning services only, sang several appropriate hymns during the collection of the Offertory, which the Wardens counted in the Vestry before it was presented at the Holy Table. With unfeigned pleasure, the Rector announced that the offering for the day exceeded by £95 the amount required to remove the debt. The Te Deum was then sung most impressively."

The debt being lifted, the Church became eligible for consecration, the ceremony of which was performed by Dr. Stanton, Bishop of Newcastle, on Saturday, 15th August, 1903. At the same time, various memorials were dedicated including a stained glass window, marble steps to the Sanctuary, and oaken Sanctuary rails on brass standards.

The Consecration of a Church is thus an important milestone in its history, and we at All Saints' commemorate it each year with special services and the annual parish tea.

Consecration Festival Services

These will be held on Sunday, 17th August. Please note that the mid-morning Family Service will take place at the special time of 10.30 a.m., when our Guest Preacher will be the Rev. W. V. Payne, Director of Counselling Services for the Home Mission Society. This work covers adoptions, the courts, new housing areas, and provision for spiritual and material comfort to those in need and trouble. Mr. Payne will be well worth hearing, and we hope for a large congregation for this special service.

The Rector will preach at the 8 a.m. and 6.30 p.m. Services on this Sunday.

Parish Tea — Friday, 15th August

On the Friday night before these Services, our annual Parish Tea will be held in the Parish Hall. There will be a hot meal at 6.15 p.m., Community Hymn Singing with introductory organ recital in the Church at 7 p.m., and a Social Programme in the Hall at 8 p.m.

Mr. David Hunter, M.L.A., who will be known to you as a most enjoyable speaker, will tell of his recent round-world trip to represent the Parliament of N.S.W. at the Commonwealth Parliament Association meeting in the Bahamas.

We cordially invite all parishioners, past parishioners and their friends to join us at this popular social event. Meal charges will be 50c. for adults, 25c. for children. Although this means the first increase in price since 1957, you still could not get a better hot meal anywhere in Sydney for twice this charge!

Visit of Canon R. E. Goddard

Last month, we were pleased to have a visit from Canon R. E. Goddard, grandson of the former Rector referred to above. The present Canon is a London Rector and a Chaplain to the House of Lords at Westminster. In the Rector's absence on holidays, the Canon was shown around All Saints' by Rev. A. H. Gallop, and reported that he was most impressed by the many improvements that had been made,

Further details of the history of our lovely parish church can be read in "The First Hundred Years" published in 1960 to mark the centenary of the first Anglican service in this district. Copies of the history, written by the late Mr. L. C. Calver, may be obtained on application to the Rector.

PERSONAL

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. Ken Grant, his family, and to Mr. and Mrs. O. Olofsson in the sudden loss of Mrs. Elvy Grant in a tragic road accident. Elvy played an active role in many aspects of parish life at All Saints', including the Sunday School, Choir, Fellowship, and sporting organisations, for quite a few years before moving to Ashfield after marriage. The funeral service took place in St. John's Church, where the Grant family have been actively associated in recent years.

We are also sorry to report that a number of folk known to us at All Saints' are ill in hospital at present. These include Mrs. J. Nye, Mrs. Jill Bate, Mrs. Perrott, and Mr. Keith Barber. To these and those ill at home, we express our hope for a speedy recovery.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Last month, Mr. Keith Dingle retired after 10½ years as the Leader of the Extension Group. This group comprises young people in the 15-18 years age group who have been confirmed and whom we have been able to retain in active contact with All Saints' through this Sunday morning discussion group. Many of our present Sunday School staff have benefitted from Mr. Dingle's guidance and influence during the past 10 years, and in fact, the Rector stipulates that confirmees must study in the group for at least twelve months before becoming teachers. On behalf of the Sunday School and Extension Group, I would like to thank Keith for his services to the Group.

I would also like to welcome Mr. John Nance as new leader of the Extension Group.

The Sunday School examinations were held last month and the results were very pleasing. I would like to remind the scholars who were absent on the day of the examination to come and complete it as soon as possible. By sitting for it, you will be in the running for a prize.

Fete: Once again, I would like to appeal to the parishioners for donations of sugar. If anyone would like to help make jam for us, could you please leave word at the Rectory, or notify any member of the Sunday School Staff.

NOEL CRAGG, Hon. Secretary

● Parishioners were interested to read in the papers last month that Mr. W. H. ("Bushy") Hall had retired from the Magistrate's Bench at Redfern. Mr. Hall's links with All Saints' go back to the time when he first came to Sydney to start work, and he was Parish Council Secretary for several years until he moved to Eastwood in 1966. We wish Mr. and Mrs. Hall a long, happy, and healthy retirement.

● Help for Parish Tea: The Rector would be glad to hear from any further ladies willing to help the Tableholders at this month's Parish Tea. All offers will be deeply appreciated. Please contact Mr. Champion direct if you can assist.

THE BOOKS OF THE BIBLE

THE EPISTLE TO THE HEBREWS

This Letter, unique in the New Testament, gives us no indication who wrote it, or indeed, to whom it was written. The suggestion that the Apostle Paul was the author is a late one and nothing in the earliest manuscripts of this Letter indicates that it comes from the hand of Paul. Many suggestions have been made as to who the author was, but they remain at the best, informed guesses.

We are in almost the same ignorance when the question is asked to whom was the Letter written. The title "to the Hebrews" is again absent from the earliest manuscripts and appears no earlier than the third Century.

The more productive questions are along the lines, why was this Letter written, and what is its message.

The only evidence lies within the Letter itself and New Testament scholars suggest several lines of approach to answer the question. In general terms, it is held that this Letter was written to prevent Jewish Christians from abandoning the Gospel and returning to the faith of their fathers. The Letter also urges the readers to break with an Old Testament past and to enter fully into the new Faith and to embrace its world mission to the nations.

Alongside these lines of thought there is the clear teaching of the Epistle of the absolute superiority of Christ and his achievement over every other form of religious activity.

We see this clearly illustrated as we turn to the Letter itself. In the first ten chapters it sets out the superiority of Christ in every sphere. First, He is demonstrated, from the Old Testament Scriptures, to be superior to the angels who occupy so prominent a place in the then current Jewish mythology. After this, His superiority over the great Jewish leaders Moses and Aaron is argued in chapters 2 and 3. Then His ascendancy over the whole Jewish system of priesthood is argued through chapters 5 to 7 and lastly, the New Covenant and the final sacrifice of Jesus is shown not only to transcend the worship of the Old Testament but also shown to be effective and relevant for all men everywhere. Chapters 10, 11 and 12 give us some of the most powerful writing in the New Testament on the examples and the achievement of Faith.

The Letter ends with words of personal encouragement and instruction to its readers. Like other Letters in the New Testament, the errors that this Letter seeks to correct may not be the errors of our time, but the answers that it gives are eternal and form an integral part of total theology of the New Testament,

As this Epistle ends, it speaks of a Kingdom that cannot be shaken and we may well find this the greatest message of this Letter for our time, as we give thanks for the unshakeable Kingdom which we have inherited, which endures when all other things, it seems, in our day are being shaken before our eyes and beneath our feet.

"OF SPECIAL INTEREST"

● Confirmation, 1969: The preparation class is now being held at the Rectory each Wednesday evening at 7 p.m.; the Rector hopes for the regular attendance of all enrolled. In addition, those who are in either the Extension Group or Sunday School must also attend each Sunday morning for the additional tuition being given in these classes.

● Evensong: Our Sunday evening services will start at 6.30 p.m. throughout August, but will revert to 7 p.m. as from Sunday, 7th September.

● All Saints' Centenary: The centenary of the present All Saints' church building will be marked by celebrations extending from November, 1970 (when the laying of the original foundation stone will be commemorated) to October, 1971 (the 100th anniversary of the actual completion of building). The Parish Council's Steering Committee has put forward a varied list of events appropriate to the Centenary year, while it is hoped that all organisations will also play an active role in this great year. In particular, we hope that it can lead to an increase in our congregations and a return to the greater scale of parish activities that we were privileged to enjoy in former years.

● Movement of Anglicans: Speaking of falling numbers, the Rector of our neighbouring parish of Holy Trinity, Dulwich Hill quotes some interesting figures which we believe apply similarly to Petersham. Until recent years, he had some 2,000 Anglican families, but due to people moving out, this number has fallen to 520. In fact, he has been approached three times in the last two years to sell Holy Trinity to another community which seeks a Church in Dulwich Hill! In Dulwich Hill as in Petersham, it will take the faithful support of all parishioners to maintain the Church in a realistic manner while there is still time.

● Education Sunday: All parishioners, and particularly schoolchildren and their parents, are invited to attend All Saints' Education Week Service on Sunday, 10th August at 11 a.m. A special form of service will be used, and our speaker will be Miss J. A. Richardson, Inspector of Schools. Miss Richardson spoke at the recent Guild Luncheon and the Rector is sure that her message will be an appealing one to both young and old alike. He hopes for a good congregation.

Due to the special form of service, Holy Communion will not be celebration at 11 a.m. on 10th August.

"A DYING CHURCH"

The story is told of an artist who was engaged to paint the picture of a dying church. It was expected that he would portray a ramshackle old structure set in the midst of a neglected court, overgrown with weeds, with broken windows and surrounded by a general air of decrepitude. Instead the artist painted a picture of a stately building with expensive stained glass windows, a considerable expanse of richly carved wood a high and ornamental pulpit, and comfortable pews. In the vestibule, on a conspicuous corner of the wall, a box was placed. Across the front were the words FOR MISSIONS. Over the opening designated to receive contributions, the artist painted cobwebs.

FETE ROUND-UP

We have all the signs that the Fete set down for Saturday, 15th November will be another great occasion. There will be more stalls, and several stallholders said at the recent Fete meeting that they needed more display and selling space.

Here are some ways you can help the Fete effort:

Wool: Mrs. Ivy Clark would like to obtain your left-over pieces of wool. Any colour will be acceptable. Just forward to Mrs. Clark, or leave c/o the Rectory.

Jewellery: Mrs. Millarey still seeks gifts of jewellery, beads, filligree work etc. Even if broken, please send them along and Mrs. Millarey will repair them for re-sale. All donations most acceptable. Donations of stamps are also requested, as we can get good prices for these. Any except Australian 5c. stamps are sought.

Books and Magazines: The rate of receipt of books has been falling and Mrs. Reid urgently needs more to build up her stocks in readiness for the Fete. A lot of work is involved in sorting, pricing, and checking the books received, so please check your shelves and donate this month. Magazines, comics, paper backs, sporting magazines, etc. all welcome. Just 'Phone Mrs. Reid (56-2970) or Mr. Bert Shaw and collection will be arranged.

Plants and Flowers: If you can plant something now, it will be just right to pass over to the Mothers' Club in November. All types of plants shrubs, etc will be welcome, but preferably in pots.

Clocks and Watches: Mr. Arthur Cook appeals for clocks and watches that he can repair and sell on his stall. Please give early: it does take a lot of time to obtain the parts and get them in first class order again. Mr. Cook is also in a position to obtain top prices for old gold, and if you have any gold brooches, rings, sleeve links etc., he can sell them in aid of Fete funds. All contributions gladly accepted.

Jam: Please see the Sunday School item in this issue about sugar for jam.

A MESSAGE FROM THE ARCHBISHOP

Dear Friends,

You will be aware that the State Government has decided to hold a referendum in September or October on the question of Sunday hotel trading. This is a decision which should be applauded by all who have expressed concern about the possible course of further legislation in connection with the liquor laws.

There should now be no question of Government-sponsored legislation for which the voting public has not given a clear mandate.

The fact that a referendum is to be held gives us all the opportunity to register our own view on this question. If the majority is in favour, the minority must recognise that they do not carry enough weight to influence the decision. If the majority is not in favour, the minority must recognise that they are not justified in seeking to change the law.

I can only say that for my own part I hope the result of the referendum will be a resounding NO.

Bishop Hulme-Moir is President of the Committee for Responsible Liquor Reform which has been set up by the N.S.W. Council of Churches to lead the campaign against the opening of hotels on Sunday.

May I urge your support of the campaign and the Committee's request for assistance. The Standing Committee at its meeting last month voted a sum of $1000 to assist the Committee, but it is looking for much wider support from local Churches of every denomination.

Yours sincerely,

MARCUS LOANE

Archbishop of Sydney

AROUND THE ORGANISATIONS

Y.M. and Friends' Club:

We are grateful to all the parishioners who have been giving their newspapers to our appeal. We are pleased to report that the monthly collections are growing, and we look forward to the time when all parishioners are participating in the drive. Drop your papers along to the Parish Hall, or contact any Club member to arrange collection.

Our next meeting will be held in the Guild Room of the Parish Hall on Tuesday, 12th August at 8 p.m. We trust all members will attend, and also invite any interested ladies to join our Club.

—IDA BARRETT, Hon. Secretary

Senior Parishioners' Club:

The cold months of winter do not seem to have affected the attendances of our popular Social Club, held each Thursday at 1 p.m. in the Parish Hall. To most of our members, Thursday is a must, and it is very gratifying indeed to have so many happy folk come along each week.

New members are always welcome, there are prizes, and afternoon tea is provided. Your donation is voluntary and we can assure you of a pleasant way to spend an afternoon.

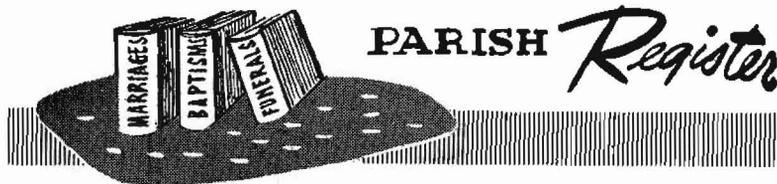

D. SHAW, Hon. Secretary

Indoor Bowls Club:

Much is written and said about Christian unity. No finer example can be seen than in the Churches' Indoor Bowls Competition. All denominations take part in an atmosphere of friendship, which surely makes the competition worthwhile.

Our club has had mixed fortunes in its last two matches. Against Moorefield Methodist, our teams won narrowly. Then, in the latest match against St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church, our home team played a 14-all draw, while the away team was beaten on the last bowl of the match, 15-14.

We still want more men and women players for our club. Please remember that it takes a while to learn the game, so keep attending every Wednesday night in the Parish Hall at 7.30 p.m.—J. GORMAN

● Wedding Bells: We extend best wishes to two of our well-known young folk in the persons of Diane Hird and Philip Dingle, who will be married at All Saints' on Friday evening, 22nd August. ● Y.C.I. President's Night: The Rector has obtained Mr. Michael Zantiotis as his guest speaker for President's Night at the Y.C.I. on Friday, 8th August, 1969. Mr. Zantiotis is a prominent Marrickville businessman and Rotary member, and will tell many interesting stories of his life in several parts of the world. We are sure all menfolk will enjoy meeting him, and the Rector hopes that all Y.C.I. members, as well as other folk of the Church, will accept his invitation to this Night. It will be held in the Y.C.I. room at 8 p.m., and supper will be served.

● You won't feel cold in All Saints' Church. The new heaters installed at the end of last winter are doing a very good job and warming the big church well on these cold winter days and nights. The old ones, incidentally, are now performing valuable service in the parish hall.

● September "Chronicle": Items for next month's issue will be due by Sunday, 24th August.

● Seamen's Mission Fete: The Seamen's Mission, George Street North (opp. Overseas Terminal) will hold its annual fete on Saturday, 9th August from 10.30 a.m. onwards, and parishioners are invited to go along. There will be all the usual stalls, plus refreshments, games, and superb travel slides. Proceeds are used to provide the Church Services and other facilities of the Mission. We also suggest workers for our Fete may also get extra ideas for their own stalls.

Car Drive: The Y.C.I.'s annual parish car drive is set down for Saturday, 18th October, and we invite all interested parishioners to make a note of the date. The route should be known later this month, and will take in points of interest in the country near Sydney. Until this is decided and cars secured, we regret that it is not possible to take bookings for seats.
